Find Old Memento At West Newton

Last Friday afternoon Ex-Alderman William Noone and John Fallon of Auburndale were conversing on Washington st., West Newton, in front of the westerly end of the site of the old Nickerson Block, when Fallon observed a rusted piece of metal in the remains of the old wall of the building, a few feet of which is still standing. With his knife Fallon loosened the metal, which proved to be a small, old tobacco box, bearing the inscription "Bagley's Mayflower." Inside the box were the tattered pieces of a letter which reads—"This box placed here the 19th day of April, 1882. A wooden building and store built in 1809 torn down to give place to this building. The present building is J. H. Nickerson's on corner. Adjoining property Westward owned by B. F. Houghton; 23 feet of the front section of this building was completed in 1873, extension commenced in 1881, basement nearly completed under the old building and store finished in April 1882. Building built for J. H. Nickerson, now a resident of West Newton, living on Elm st."

An Open Letter From Roy Edwards To Mayor Childs

Newtonville, August 4, 1937.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
I know that as a long time Mayor of the City of Newton, you must be vitally interested in the proper management and efficient running of all its departments. For this reason I am taking the liberty of openly calling your attention to what I feel is an impractical purchase, and for the purpose for which it is intended, a useless vehicle.

My reference is to a lately purchased "Police Ambulance." An ambulance, as I understand it, is a conveyance used for the purpose of getting emergency cases to a hospital as quickly and as comfortably as possible. The new Police Ambulance which I saw this A. M. is mounted on a ton and a half truck chassis, with, perhaps, additions to its springs for what might be considered more comfortable riding qualities. Nothing in my opinion could make a ton and a half truck so that it would ever serve as a comfortable conveyance for a well person let alone one with broken limbs or desperately ill.

All streets in Newton are not as smooth as Boylston and Washington st. It is my opinion that individuals being driven over uneven roads in this car, on arrival at the hospital, would through the jouncing they would receive, be in a much worse condition than before they started. It might even be discovered that the attendant accompanying the patient would be "hors de combat" through his inability to hang on to the "wee" folding seat in the rear.

Over twenty years ago in France I was carried to a hospital over rough cobblestone roads much gentler than I am convinced that this new truck ambulance with its highly inflated tires would do it.

Mr. Mayor, Newton, a fair sized city, is rich in real estate. Its taxes considering assessed value are not low. Do you think that a ton and a half truck built to carry at least three tons, used as an ambulance is fair to the taxpayers or the unfortunate who some day may be compelled through illness or accident to ride in it? A fair test would be for you and other unbiased healthy citizens to be driven in it at ambulance speed over some average Newton streets. I am satisfied as a result of such a test, this you would see to it that our citizens are provided with an ambulance such as it deserves and can afford.

Sincerely yours,
ROY S. EDWARDS.

Newton's Dog Trouble Grows

The problem of too many untrained dogs in the increasingly thickly settled city of Newton increases. A complaint was issued this week against Vincenzo DeAngelo of 112 Chapel st., Nonantum for cruelly beating a dog. The complaint was obtained by Howard Willard, agent of the M. S. P. C. A. It alleges that DeAngelo on July 15 grabbed a 3 months old shaggy dog which he invaded his garden on Hawthorn st., hurled it to the sidewalk and broke two of its legs. The dog was shot. It was the property of Grace Hapenny of 416 Watertown st., Nonantum. Lindley R. Sutton of 196 Windsor rd., Waban, has been summoned to appear in the Newton court on August 10 on a charge of keeping a biting dog. The complainant is Lyndal Carter of 214 Windsor rd. He states that on August 2nd a bull terrier owned by Sutton attacked his cocker spaniel, and when he attempted to separate the dogs, the bull terrier bit him on both wrists. He also stated that Sutton's bull terrier has killed two cats in the district, and has attacked other dogs. It is also claimed that in addition to the alleged savage bull terrier, Sutton keeps five other dogs.

Two New Firemen Cut By Glass

When the firemen arrived they broke a pane of plate glass in the front door to gain entrance to the store. In crawling through the broken door, Dooley received a severe gash on his left wrist which necessitated six stitches to close. Captain Herlihy received cuts on both hands. An overheated motor in the refrigerating plant in the cellar of the store caused the smoke.

Health Department Head Says Newton Water Supply Conduit Should Be Abandoned

Dr. Chope in Annual Report Says Many Harmful Bacteria Found in Old Wooden Conduit

The printed report of the Newton Health Department was issued this week. One section of the report which should be of vital interest to residents of Newton is that referring to the Newton water supply. Dr. Harold D. Chope, head of the Newton Health Department, says:

"The bacteriological examinations of Newton's water supply are made in the Health Department laboratory. Samples are secured once or twice a week by a representative of the Water Department, in bottles furnished by and sterilized in our laboratory. During the period of exceptionally high water in March, samples were collected almost every day. Samples were routinely secured at 9 different points, 6 points before the water was treated and 3 after treatment. Some samples were also secured from the reservoir located on Waban Hill."

"The percent of specimens of water from the two wells positive for the coli-aerogenes group, was somewhat higher during 1936 than in 1935. In all probability, this is no occasion for alarm nor is it an indication that the quality of the water during 1936 was not as good as during 1935, as practically 50 per cent of the positive specimens for the entire year were secured during the flood period."

"The specimens secured at Ward st., where there is a cross connection with the Metropolitan water supply, were very much better during 1936 than during the preceding year."

"Examination of specimens of water from the reservoir taken during the fall of the year, indicated that the reservoir had probably become seeded with bacteria. Upon recommendation of His Honor the Mayor, the Water Commissioner and the Director of Public Health, the Board of Aldermen appropriated a sum of money to have the reservoir cleaned out. The bacteriological examinations of specimens from the reservoir made subsequent to the cleaning have indicated that the quality of the water is much improved. Starting January 1, 1937, specimens will be secured each week from several different sections of the reservoir."

"The point of greatest danger in the entire system is the infiltration gallery. Approximately 50 per cent of the specimens collected from points along this gallery during 1936 were positive for the coli-aerogenes group. Accepted standards allow only 10 per cent positives in a year."

There are two large artesian wells at the Newton water reservation south of Kendrick st., Needham, which supply about 50% of the water used in Newton. The balance of the supply is obtained mostly by pumping water from the Charles River into basins which were excavated some years ago at the reservation north of Kendrick st. This water filters through a gravel and sand strata into the long wooden gallery, which also carries the water from the artesian wells to the pumping station. The count of coli-aerogenes bacteria at Well No. 1 in 1936 averaged 4.8, at Well No. 2, 13.4; at the manhole near the pumping station 48.2 and at the tap in the pumping station 1.2. The water is treated with chlorine and sodium ash at the pumping station before entering the water mains; hence the big decrease in bacteria content.

Two new artesian wells are being excavated at the water reservation, one of which is on the north side of Kendrick st., nearer the pumping station than the present wells. These

Continue Hearing On Trucking Ban

Another hearing on the continuing of the injunction which prevents the City of Newton from enforcing a ban on heavy trucking at Dedham st., Oak Hill, was held at City Hall on Tuesday. It was attended by Wendell Murray of Revere, who is acting as master on this matter; Joseph Bartlett, city solicitor and his associate, William Guernsey; George Wilbur of the Highland Sand & Gravel Company, who obtained the injunction, and his attorneys, Van Thompson and Hartwell. The group made a tour of Oak Hill before meeting at City Hall. The hearing was continued on Wednesday at Murray's office in Boston.

SHOULD THE PEOPLE DECIDE

A few years ago the voters of the Commonwealth adopted the so-called pre-primary convention method of selecting party candidates for the endorsement of nominations contested at the primary elections. Experience with this method has resulted in the introduction of certain abuses which many contend has not been conducive to good government. During the last legislative session the pre-primary convention was repealed after considerable debate. Since that time a group of individuals, including members of both major parties, have sought the decision of the higher courts as to whether or not the Legislature had the authority to repeal the law, adopted by the initiative referendum, without first referring it to the people for another expression of their wishes. This decision as to whether or not the people's wishes should be ignored is awaited with considerable interest on the part of many. Regardless of what the decision may be it will most assuredly have a great effect upon political developments in this state during the next twelve months.

CONGRESSMAN LUCE'S SPEECH STRIKES KEYNOTE

Now that the issue dealing with the Supreme Court has come to a fortunate end it is interesting to recall that the opening gun in the battle against the "packing" of the high tribunal was fired by our own Congressman Robert Luce. His speech in the National House of Representatives in the middle of January, and delivered before the President, had disclosed his full program and it struck the keynote of the many months of debate which followed. Congressman Luce's speech is another example of that legislative ability and knowledge of government which he possesses and with which he has so ably represented the citizens of Newton and other communities of the district for many years.

A LOCAL REFERENDUM

On the subject of referendum we are reminded that at the coming city election in December the people of Newton will be asked to decide upon the question of biennial elections of aldermen and members of the school committee. While it is still too warm to get deeply bothered about local politics it should be kept in mind that before many months this question will be faced by voters of Newton.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL CLOSES

The Vacation Church School held for July on Andover-Newton Hill, Newton Centre, closed Friday, July 30, after a successful term of four weeks. Appropriate exercises for parents and guests were held in the chapel, to a full house. Kindergarten songs were given by the smallest children. A dramatization of the "Story of the Baby Moses" was most effectively presented by the primary department under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn B. Downer. Junior boys and girls presented the "Parable of the Talents" in a clear and unforgettable manner. Mr. Everett C. Herrick, president of Andover-Newton Theological School, added fitting words relative to the value of a vacation school to the community. The offering taken was added to the children's previous offerings, and given to the Salvation Army, to be used for underprivileged children at open air camps in Maine. Following the program an exhibit of the children's handwork was shown in Colby Hall.

This school, sponsored by local churches and some individuals, adequately cared for 160 children, who might otherwise have had little to constructively occupy their time.

THE NORTHWIND COOLS AND REFRESHES

The "NORTHWIND" conditioning unit is a simple installation which slides into the window like a screen, and plugs into a light socket. As simple as that, yet it cools, dehumidifies, destroys odors, purifies and disinfects the air. It absorbs heat and moisture by electric refrigeration, equivalent to the melting of 1 1/4 ton of ice in 24 hours. Curtis and Pope Lumber Co. of 50 Crafts st., Newtonville, have one of these Northwind Air conditioners in operation at their office, and they will be glad to explain in detail the remarkable results obtained from this unit. It may be bought on a deferred payment plan if desired.

Rotary Club

Mr. Stanley Lary, Secretary of the University Club of Boston, addressed the members of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the regular meeting concerning his work with college graduates. Mr. Lary is head of the placement activities of the University Club and his work involves interviewing, counseling, and guidance of young men who are seeking employment or reemployment. Mr. Lary emphasized the fact that the University Club tries to put young men in touch with positions where they will be able to become self-supporting, self-respecting individuals who have an opportunity for contributing to general social and economic welfare. He stated that the Club was not interested in placing individuals who are only seeking self-gratification and power brought by financial success.

The message was particularly interesting to the Club inasmuch as it has been so keenly interested in boys' work through its scholarship and loan funds.

Kurt Theophilus is in charge of the program for next week and has secured a speaker from the Hamburg American Steamship Line who will show some interesting motion pictures concerned with present-day Germany, and with transportation facilities of that country.

TOWNSEND CLUB MEETING

Members of the local Townsend Clubs will be interested in the announcement that Dr. Francis E. Townsend will be the principal speaker at a mass meeting to be held in Nevins Hall, Framingham on Saturday, August 7 at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

HIGH TAXES?

August 2, 1937.

Editor, Newton Graphic,
Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Isn't it about time for a radical reduction in our city taxes? We have little control over our Federal assessors, and not much over State and County, but our Aldermen can be properly instructed every so often. Our taxes have increased every year but one, for fifteen to twenty years, either rate or assessment, despite enormous growth in population and building. Why shouldn't this have reduced taxes?

Why is it that loans on homes are limited to one quarter or one third the valuation set by the Assessors? Why are there so many houses being sold for taxes, or by the banks for a fraction of their real value? Isn't the assessed value far above the market value? And why should we support three tax assessors when one good man would probably suffice?

Our expenditures for improvements are huge—schools, streets, water and sewage, garbage and rubbish disposal, etc., but isn't there a limit?

Do we have to pension teachers whether married or not, at 60? They work only nine months out of the twelve, the rest of us full time. We have seventy odd miles of accepted streets, and as much unaccepted, yet residents on the latter pay as high taxes as the former, but receive little service. Our water and sewage departments are frequently asking for money, and not always getting full value in return, although employing high priced experts for advice. We are paying for a rubbish incinerator collection, and at the same time paying a contractor to collect garbage for his pigs, which he formerly bought from the city, with no charge for collection. Why wasn't the incinerator built for rubbish and garbage the same as in Worcester, New Bedford, Providence, and elsewhere? There were plenty of locations where any possible question of nuisance would have been avoided, and the rubbish burns the garbage.

These are only some of the questions in taxpayers' minds, as the annual tribute due approaches, and irrespective of alibis, they are real questions. What is the Taxpayers' League doing about this situation? I believe our taxes are at least 25% too high, and that the best way to reduce them (as is imperative) is to cut salaries, reduce personnel, and pare expenditures. This is in our hands. At the next election, unless some drastic savings are effected, we should select different men to run our city.

Yours truly,
WM. G. STARKWEATHER.

NEWTON HIGH DEFICIENCIES

The tax rate for 1887 has been fixed at $15.89; a gain of $1.40 over last year. There is a gain of $1,022,815 on real estate, which foots up this year to $23,079,866. Personal estate foots up to $9,218,791; a gain of $178,922 over last year.

NEWTON HOME SOLD

John T. Burns & Sons, Inc., report that final papers have been passed conveying the new English type brick residence located at 56 Cotton st., Newton, to Jessie S. Shapiro, who purchases for a home. With the house which contains nine rooms and three baths there is an attached two car garage and 9,800 square feet of land. The total assessment is $15,000. The First Federal Savings and Loan Association were the grantors.

Newton Republican, August 7, 1875
Newton has $450,000 invested in school buildings.

Mounted police are suggested for various parts of the city, in the widely separated districts. We are not so overrun with criminals that present methods are not ample.

The tramp nuisance is being solved. For weeks we have read of outrages by tramps, increasing in frequency and annoyance. The tide has turned and announcements are coming in like this one from Portland, Maine—"The first tramp was sentenced to-day to 30 days in the House of Correction." Mayor Hyde has a notice in another column looking to the same disposition of them in Newton.

Store buildings valued at $200,000 have been erected in Ward 1 during the past year.

Extensive repairs have been found necessary on the bridge over the Charles River at Lower Falls. Rather a short life for a $6000 bridge built only 2 years ago.

Travel through Lower Falls for the past few days has been very large. The increase is largely on account of the militia muster at Framingham. On Sunday, and Sunday and Monday nights the rattle of wheels and shouts of men could be heard frequently. The police were kept busy.

The old cemetery on Centre st. has been rejuvenated, the city authorities having got sick of seeing it in so neglected a condition. The grass has been mowed, the trees trimmed and matters generally put to rights. This money has been well spent.

(Legal Notice) CITY OF NEWTON

West Newton, Aug. 5, 1875

The attention of all persons is called to the following extract from the Laws and Resolves of the year 1866; Chapter 225, Sec. 1: "All idle persons who not having visible means of support, all persons wandering abroad and visiting tippling shops or houses of ill-fame, or lodging in groceries, out-houses, market places, sheds, barns or the open air, and not having a good account of themselves; all persons wandering abroad, or who go from door to door, or place themselves in the streets, highways, passages or other public places to beg or receive alms, shall be deemed vagrants."

As tramps and beggars have become a great nuisance, and in order to become worse in the future unless measures are taken to prevent such a result, I have thought it wise to call attention to the law relating to this class. The police have been instructed to arrest all who are liable under this law, take them before a magistrate at once, when, if convicted, they will be sent to the State Workhouse. I call on all inhabitants of the city to co-operate with the police in the enforcement of this law. Persons should immediately notify the police when beggars or tramps call at their houses so they may at once be arrested.

James F. C. Hyde, Mayor.

Newton Graphic, August 6, 1887
Rev. Mr. Titus of the Newton Baptist Church did some extraordinary riding on his bicycle one day last week. He left a small town 7 miles beyond Providence at 2 p. m. and arrived home at 7 o'clock; doing the 56 miles in 5 hours.

The first road race of the Newton Bicycle Club last Saturday aroused a good deal of interest. The distance was 25 miles, through West Newton and Wellesley to Natick and return. E. S. Martin was first, his time 1 hour, 35 min.

Prayers were offered in Grace Episcopal Church last Sunday for the safe return of Judge Gardner who sailed in the SERVIA from Liverpool on July 30. The BOSTON ADVERTISER says there has been a decided improvement in his condition.

Constable Laffie had an exciting time with an alleged mad dog last Friday at the house of Mrs. Lefferlein on Jewett st., Newton. The dog, a cross between a mastiff and a bulldog, had been sick and Friday showed symptoms of hydrophobia, so that the people were frightened out of the house. Mr. Laffie was sent for and when he opened the door slightly, the dog sprang at him, just in time to receive a bullet from a revolver. The affair created much excitement.

The tax rate for 1887 has been fixed at $15.89; a gain of $1.40 over last year. There is a gain of $1,022,815 on real estate, which foots up this year to $23,079,866. Personal estate foots up to $9,218,791; a gain of $178,922 over last year.

A genuine Utah Mormon is vigorously engaged in proselytizing the people of Newton and vicinity, and endeavoring to persuade young men to go to Utah. Inducements offered are a multiplicity of wives, a fine farming country, and wealth to the energetic. Mormonism yet exists, tar and feathers are good individual remedies, and might work well in Newton.

The address of the party who wants a trained goat has been mislaid, and several letters have been received at the GRAPHIC office from persons having goats.

The newspapers have begun a crusade against the disorder on the last train from Boston Saturday nights on the B. & A. to Newton, Wellesley and Natick. Respectable people cannot travel on the train without being subjected to insults and annoyances. Train employees seem to be powerless to preserve order. As Boston gets the profits out of the trade of making these men drunk, it should provide policemen on late trains to keep them from annoying sober passengers.

Walker Host To Fellow Aldermen

Alderman Clifford Walker of 711 Chestnut st., Waban, was host to fellow members of the board at a luncheon served at his estate on Wednesday evening preceding the special meeting of the board at City Hall.

Following the luncheon, the Aldermen had the pleasure of inspecting the beautiful flower garden on Mr. Walker's property. The Waban Alderman's hobby is floriculture, and he has one of the most attractive gardens in this city. Every square foot of space in Mr. Walker's yard is devoted to the garden, except for a charming, little lawn in the centre. Because of Mr. Walker's modesty, few of his fellow Aldermen knew of his expertise, before visiting his estate on Wednesday evening.

At the meeting of the board on Wednesday night the list of election officers, whose names were presented by Mayor Childs, was confirmed. Action was held on the proposed amendment to the Building Code relative to the height of steeples on churches. In 1928 the building code was revised, and the height of steeples was limited to 1 1/2 times the height of the building. This limited the height to much less than that of many steeples which had been built on churches in this city prior to 1928. The reason for the revision from the restriction imposed in 1928 is—that the First Church of Christ, Scientist, at Newtonville, plans to build a spire which will be more than 1 1/2 times the height of the building.

The Claims and Rules Committee had voted to recommend the granting of a permit to Paul Sykes to change a single dwelling at 19 George st., Newton, into a two-family house. Because of objections from neighbors this matter was held up. Two loans were authorized from the Consens Fund: one of $6,000, the other for $405 additional.

Marshall, guest preacher for the six co-operating Newtonville and West Newton churches, will take as his sermon subject at the union services at Newtonville Methodist Church Sunday, August 8, at 11 o'clock, "The Adequacy of Christ." Music will be as follows: Prelude, "Meditation," Wagner; anthems, "Seek Him That Maketh the Seven Stars," Rogers; and "O Rest in the Lord," Mendelssohn; Postlude, "Allegro maestoso," West.

Powers' Paragraphs

During the past year or two we have heard much about "the freedom of the press." The Federal administration was criticised because of proposed legislation which allegedly threatened that great American principle—"the freedom of the press." Certain newspaper publishers throughout this country have condemned the American Newspaper Guild because they claim that this rapidly growing organization endangers the freedom of the press. Here in Boston the past week we had an illustration of the freedom of the press.

For some months past labor strikes have been prevalent all over the U. S. A., and newspapers have given much space to accounts of these strikes. Last Thursday and Friday there was a strike at Somerville. It occurred at the plant of one of the largest companies operating chain grocery store and meat markets in Massachusetts. It prevented the delivery of bakery goods made in this company's bakery to the hundreds of stores operated in this area. But, did you read anything in your Boston newspaper of this strike? The company involved is one of the largest advertisers in Boston papers. A large percentage of our newspapers forget about the much vaunted "freedom of the press" when financial gain—or loss—enters into the situation. These newspapers were almost equally silent in March, 1936 when certain large milk companies in Greater Boston distributed "manufactured milk" during the flood period.

Senator Lodge has gained thousands of supporters because of his attitude on the hours and wages bill. And the majority of the Senators from the Democratic South have again proved how democratic they really are when it comes to improving the social and economic conditions of working people in their states. These same Southern senators insist on high tariffs to protect the cotton, sugar and other staple agricultural products raised in their region from competition by similar products raised in foreign countries where labor costs are much less.

The rules and regulations of the Registry of Motor Vehicles of Massachusetts specify that lighted headlights on automobiles operated in this state shall throw sufficient light to make clear all persons, vehicles or substantial objects for a distance of at least 160 feet. This rule is not being enforced, either by the Registry of Motor Vehicles, or members of police departments in Massachusetts. More and more automobiles are being operated on our highways after dark without headlights as prescribed by the law. Instead, they are using roadlights, or fog-lights; lamps affixed to bumpers or otherwise on the front of cars, and not throwing beams for 160 feet ahead. Interstate buses, some years ago started to use roadlights in addition to headlights, and the practice was imitated by many owners of small cars. These fellows should be made to use the headlights on their cars for the protection of pedestrians. Mr. Goodwin should also campaign against the use of high-powered bulbs in headlights. He announced a few years ago that he was going to prohibit the use of 32 candle-power bulbs because of the excessive glare they cause. He did not do so. Some headlamps are equipped now with bulbs of more than 32 candlepower.

Another automobile nuisance which should be eliminated is the use of super-noisy automobile horns. These nerve wracking devices were also first used on big interstate busses, and gradually adopted by thousands of the "get out of my way" type of speeders. Such blaring horns not only tend to cause nervous drivers to lose control of cars when suddenly sounded behind them, but these horns are tooted at all hours of the night by inconsiderate drivers, and disturb the sleep of many. With so many campaigns in cities against unnecessary noise, why not prohibit automobile horns that produce oodles of decibels.

The construction of the underpass on Commonwealth ave. at Massachusetts ave., Boston, calls attention to the need of an overpass at the intersection of Commonwealth ave. and Cottage Farm bridge. It should be comparatively easy to use the long approaches provided by the bridge and the Boston & Albany railroad for over head ramps.

The wide walk leading to the Newton Free Library on Centre st., Newton, has been flanked the past few years by beautiful flower gardens which have become increasingly attractive. Annuals and perennials are in bloom from May until October. Credit for these gardens should be given to the Newton Garden Club and the Forestry Division of the Newton Street Department. The Newton Garden Club proposed beautifying the approach to the library several years ago. Members of the club contribute money for the purchase of seedlings and plants, and contribute plants and bulbs from their own gardens. Mrs. Edwin W. Smith of Elliot Memorial rd. is president of the club. Herbert C. Fraser of Eldredge st., founder and for 7 years, president of the club, has shown so much interest in the garden at the library, that he has even contributed his manual labor in developing it. John Hargrove of West Newton is the efficient employee of the Forestry Department who cares not only for the garden at the library, but also for Farrow Park and the rose garden at the Children's Library on Vernon st.

Even before the garden was started at the Newton Free Library, the Newton Centre Garden Club developed a very attractive garden at the rear of the Newton Centre Branch Library. These contributions to our city's beauty by lovers of flowers, deserve the appreciation of their fellow citizens.

History of Coined Money

Dates to About 900 B. C.

The selection of gold and silver for the principal monetary purposes was due to their adaptability. In addition to their being desirable, observes a writer in the Indianapolis News, they possess the following qualities demonstrated to be requisite to a just and equitable medium of value: Relative scarcity, portability (containing large values in a small bulk), durability, homogeneity (or uniformity), divisibility (capable of being divided into small parts and again united without appreciable loss).

The use of the metals as money by weight proved a cumbersome process, and a coining device was introduced, probably by the Greeks about 900 B. C. The bank check came into use as a means of saving the transfer of coined money. The bank note is an evolution of these preceding forms, being a promise of the bank to pay the specified amount on demand. The Bank of Sweden is credited with having first issued this form of money in 1668. The scarcity of gold and silver, the need of bills of exchange and of a money more convenient to carry, and the issuance of government credits forced on bankrupt nations brought about the use of paper money in European countries. Colonial America early adopted this medium of exchange from the English.

Paper money in America first was issued by Massachusetts in 1690. The object was not to supply any supposed lack of a medium for trade, but to satisfy the demands of some clamorous soldiers. The first issue of money under authority of the Continental congress was dated May 10, 1775, but not placed in circulation until the following August.

Some Birds Choose Dark

Nest, Hide White Eggs

In nearly all cases, birds that lay white eggs hide them in dark places, while eggs that are covered with brilliant markings on a colored shell are left in exposed positions, writes Oliver G. Pike, F. Z. S., in London Tit-Bits Magazine.

All the owls choose dark places for their homes, and few make any attempt at nest building. The eggs of the tawny owl are found in holes in trees, and the decaying wood or other rubbish at the bottom forms the only nest. The barn owl chooses a bare board or other ledge in the sheltered corner of any old building, while the little owl is often content with a rabbit burrow on a grassy bank. All these birds lay pure white eggs with no markings.

Kingfishers and woodpeckers lay white eggs, and build dark homes in which to conceal them. The kingfisher is a clever engineer. She makes a tunnel in a sandy bank and, at the end of this, which may be four feet in length, she excavates a larger chamber in which the nest is made. This consists entirely of undigested fish bones which she casts up through the beak in the form of white pellets.

The little sand-martin also digs out a tunnel on a grassy bank, an even more wonderful feat than that of the kingfisher, which has a long sharp beak well adapted for digging, but the sand-martin has only a tiny beak. She also lays white eggs.

Woodpeckers make their homes in trees, boring through two or three inches of solid wood, then digging out a larger chamber in the heart of the trunk. The green woodpecker is the best known of the several species; in many country districts it is called the "wet weather bird," because its loud notes are so often heard just before rain. Kingfishers' and woodpeckers' eggs are pure white, have a gloss on their surface, and the shells are so thin that the yolk shows through, giving them a dainty pink tinge.

"Ringside Seats" for Battle

The only real naval battle for which excursion boats sold "ringside seats" took place in the English Channel on June 19, 1864, according to Collier's Weekly. The American Union ship Kearsarge was about to attack the Confederate cruiser Alabama—docked at Cherbourg, France—when French officials warned its captain to do his fighting outside of the three-mile limit. Three days later the battle took place, before thousands of "fight fans" from France and England.

Lyrebird Sings, Struts

Like Vaudeville Actor

The artistic range of the Australian lyrebird (genus menura) is from classic grand opera to low comedy vaudeville. He can reproduce the melodious notes of the most gifted feathered songster in a way that makes the imitator often highly envious, for the duplicate is often more beautiful in tone, volume, flexibility, and flourishes than the original, writes Mason Warner in the Chicago Tribune.

The lyrebird cannot be domesticated. He roams "the bush," wild and free. He is shy and timid, and he lives his own life in the seclusion of the forest. Proud of his accomplishments, he apparently welcomes the opportunity to show off before his admiring family or an enthralled and silent audience or other birds. He is a true artist and often performs in strict solitude—running through his entire repertoire just for art's sake.

He seems to have a sense of property rights. He respects the territorial boundaries of his neighbors and defends his own. He is monogamous and faithful to his mate, rearing his family, one baby bird a year, and keeping his offspring with the family until their fourth year, when they go on their own. So lyrebird family usually consists of the parent birds and two or three young ones.

We don't agree with Mr. Starkweather that one man could do the assessing for the city of Newton. The job of being an assessor is no sinecure. Neither is it a job suitable for a temperamental or quick tempered man. The assessors have to listen to hundreds of kicks and whines, some of which may be called or, many of which are quite unreasonable.

Naming the Ladybug

The ladybug, ladybird, or lady beetle is not named for Ma, the Great Mother of the Gods, but for Our Lady, the Mother of Jesus, to whom the insect was dedicated in the Middle Ages, perhaps for its services to man, says a writer in the New York World-Telegram. Most of the lady beetles are predaceous, feeding as larva and adults on small insects and eggs of larger ones, plant lice and scale insects. When the cottony-cushion scale insect came to California from Australia the ladybird Vedalia was also brought from Australia to save California's oranges.

First to Grow Potatoes

The potato is a native of South America, apparently originating along the Pacific coast of that country, as the first published record of potatoes is found in Cieca's "Chronicles of Peru," published in 1553. The Incas called them "pappas." They were introduced into Europe in the middle of the sixteenth century, states a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, but did not become an important crop until much later. In cultivation the tuber has become larger, and the seeds fewer, but otherwise the plant is little different from its wild form. Botanists have searched in vain for its ancestor.

Ear-Piercing Social Event

The young lady of Burma who reaches the age of 12 to 14 years is introduced to the marriageable status by an ordeal which takes courage to endure. This consists of the ceremony of ear piercing which has been arranged by the family astrologer. When the proper hour and minute arrives the young lady is surrounded by happy relatives and friends who enjoy music and feasting and, therefore, help to divert attention away from the ominous needle. Afterward comes the glory of wearing handsome earrings of glittering jewels and heavy filigree work, or if she is of lowly estate, then gaudy glass adorns the ears.

Language and Thought

Defined by Authorities

Language in its broadest sense is any means of expressing thought, so that even the cries of the lower animals, in so far as they give expression to their state of mind, may be considered language, states a writer in the Detroit News.

Animals are conceded to have a limited capacity to think and reason, and many of them have considerable intelligence and imagination, though it would be difficult to demonstrate that they can reason from cause to effect. The same is true of infants who have not yet learned to talk. On the other hand, the great importance of language to real thought is brought out by such writers as Samuel Johnson:

"Language is the dress of thought"; Carlyle, "Language is the flesh - garment, the body, of thought"; Scott, "Just at the age 'twixt boy and youth, when thought is speech and speech is truth." Others may be quoted to illustrate the common saying that a thought may be too deep to be put into language. C. P. Cranch, "Thought is deeper than all speech, feeling deeper than all thought," also Matthew Prior, "They always talk who never think," to indicate that language does not always denote thought.

First Bread From Acorns

The earliest known bread flour was made from acorns. Indeed, Indians on South America's west coast still eat acorn bread. The nuts are so bitter to taste they first must be thoroughly soaked in boiling water. Although white bread made of wheat flour is almost standard food in the United States, that's not true of the rest of the world. Rye bread is eaten almost exclusively in some parts of Europe and bread of millet in other sections. Barley bread, another of the earliest foods, is still made, and tapioca meal is used in some parts of South America. China and India, too, have a native bread. It's made from durra, a grain resembling millet.

Origin of the Basques

There are various theories as to the origin of the people of the Basque country. 1. That they are descended from the tribes known to the Romans as the Iberi. 2. That they are descendants of some of the fairer tribes of northern Africa. 3. That they are remnants of the inhabitants of the lost Atlantic continent. 4. That they are an indigenous race. The name "Basque" is considered to be a form of Vasco, an inhabitant of Vasconia or Gascony; according to one authority some of the Basques derive it from "Bayascogara," meaning "We are enough," a reference to their extreme conservatism and independence.

Early California Missions

Some of the earliest California missions in the order of their establishment were: San Diego, 1769; San Carlos, 1770; San Antonio, 1771; San Gabriel, 1771; San Luis Obispo, 1772; San Francisco de Asis (Dolores), 1776; San Juan Capistrano, 1776; Santa Clara, 1777; San Buenaventura, 1782; Santa Barbara, 1786; La Purisima Concepcion, 1787; Santa Cruz, 1790; La Soledad, 1791; San Fernando, 1797; San Miguel, 1797; San Juan Bautista, 1797; San Jose, 1797; San Luis Rey, 1798; Santa Ynes, 1804; San Rafael, 1817, and San Francisco Solano, 1823.

Discovery of Silk

Silk was discovered so long ago that there is no trustworthy history of the event. It was not well known to the classical Europeans, but it was introduced into Europe from Asia within their times, probably not long before the Christian era. Silk worms were not cultivated in Europe until the sixteenth century A. D. In China, where undoubtedly silk culture began, it is of the highest antiquity, and according to Chinese tradition, was first begun by Siling, the wife of the Emperor Hoangti, B. C. 2600.

For example: "What are correct names for these two jumbled New England Cities—MANISTON and LEWCHESTER?" The correct answer is MANCHESTER and LEWISTON. The jumbled names appearing together will represent a similar classification. One week six New England Manufacturing Centers, the next week six New England Colleges, etc. Each New England State will be represented each week in the six names. It is part of this contest to find the correct name that goes with each State.
- The New England Press Association will award a First Prize of $2,000.00 as a part of $1,000.00 in cash prizes to the person or persons submitting the correct or most correct names for each of the six jumbled names, and in all other ways conforming to the Official Rules. The person or persons submitting the next nearest correct solutions shall be eligible for the additional prizes in the order of the correctness of their solutions. Merchandise prizes will be given to the twenty highest contestants in each state, who will win a Gift Packet containing ten full size packages—one each of the products advertised in this contest.
- Neatness does not count. Do not decorate your replies or make them elaborate.
- In case of ties, as many prizes will be reserved as there are persons tied before any prize is awarded for a least correct solution; that is, if two or more people tie in submitting the correct or nearest correct solutions to the 60 names, the first two or more prizes will be reserved for them and will be awarded in the order of the correctness of the solutions of such contestants (without cost) to a second series of 60 names, together with the best letter of not over 200 words on the subject "Why I Prefer to Read A Weekly Newspaper." In the event of a final tie between two or more contestants for any position in the list of winners, identical prizes will be awarded to the tying contestants.
- Answers to each weekly contest should be submitted during the following week. Reasonable facilities (hand drawn, not traced) of the Know New England Contest Answer Forms may be submitted. Entry forms may be submitted from any of the newspapers cooperating in this contest. The contestant should bring the answers or mail them by First Class Postage to the CONTEST EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. Answer Forms in this Know New England Contest for the tenth and last series will be received up to noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937. No Answer Forms will be accepted for judging which arrive at the contest office later than that date and hour, except those sent by mail and postmarked not later than noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937.
- In order to qualify for a prize, the contestant is required to accompany each of the 10 series of answers with a remittance of ten cents in coin payment in return for which you will receive four beautiful photographic prints of New England scenes. Picture size 8" x 11", suitable for framing. Purchase of these prints is a condition for entering the contest. These picture prizes will be mailed to the contestant at the close of the contest.
- Any person entering the contest and by submission of answers, agrees to accept as final the decision of the New England Press Association and the Contest Editor, on all matters affecting the conduct of the contest, the making of awards, and procedure and policy with regard to the acceptance of submissions during the contest. The spelling of these New England Names conforms with that given in the Encyclopedia Britannica. The New England Press Association reserves the right to disqualify any submission which shows evidence of collusion.
- Answer Forms to which no names are signed will not be considered, nor will matters affecting the ownership of such answers be recognized. The New England Press Association will not be responsible for answers or communications unduly delayed or lost in transit either by mail or by other means. The New England Press Association or from the New England Press Association to the contestant.
- More than one member of a family may enter this contest if 10 cents is sent with each Answer Form.

If there is anything about this contest you do not thoroughly understand, write or telephone the CONTEST EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, or this Newspaper for an explanation. Enclose a dime with your ANSWER FORM when sending in each week's series. This is required under the rules to qualify for a prize, and in return you will receive, at the conclusion of the contest, four beautiful photographic prints from pictures by Sam Chamberlain, distinguished photographer of New England scenes. Picture size 8" x 11", suitable for framing. In sending your coin, wrap it in a small piece of paper before placing it in an envelope.

Police Give Lesson On Respect for Flag

Tuesday afternoon as Patrolmen Hoyt and Taffe were patrolling the South Side of the city in a cruising car they observed a few boys about 12 years old selling lemonade on a sidewalk. The table from which the boys were dispensing the beverage had as a tablecloth a United States flag. The two patrolmen stopped the car, lectured the boys on proper respect for the flag, and had them take it off the table.

Doves Have No Gall Bladder

The gall or gall bladder is present in most vertebrates, but is absent from all doves and pigeons. It is a sac in which the bile secreted by the liver is stored until required for use in the digestive system. The bile is a bitter fluid and the ancients believed that the gall was the seat of bitterness, grief and bad temper. Thus the absence of the organ in the dove, combined with its reputed inoffensive nature, led to its selection as the symbol of meekness and the emblem of peace. According to the legend, no member of the pigeon family has had a gall since the dove sent from the ark by Noah burst its gall out of grief. In Hamlet, Shakespeare makes the prince of Denmark say, "I am pigeon-livered and lack gall."

Turtle Market, Ancient

Industry in New Orleans

Probably one of the most curious sights in New Orleans, La., is the turtle shops in the Old French Market, notes a New Orleans United Press correspondent in the Chicago Daily News.

Every night, approximately 1,000 pounds of snapping turtles are thrown upon the chopping block to be cut and sold for making stew or soup. This scene has been going on since the market was established nearly 100 years ago.

The turtles, of two distinct varieties, the Cowan and the Loggerhead, are caught in fresh water marshes north of Baton Rouge.

Fishermen patiently wade through marshes and wherever they see bubbles coming to the surface, they probe with long rods until they hook the struggling turtle. Some of them weigh as much as 300 pounds. Then begins the job of pulling them out of their holes of the mud where they have burrowed.

Once they are caught, most of the turtles are penned, frequently on shallow barges filled with water and mud. In this way they are kept alive until they can be delivered to the market in the winter, when prices are nearly double what they are in summer.

It is just a short journey for the turtle from life in the swamps to the stew pots of New Orleans.

Leap Years

A year is not an arbitrary period of time, but the approximate time required for the earth to make one circuit of its orbit around the sun. The time actually required for this circuit is not 365 days, but 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and 46 seconds. By adding a day every fourth year we take care of these excess hours, states a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. But in the course of a century we have added almost a day too much. The years divisible by 100 are therefore not leap years, except when they are divisible by 400. Thus 1900 was not a leap year but 2000 will be. All this is in accordance with the calendar arrangement worked out by astronomers under the patronage of Pope Gregory XIII about 1582.

Travel to Egypt Began

About the Year 900 B. C.

Commercially inspired tributes to Egypt indited by travel writers seem fulsome and weak when compared with the comments of Herodotus, who traveled through that land some 2,800 years ago, according to an authority. His plain statements were more forceful than any subtle use of adjectives.

"Of Egypt I shall make my report at length," his discourse begins, "because it has wonders more in number than any other land, and works too it has to show as much as any land, which are beyond expression great." Eminent a man of the world, the most widely traveled of his age, Herodotus nevertheless could not contain his astonishment at many of the sights in Egypt.

He called the Nile "unlike any other river." He evinced great respect for the mental attainments of the Egyptians—"the most learned in the history by far of all those of whom I have had experience." But it was on the subject of Egypt's renowned climate that the Greek philosopher-historian showed himself at his best. "The Egyptians," he wrote, "are the most healthy of all men next after the Libyans, in my opinion on account of the seasons, because the seasons do not change." That single sentence contains the gist of many dissertations on the healthfulness of Egypt's unfailing sunshine.

Bond Street of London

Named After Speculator

During the Seventeenth and Eighteenth and the first half of the Nineteenth centuries the Bond street of New York and the Bond street of London had a similar aspect—both were lined with the residences of the well-to-do. Here those of bankers and merchants, there the homes of the landed nobility. Later in both streets merchandising prevailed.

The origin of the New York name is obvious; that of the London street came from Sir Thomas Bond, a Seventeenth century courtier attached to Queen Henrietta Maria, who was always persona grata at the Court of Whitehall in the reign of Charles II, to whom she is said to have advanced large sums of money.

According to Arthur Dament, writing in the Daily Telegraph of London, toward the end of Charles' reign Sir Thomas began to speculate in London real estate, particularly in the West End, in the Parish of St. Martin-in-the-Field. His first transaction as recorded in the local Rate Book was when he acquired in 1683 Clarendon House in Piccadilly from General Monk's son, the second Duke of Albemarle, pulled it down and laid out both Albemarle and Bond streets through the property before he rebuilt.

Palestine Memorials

Palestine is rich in Crusader memorials. Even the Church of the Holy Sepulchre is said to represent Crusader's work, for the south facade and many parts of the sacred building, particularly the bell tower, were built by them during their occupation of the city. Both at Ramleh and Lydda, two important towns on the road between Jerusalem and Jaffa, may be seen churches built by the Crusaders. Near Arsuf there are the remains of an old castle which was occupied by Richard Coeur-de-Lion, King of England. Many of the castles and fortresses remain as safe and sound as they were when armies of Western Europe, led by pious knights, invaded Syria and Palestine from 1093 to 1291, and waged their holy wars. These "Soldiers of the Cross" left their mark in Palestine in the names of Belvoir, Belvoir, Mirabel, Blanchegarde or Singil (St. Giles).

Frost Smoke

Frost smoke is a fog which rises in wreaths from open water which is relatively warm compared to the overlying cold air. This fog usually consists of ice crystals (snow). Frost smoke forms more readily in very cold weather when the wind is calm or very light, and when the difference between the temperatures of the water and the air is large. The fog slowly drifts away from the open water over adjacent ice and gradually deposits a slight covering of snow on the ice.

Discovery of Hot Springs

Pioneer trappers who first penetrated Arkansas found a series of mineral springs at what is now Hot Springs. They bathed in the waters and praised their medicinal value. Soon their fame reached the ears of President Jefferson, who sent Lewis and Clark to investigate. Another famous series of hot springs is at Rotorua, New Zealand. The springs cover an area of 660 square miles and vary in temperature from 60 degrees to the boiling point.

Caviar Roe of Sturgeon

Caviar is the roe of the sturgeon. The fish has a long snout with which it roots in the mud for worms. It is notable for its bony armor. It ascends rivers to lay its eggs and seems to prefer the Volga, in Russia. The eggs are gathered up and shipped to all parts of the world. During the reign of England's Edward II the sturgeon was declared a royal fish and has so remained.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, August 8. The Golden Text is: "No man hath seen God at any time." Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit" (1 John 4:12, 13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit."

And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal" (1 Corinthians 12:4, 6, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The human capacities are enlarged and perfected in proportion as humanity gains the true conception of man and God. Mortals have a very imperfect sense of the spiritual man and of the infinite range of his thought. To him belongs eternal life" (p. 258).

"Pieces of Eight" Known in Time of Shakespeare

The Spanish peso or eight reals of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries circulated throughout the American continent and was known as the "piece of eight." This name, relates a writer in the Detroit News, is found in English literature as early as Shakespeare's time. The coin was worth approximately as much as our dollar. Because of its design, it is sometimes known as the "pillar dollar," and it has been supposed by some that these "pillars of Hercules" with the ribbon about them gave rise to the dollar sign. Webster's dictionary, however, shows that this was originally a modification of "Ps," Mexican abbreviation of "pesos" or "piastres." The "s" was at first placed above and to the right of the "P" but later was lowered and twined around that letter. Early manuscripts have shown the sign to be the result of evolution, independently in different places. It was written after the numeral in Spanish America, but before the numeral, like the pound sign, by the English colonists, and was widely used before the adoption of the United States dollar in 1785. It is employed today for the dollar in Canada, West Indies, Hong Kong and Straits Settlements; for the peso in Argentina, Chile, Mexico, Colombia, Paraguay, Uruguay; for the milreis in Brazil; for the escudo in Portugal; for the lempira in Honduras.

Teeth Only Remains of Shark That Once Ruled

Sharks' teeth, some as large as a man's hand, are the only known remains of giant sharks that ruled the seas millions of years ago. Most numbers of these fossils are found in sandy deposits along the Atlantic coast and in the Pacific ocean.

The shores and steep cliffs yield these sharp, flat, age-blackened fossils, writes Bernard Kohn in the Washington Star. Some are worn smooth by the elements and others have jagged edges.

The prehistoric teeth are found as far inland as Washington, D. C., while tons of them have been hauled from Wilmington, Del., and ground into fertilizer.

Scientists estimate the ancient sharks attained a length of 80 feet. Their jaws were 6 feet across, with several rows of upper and lower teeth.

Although sharks are big and powerful, they leave behind little evidence of their existence. After death their cartilage framework soon disappears.

The "Grandfather" Clause

According to the Fifteenth amendment to the Constitution, "the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States nor by any state on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude." The amendment became effective in 1870, and within a few years some of the Southern states began seeking ways to keep their negro population from voting. Constitutions were amended to provide property and educational qualifications for voters. This excluded the negro vote but also prevented many white men from voting. So it was provided in the constitutions of several of the states that no citizen should be excluded from voting if his grandfather had been a voter, if his male progenitor in a direct line was a voter in the year 1867, or some similar exempting clause.

—The Golden Gate Bridge

Seven hundred feet longer than the George Washington Memorial bridge across the Hudson at New York, hitherto ranked as the world's greatest suspension bridge, the Golden Gate span, the longest, highest, widest, handsomest, costliest bridge in the world, connects San Francisco with the North-Bay Redwood empire. It is the only one ever flung across the extreme outer mouth of a major ocean harbor. If all its rivets were placed head to toe, they would form an iron serpent that would writhe for thirty-six miles.

"Taupe" of French Origin
The color term "taupe" originated in France in the early Nineteenth century and was immediately adopted into English. The word, according to the Maerz and Paul "Dictionary of Color," means "mole"—the name of the little burrowing animal.

Kashmir, Isolated, Has Real Mixture of People

On the southern slopes of the Himalayas lies the native Indian state of Kashmir. It occupies a number of successive steps or valleys, the largest and richest of which is the famous "Vale of Cashmir," approximately eighty miles long and twenty-five miles wide. With an average elevation of 6,000 feet, it is surrounded by lofty mountain ranges, and is separated from the plains of northern India by rocky barriers fifty to seventy-five miles in width.

Despite this isolated geographical location, its inhabitants, the Kashmiris, are a mixed people. They are typical representatives of the Indo-African races of northwestern India and Afghanistan. Medium in stature, though quite variable in height, they have rather long heads, with regular features and a tendency to prominence of the nose, which is usually straight or convex. Their skin color is light transparent brown; they have dark eyes and black, wavy hair.

The Kashmiri language is classed among the Indo-Aryan group, but shows an undercurrent of a more primitive dialect. In religion most of the Kashmiris are Mohammedans, but about one-quarter are Brahmans, and it is a common sight to see a holy man sitting under a tree surrounded by his disciples, or sunk in deep meditation in the attitude of prayer.

First Zoo, in China, Was Operated About 1100 B. C.

Caged animals have always fascinated man. It's probable that even primitive man had menageries of a sort. The first recorded zoo, however, was in China, advises a writer in the Washington Post.

Set up about 1100 B. C., it was named "Intelligence Park." Ancient Chinese scientists thus learned zoology.

Even before that, the idea of collecting animals had taken root. The earliest way to win the favor of an ancient ruler was to present him with a wild beast.

From China we jump a long way to the next organized zoos. Although Romans kept lions, they weren't for everybody's amusement, as many an unfortunate captive discovered before being fed to the beasts.

It was in the Middle Ages that zoos, as we know them, began. Henry I of England probably had the first zoo of note, in the Twelfth century. Years later, France's Philip IV followed his example.

On this side of the water zoos started at about the same time. Spanish conquerors in Mexico found that Aztec rulers had had menageries.

We switch back to Europe for what is usually conceded to be the oldest zoo still attracting crowds.

Foreign Titles

The Constitution of the United States does not forbid American citizens to take titles or honors from foreign governments despite an agitation in the early part of the last century to put one there. Congress in 1810 submitted to the states a proposed amendment which would have forfeited the American citizenship of any person "who shall accept, claim, receive or retain any title of nobility or honor, or shall, without the consent of Congress, accept and retain any present, pension, office or emolument of any kind whatever, from any emperor, king, prince or foreign power." The amendment could not muster sufficient ratifications among the states, and after 1814 expired without further attention.

Deadwood Dick From England

Deadwood Dick was born on December 18, 1845, in England and came to the United States when he was sixteen years old. While he was still a young man he joined a party of prospectors in Illinois and went overland to the Black Hills in search of gold. His real name was Richard Clarke. He was a typical plainsman, swaggering, a l w a y s ready for excitement, chivalrous and handy with his fists or guns. He drove a stage coach, worked as a miner, rode the Pony Express and was a member of a vigilante band.

Kiev, Old City of U. S. S. R.

Kiev, situated on the banks of the Dnieper river, is one of the oldest cities of the U. S. S. R., its history dating back to the Eleventh century, and one of the most picturesque cities in Europe. Of unique interest is Saint Sophia cathedral, carrying on its 1,000-year-old walls many priceless frescoes which are gradually being rediscovered under the subsequent layers of paint added through the centuries. In Kiev, the center of Ukrainian culture and art, is located the All-Ukrainian Academy of Sciences, the Ukrainian National Library and a magnificent opera.

Dacres Commanded the Guerriere

Capt. James Richard Dacres commanded the Guerriere, defeated by the Constitution on August 19, 1812, in one of the most famous naval engagements of all times. Dacres and his crew, made prisoner by Capt. Isaac Hull, were taken to Boston by Old Ironsides. News of Hull's brilliant victory electrified and inspired the nation; the legend of British naval invincibility had been dispelled.

Newton Police Win Contest For 2 Man Revolver Team

At the annual championship contests of the New England Police Revolver League held at Wakefield on August 4 and 5, Patrolmen David Dalton and John McGrath of the Newton police won first prize in the competition for two-man teams. They were awarded the trophy donated by Commissioner of Public Safety Paul Kirk. It is a silver shield mounted on a black walnut back. The score of Dalton and McGrath was 538, that of the Boston team which was second, was 533. The State Police team which won third prize, scored 531. More than fifty teams from all over New England participated.

The national revolver contest will be held early in September at Camp Perry, Ohio, and it is believed by many that Dalton and McGrath should be rewarded by being sent to participate in this contest. They and other members of the Newton police revolver team, have given freely of their time off and days off for several years, in perfecting themselves as marksmen. It would cost about $300 to send the men to Camp Perry, pay their expenses and entry fees, and enable them to attend the police school which starts there August 22. Richard Dwyer of the Newton Police Company, who gave his services for several years as coach of the Newton police in revolver practice, plans to attend the national contest. In past years he has participated in a number of the national meets.

Charge Nonantum Man With Criminal Assault On Girl

Antonio DiLuca, Jr., 22, of 173 Chapel st., Nonantum, was arraigned in the Waltham court on Saturday on a charge of having committed criminal assault on a 15-year-old Cambridge girl. The case was continued until Aug. 14, and DiLuca was released in $1000 bail. The girl alleges that on last Friday night she went for an automobile ride with DiLuca, and that he took her to a lonely part of Waltham where the alleged assault occurred. Arriving at her home in Cambridge, she told her father, and he notified Cambridge police. Two Cambridge policemen started for Waltham with the girl, and passing through Watertown square about 3 a. m. Saturday morning, she observed DiLuca standing there, and pointed him out as her alleged assailant.

Auto Kills 16-Year Old Newton Girl

Irene Kendall, 16, of 13 Linder ter., Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kendall, was hit and fatally injured on Wednesday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock by an automobile driven by Charles Olund, 74, of 137 Beacon st., Newton Centre. The girl had been walking along Charles River Parkway and was crossing to walk up Charlesbank rd., when she was struck. She was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital at Brighton in the ambulance of the Metropolitan Police from the speedway station. She died at 10:25 Wednesday night of a fractured skull and other injuries.

Olund was arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday on a charge of operating a car so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. The Metropolitan Police stated they would ask for an inquest to determine if a charge of manslaughter will be placed against Olund. The latter, in his report to the police, stated that the girl ran across the street into the path of his car. The place where the girl was struck is but a short distance of the spot where William Hahn of Nonantum pl., Newton, was hit and fatally injured on April 4 of this year.

Burglaries At Newton Centre

Three homes were burglarized at Newton Centre over the weekend. On Saturday a burglary was discovered at the home of Isadore Buxbaum, 77 Mandalay rd. Entrance was made through an unlocked kitchen window while the family was absent.

When the family of Isadore Abrams, 51 Grayln rd., returned home on Saturday night, they found their house looted; jewelry worth $300 having been stolen. The burglar entered by climbing a water-pipe to a porch roof.

Lightning Hits Newtonville House

On Monday, August 9th a bolt of lightning struck the home of Nicholas Lupo, 511 Watertown st., Newtonville, and caused serious damage to the furnace in the cellar. At the height of the thunder storm, Mrs. Lupo who was in the kitchen of her home, heard a terrific crash in the cellar that shook the house. The crash was followed by the sound of rushing water. Mrs. Lupo, who was temporarily stunned, regained her self-composure and went to the cellar where she found water streaming out from the sides of the furnace through a crack one inch wide all around the furnace. The rushing water stopped after the heating system had drained out and flooded the cellar floor.

Boy Falls Off Auto, Fractures Skull

Three small brothers who hopped on the rear of a bakery truck at Newtonville last Saturday afternoon, received injuries when they fell, or jumped from the truck while it was in motion. John O'Brien, 19, of 8 Taft ave., West Newton, driver of a bakery truck owned by the Hathaway Bakery Company, had stopped at the home of Charles Fredey, 483 California st., and made a delivery. He reported to the police that when he came out of the house, three small sons of Fredey were standing on the sidewalk and asked him for a ride, which he refused. He climbed into the cab of the truck, checked his account book for a minute, and then started off, unaware that the boys had climbed onto the back of the vehicle. A minute later as Robert Braffitt of Watertown was driving by he saw Eugene Fredey, 5, lying on the street, and Richard Fredey, 7, on an adjoining lawn. He carried the boys into the house at 557 California st., and from there they were taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

At the hospital it was found that Eugene Fredey had a fractured skull, and Richard Fredey had cuts and bruises on his body. The oldest brother, Charles Fredey, 9, received cuts on his head. He ran home after he and his brothers jumped off the truck, and was found there by the police, who took him to the hospital in a cruising car. O'Brien did not know of the accident until the police located him at the Hathaway plant in Waltham.

For some months past it was performed by Dr. Rae.

The dental hygienist will receive a salary of $650 for 10 months' work. She will clean teeth and assist the dentist at the dental clinic. Applicants must be registered dental hygienists. Applications must be filed before August 28th.

Nessons To Bring Aldermen To Court

Israel and Julius Nesson of Boston and Brookline, who for the past years have been attempting to get a large tract of land they own changed from single residence to business zone, have filed a bill in equity against the Newton Board of Aldermen, which seeks to force the Board to grant the zoning change. The bill is supposed to have a hearing in the Superior Court in the near future. The land in question is opposite City Hall and is bounded by Commonwealth and Lakeview aves. and Walnut st. Last year the Nessons were granted a hearing before the Claims and Rules Committee of the Aldermen at City Hall on their petition for the zoning change. At that time they stated they had planned to erect a large structure on the property which would contain many apartments, stores, an auditorium and a bank. Then, they changed their plans so the building would be principally a large apartment structure, and also some stores.

The Newton Planning Board, improvement associations throughout the city, and many property owners objected to the petition and it was refused by the Aldermen. Attempts were then started by the Nessons against Public Buildings Commissioner Campbell in an effort to make him accept an application for the permit to erect the big structure. Campbell contended that the plans filed at his office were inadequate, and therefore he could make no ruling on the application. Now, the Nessons have changed their plan of battle and will endeavor to force the Aldermen to meet their desires.

Waban Playground Children Give Pet And Flower Show

A notable exhibit of cut flowers and terraria was held last week Thursday afternoon at the Waban Playground. At the same time a pet show, bicycle parade, and hoop rolling contest was held.

The program for the afternoon, which was attended by about one hundred children and their parents, was directed by Charles J. Doherty, assisted by Miss Mary Vara and Calvin Shedd.

The flower show proved to be the feature event of the day. Robert Park was given first prize for the best arrangement of cut flowers, and Eugene Root received the second prize for the best terrarium, the third prize going to Caroline Underhill for a varied assortment of phlox and petunias.

With vegetables of every description decorating his bicycle Gordon Gifford rode to first place in the bicycle parade.

Naomi Thresher won first prize for the most cleverly decorated hoop, the design of which depicted a basketball player looking through a hoop. The color combination, red and white, proved to be lucky for Eleanor Kett, who was awarded first prize for her kill in the hoop rolling contest.

Because of his large repertoire of tricks "Tippy," owned by Marjorie Klein, won first prize for her in the pet show. The second prize went to Rosamund Stanwood's beautiful white dog.

Richard Klein and William Hooper won first and second places, respectively, in the hundred yard bicycle race.

At the conclusion of the flower show the flowers were delivered to the Children's Ward of the Newton Hospital. The various events were judged by Mr. G. Winthrop Brainerd and Mr. George Francis.

Mr. John Lane, Assistant Supervisor of Playgrounds, was a visitor during the afternoon.

The parents were interested in seeing an exhibition of the boys' and girls' handiwork which was displayed in conjunction with a Show Boat which was at the playground during the afternoon.

In order that the parents might witness one of the many games played on the grounds daily an exhibition game of football was arranged by the boys and girls. The participants were: Boys: William Hooper, Richard Klein, Robert Wood, James Carpenter, Ned Sprague, Jerry Powell. Girls: Janet Gillespie, Eleanor Greene, Louise Greene, Eunice Root, Marjorie Klein, Naomi Thresher.

Accuse Woman Of Assault On Tenant

Mrs. Mary Marrazzo of 23 Smith st., West Newton, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday on a charge of assault on Mrs. Margaret Murphy who has been a tenant in an apartment in Mrs. Marrazzo's house.

Mrs. Murphy testified that on August 4 the defendant accosted her and her husband on the piazza of the house, threatened to kill them if they returned into the house, and pulled the hair of the complainant. Mrs. Murphy's husband and her 10-year-old daughter corroborated her testimony.

Mrs. Marrazzo denied that she assaulted Mrs. Murphy, and stated that she had obtained an eviction order against the Murphys because they had not paid their rent. Judge Weston found Mrs. Marrazzo guilty and fined her $25. She appealed.

Wind Blows Down Auburndale Tree

A large maple tree in the yard at 242 Islington rd., Auburndale, was blown over during the storm which occurred in this city on Tuesday noon.

The tree fell against the house which is occupied by Edgar Keenan and owned by Jeremiah Coleman of 252 Islington rd. Mrs. Keenan and her 8-year-old son were in the house when the tree fell on it. The fact that the dwelling is of stone construction prevented it from being seriously damaged when the tree fell on it.

Another Burglary At Newton Centre

A burglary at the home of Herman L. Shaw, 5 Merrill rd., Newton Centre, was discovered on Tuesday when the family returned from Kennerma, where they had been on a vacation. A window had been forced to obtain entrance, and jewelry valued at about $250 stolen.

Ice Company Drivers Strike

The long-continued hot and humid spell finally got on the nerves of the men whose burden is increased when the temperature rises—the drivers of ice delivery trucks. On Wednesday morning about 200 employees at the Somerville, Cambridge and Watertown plants of the Metropolitan Ice Company went out on strike. This is one of the largest ice companies in Greater Boston and the Watertown plant supplies thousands of customers in the Newtons. About 25 employees went out there. The issue at stake is—that the company employ only members of a recently organized union, which is affiliated with the A. F. of L. A wage increase was given not long ago to the drivers; the rate being raised from $24 to $30 weekly. Part of the South side of Newton is served from the Wellesley plant of the company, on Worcester st., Wellesley Hills. The company informed the Newton police that its employees make had not struck, and asked for police protection. No disorders were reported on Wednesday.

Independent ice dealers, of whom there are a number in the Newtons, seized the opportunity to increase their business, and are serving customers who ordinarily obtain ice from the striking drivers. Many of these independent dealers purchase their ice from the Metropolitan Ice Company.

Another Crash On Turnpike

A car driven by Ludwig Johnson of Summer st., Natick, stopped on the turnpike at Walnut st. on Monday night at 9 to make a left turn. Another car operated by Edwin Witherby, Jr., of Bonad rd., West Newton, came along and crashed into the rear of Johnson's car. George Lilla of Natick, riding in Johnson's car, received a cut on his forehead and was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Newton Corner Business Men's Annual Outing

Despite the competition offered by a Red Sox double header and the horse races, about a hundred business men, lawyers and clerks of the Newton Corner Business Men's Ass'n attended the annual frolic at Seters 10 Acres at Wayland.

A program of sporting events under the masterful direction of Ed. Fahey and Roy Edwards furnished the entertainment during the afternoon.

At 6:30 a typical Seters Turkey Dinner was served in the pavilion, followed by brief remarks from various dignitaries. Hugh Boyd did a marvelous job of toastmastering. He introduced John T. Burns as the oldest member. Mr. Burns told of founding the association with the late Harold Moore, and asked that a moment of silence be observed in memory of his co-founder. His Honor Mayor Childs reinforced and spoke of all the advantages and fellowship fostered by an organization of this kind.

Distribution of prizes to the winners in the sporting events closed the outing.

In the Horse Shoe Tournament the winners were Raymond Keegan and Henry Boudreau.

Auto Crash Fatal to Newton Ctr. Man

Paul Paresky, 39, of 527 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, was fatally injured at 3:45 p. m. last Friday when the car he was driving hit a pole on Beacon st., Newton Centre, near Glen ave. Riding with Paresky on the front seat of the automobile were his wife, Della Paresky, 31; his daughter, Lorraine, 6, and his baby, Joan, 8 months old. The baby received a probable fracture of the skull and her name was placed on the danger list at the Newton Hospital. Paresky received a broken neck and crushed chest and died at the Newton Hospital at 6:45 Friday evening. Mrs. Paresky and Lorraine were slightly injured.

Following the accident Mr. and Mrs. Paresky and the two children went into the residence of Francis Fish, 618 Beacon st., until the police ambulance arrived. When the ambulance came, Paresky started to walk out of the house without assistance, but he collapsed before he reached the ambulance. His condition seemed to improve on the journey to the hospital and he told Patrolman Corcoran, who was riding in the ambulance, that he lost control of the car when another automobile cut in front of him, causing him to swerve sharply. He said he was driving only between 15 and 20 miles per hour. Paresky was able to walk from the ambulance into the hospital, the seriousness of his injuries not being known until he was examined. He died less than 45 minutes after reaching the hospital. There were articles of furniture in the rear of the car, and some of them were pushed forward against Paresky when the crash occurred. His death was the tenth fatality in Newton so far this year, caused by automobile accidents.

Waban Dog Case On August 18

The case against Lindley Sutton of 196 Windsor rd., Waban, who is charged with keeping barking and biting dogs was scheduled to be tried in the Newton court on Tuesday, but, at Sutton's request it was continued until August 18 because his attorney was away. The complainant, Lundall Carter of 214 Windsor rd., appeared, and so did about 15 Waban residents, some of whom would have testified as witnesses for the complainant. A delegation of reporters and photographers from Boston papers were also on hand. Carter alleges that Sutton keeps six dogs, including bull terriers and an Irish terrier, and that two of these scrappy dogs attacked a cocker spaniel owned by Carter, chewing the spaniel severely. Carter was also bitten on both wrists attempting to save his pet.

A WISE RESTRICTION

The city council of the neighboring community of Waltham has recently discussed the adoption of an ordinance which should meet with hearty approval. The ordinance would forbid ride-beggars from standing in the street for the purpose of thumbing rides. It would require them to practice their art from the sidewalks. As there is no law in Massachusetts forbidding hitch-hiking the proposed ordinance is as far as any local government authority may go in limiting the evil. If such a restriction has the approval of the Highway Commission it can legally be enforced. When such approval is obtained the ordinance will in all probability be passed. Such a restriction shows an appreciation of the dangers to motorists and to hitch-hikers themselves. It is a proposal that would work well in Newton as well as in Waltham and should receive consideration from the city fathers in their efforts to make Newton a safer city.

OLD BOSTON CHANGES

The continual change of life brings with it a constant change in the characteristics of our cities. Many buildings in old Boston are being demolished. Modern methods of business have caused many old buildings to become tenantless and a burden upon their owners instead of producing revenue more than enough to meet a heavy tax burden. The razing of these buildings is providing numerous parking places for the commuting motorists. It is doubtful that new buildings will arise upon these sites during this generation. Perhaps some day there will be sufficient open areas to provide for the laying out of new traffic arteries or the widening of some streets to provide for easier and less congested access to various sections of the city. In this way economic changes may furnish a natural though moderate means of solving one of the most modern and perplexing problems of the generation.

THE COMET GOES

Did you see the comet? It is now turned upon its orbit away from the earth. It may return some day but not for a thousand years or more. But long before that we will hear of other comets which will attract our attention.

THE WEATHER

The weather is always an editorial topic to be relied upon when all other subjects fail. But it is even too hot to write about these days.

Outing Of Newton Centre Business Men, August 18

Arrangements have been practically completed for the fifth annual outing of the Newton Centre Business Men's association which is to be held on Wednesday afternoon, August 18, at Fieldston on the Atlantic. This popular seashore resort has been the setting for several previous outings of the Newton Centre business men, and a gala time is promised those who attend this year.

A full program of sports and other activities has been planned by the committee of which Gordon Conrod is the chairman. Circulars announcing the affair were distributed last week, and tickets have been placed on sale at Mosher's and Shepard Pharmacy on Centre street in the Upper Square, and at Kerrigan's and Conrod & Ryan's in the lower square.

This outing is the first big event to follow the annual meeting of the Association this spring when Dr. Thomas W. Dowd was elected president of the organization for 1937-38. Dr. Dowd has organized an enthusiastic committee, and the members are bending every effort to make the affair the best ever.

One of the big features of the afternoon will be a baseball game between the upper and lower squares. Scotty Salmond of the S. S. Pierce Co. store is captaining the Upper Square team and reports already that he has a great bunch of ball players together. He will pit his team against the best of the lower square, this latter aggregation being fashioned by Al Bonnazoli of the Centre Lunch.

WPA Orchestra Concert Aug. 17

The Newton WPA Orchestra presented the seventh of a series of outdoor concerts at the "Shell," Commonwealth av. and Islington rd., last evening to an audience of over 3,000 music lovers.

The playground was filled to capacity with cars, and the amplifying system installed made it possible for those who wish to remain in their cars to enjoy the music—an enjoyable musical treat. Supervisor Webber had the orchestra play some of the most popular dance tunes for encores; the choruses of these popular songs being sung by Arthur Rogers, the versatile trumpeter of the orchestra.

Supervisor Webber has made arrangements for the orchestra to appear at the Stone Institute for Aged People at Newton Upper Falls, the Newton Hospital, and the Peabody Home for Crippled Children during the summer and winter months, and has, for the past few years, worked in conjunction with the Newton School Department by having the orchestra play in all the schools as a part of the musical instruction of the pupils.

The program for the next concert at the Auburndale "Shell" on next Tuesday, August 17th, at 8 p. m., is as follows:

March, "Aida," Verdi; Overture, "Merry Wives of Windsor," Nicolai; Selection, "Babes in Toyland," Herbert; Waltz, "Blue Danube," Strauss; Musical Gems of Tchaikowsky. Arr. by Otto Lankey; Songs Selected, Guest Soloist, Miss Ruth E. Bearse, Herbert; "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," Jessel; Selection, "Sweetheart," Herbert; "Star Spangled Banner."

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

ARCHERS TOURNAMENT AT NEWTON C. FIELD

The archery section of the Newton Playground Dept. held its first weekly tournament on Saturday, August 7th, at the archery field in Newton Centre. The classes were divided into two teams of eight each, and the close competition between them created much excitement and interest. Mary Douglas was captain of the winning team, and Margaret Davenport captained the second team. Miss Cynthia Kenway, the instructor, is delighted at the enthusiastic welcome given to the sport of archery by the members. She has great confidence in the future ability of all those participating in this project which is a new venture of the Newton Playground Dept. under the leadership of Ernest Hermann, superintendent.

The Newton Archers, who have turned out many national champions, have favorably endorsed the undertaking. Bob Goldick, its latest champion and he recently won the junior national championship.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

A benefit game to help defray hospital expenses for Leonard Cummings will be played Wednesday evening, August 18, at Cabot Park. Cummings suffered a broken leg in a game played between Cabot A. A., for which he has been the regular catcher, and Y. M. C. A. and word has been received that he will have to remain in the Newton hospital for several weeks. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased at Playground office, City Hall, Y. M. C. A. or the manager of any Newton Twi league team.

The contesting teams will be the pick of the National and American divisions of the Newton Twilight League. National holds the edge in the series to date, having won one game by a score of 3-2 and tied the other of the games played this far.

American division manager Del Ryan of the leading Auburndale Club plans to strengthen his all-stars and has added "Bob" Smith, Jr. to his pitching staff and Johnnie Waters to the outfield group.

Manager Cronin also will make a few changes adding Swell of the Center to his infield and Kerriwan, brother of the slugging first baseman to his outfield. It is hoped that Walter Holmes will be available as many American division fans would like a look at this slugging infielder. Breyer and "Buck" Donahue have been selected to handle this game which comes the day after the close of the regular league schedule.

The playoffs will start Thursday night, August 19. Games will be called at 6:15. The first game will be played at the home field of the team finishing in 2nd position. The second game at the home grounds of the 3d place team and so on until one team has won two games. In case a game is postponed because of rain or wet grounds, that game will be the next to be played. In event of a game being played and ending in a tie the game to be next played will be the one scheduled on the visitors grounds, and not a replay of the tie. Games will be scheduled for week days only but by agreement of both managers a game may be moved back from Monday or Tuesday to the preceding Sunday.

Arrangements for the final series between successful semi final teams and the league champions will be announced next week. It is likely that in this series the Nationals will play one night and the Americans the next on alternate nights until one team in each league has won 3 games.

FERGUSON SETS TWO NEW WORLD RECORDS

Clinton Ferguson of Waban, 19-year-old Tabor Academy athlete and national amateur outboard motorboat champion, drove to two new world records Saturday and Sunday in the annual summer regatta on the Charles River basin course. The regatta, jointly sponsored by the Boston Herald newspapers and the Central New England Regatta Association, was the largest staged in three years in the country, having a total of 288 starters in 24 heats.

Ferguson's keen rivalry with Gar Wood, Jr., for the amateur leadership was the most exciting single aspect of the meeting which thrilled more than a hundred thousand spectators in the two days of noisy racing. Wood, son of the famous engineer of Algonac, Mich., got better than an even break when Ferguson's Class A motor, reputed the fastest 15-horsepower outfit in the country, balked in the start. Saturday's races, and Clinton went to the start with a substitute motor, taking second to Wood in both 5-mile heats.

In Class C, Doug Fonda, high point amateur of 1937, tied with Ferguson at 700 points each, as each driver won one heat. Fonda led Ferguson in the first heat, but Clint came back to set a new world's record of 52.264 MPH for the second five-mile heat.

In the Sunday races, Gar Wood, Jr., and Clint Ferguson clashed in the Class B races. Wood broke Ferguson's world's record in this class in the first heat, but the Waban sportsman roared home with a fifty-yard lead in the second heat, breaking Wood's new record with a speed of 47.481 MPH.

Only hard luck kept Ferguson from taking Class F honors. After a fine start in the race for heavy motors, Clint's boat stalled on the first lap, and he was lucky to get it started again and finished fifth. In the second heat he led all the way, leading home James Mullin of Richmond, Va., national intercollegiate champion, whose world's record for Class C Clinton had broken Saturday.

His average was 51.253 MPH. Mullin's time in the first heat was 52.356, made with a Class C outfit, which would have been a record if the race had been for Class C boats. Ferguson's point total for the regatta was 2527 to 2307 for Gar Wood, Jr., and he was awarded Class B and C first prizes over Wood and Fonda because his elapsed time for the heats was better in each class. Ferguson now holds Class A, B and C five-mile records, and the mile trial record for Class A as well. He is the one amateur in outboard racing whose boats bear the letters U. S. symbols of national championship. He will compete in the nationals at Chicago, August 21 and 22.

NEWTON WOMAN BREAKS TWO COURSE RECORDS

Mrs. Warren Beard, former Newton high school girl, broke the women's records at two golf courses last week. Playing her home course, Trapelo, with her husband last Wednesday, Mrs. Beard shot a 74, four over men's par and two under the previous best woman's score. In a team match at Charles River C. C. two days later, she shot a 75, setting a new record. Mrs. Beard is the former Dorothy Hunter, who was graduated from Newton High School in 1931, and has held both junior and women's state golf championships.

Rotary Club

Mr. Paul Firchow, Boston representative of the Hamburg-American Steamship Lines, showed moving pictures of present-day Germany at the Monday noon meeting of the Newton Rotary Club this week. Architectural and historical aspects were emphasized, with illustrations from famous cities and towns of that country. The excellent action pictures of the German countryside made all desirous of becoming more closely acquainted or reacquainted with modern Germany and its daily life.

Next week, Monday, Walter Gregg, Past President of the Club will talk on his recent trip to the Rotary International Convention at Nice, France.

Letters To The Editor

COMPLIMENTS POLICE

August 9, 1937.

The Newton Graphic, Newton, Mass.

Gentlemen:

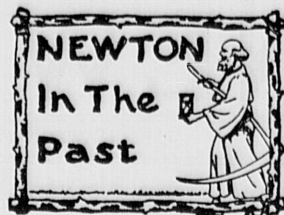

On August 15th, I shall be moving to 162 Waverley avenue, Newton, Mass. Will you please change my mailing address for the Newton Graphic as of that date.

Because of having received the Newton Graphic for the past month, I feel as if I was already almost acquainted with Newton.

I do want to compliment your Newton Police Dept. About two weeks ago, when Mrs. Pease and I were driving around Newton looking for a place to live, two of your police officers drove up alongside of us and very courteously asked if they could be of any service. We gave them an address which we were looking for, and they immediately went out of their way to guide us to the place for which we were searching. They also gave us quite a little additional information which we wanted.

It is these little acts of courtesy which do much to sell a stranger on a town, and it has already made us feel that we are going to find Newton a very pleasant place to live.

Very truly yours,
E. J. PEASE,
Bridgeport, Conn.

62 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, Aug. 14, 1875

Sagacious business men predict that the coming winter will see more suffering than for a long time. The business depression has continued so long, and the prospect for resumption is so poor, that large numbers of people will be thrown wholly or partially out of work.

The 3.10 p. m. train from Boston on Tuesday brought out members of the garden committee of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society and others, who came by invitation of the Trustees and Superintendent of the Newton Cemetery to view the fine grounds of this beautiful resting place of the dead. At the Newtonville station they were met by Supt. Ross, Asst. Supt. C. W. Ross, Messrs. Stiles, Frost, E. W. Wood and M. T. Heywood, with carriages, who took the party to the cemetery. At the cemetery the party was joined by Mayor Hyde and Marshall Rice, former town clerk. The natural beauties of the cemetery were shown, together with the work which has been done in laying out the grounds and beautifying them with trees and flowers.

The party was then driven to West Newton, to the home of Stiles Frost, one of the cemetery trustees. A beautiful collation was served in his dining room. An inspection was made of his garden and a view taken from his observatory, whence Waltham, Arlington, Somerville and other places can be seen.

Thirteen tramps were counted along the B. & A. railroad between Newton and Faneuil by a passenger on an inward bound train on Monday.

For the past year or more North Village (Nonantum) has been unusually quiet. The citizens there have united in efforts to make this village as law-abiding as any section of the city, and with good results. An accident occurred there this week which caused much excitement. As Mrs. Gallagher was raising a window at her house, her hand slipped, went through the glass and severed an artery. Dr. Smith was called and sewed up the wound.

The change at the Newtonville post-office is a great improvement. More room is provided for the boxes, and the postoffice is being kept distinct from the store.

Patrons of the Newton Library will be glad to learn that an agency has been established at Amidon's store in Newtonville.

There will be a rowing regatta on the Charles River at Riverside on Saturday, August 28 at 5 p. m. The races will include single sculls, double sculls and four-oared boats. The first race is open to only Newton residents; the other races to all amateurs.

The Cataract Hand Engine Company of Lower Falls had a drill on Monday evening and a large number attended. Since the appointment of Engineer Exley no loafers are allowed in the Engine House evenings or on Sundays.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 13, 1887

Claffin Guard, Company C, 5th Regiment, M. V. M., are making plans for their annual parade, target-shoot, dinner and ball, which will take place sometime in October.

The water in the pond at Farlow Park got out a bad odor this week, that was found that the drain pipe was stopped up, being filled with sticks, stones and other articles. A strainer was put over the drain pipe, so this trouble cannot occur again.

50 YEARS AGO

A street car with an electric-motor attachment made a trial trip over the Newton & Watertown railway last Tuesday.

The beautiful weather last Sunday afternoon induced a large number to attend the Y. M. C. A. meeting on the bank grounds at Newton Corner. The Ashman Family Band played sweet music before the praise service began. After prayer by W. H. Partridge, who conducted the service, Rev. O. D. Kimball of West Newton gave a powerful address.

Dr. E. P. Scales of Newton says that a sure preventative of being poisoned with ivy is to take an end of the growing vine (3 leaves), chew it, and swallow the juice. He has thoroughly tested this, and it always prevents poisoning. Those who are sensitive to this poison would do well to take this precaution two or three times during the season.

The new electric light poles in Newton present such a neat appearance since they have been painted that it is a pity to have them disfigured by posters and hand-bills, as has been the case in some instances. Neither the electric light poles or fire-tower poles were erected for advertising purposes and measures should be taken to stop this practice. The posters become loose, and their flapping has frightened horses.

A Newton Centre lady tied a piece of cloth to a spoke on one of her carriage wheels the other day to measure the distance to Wellesley by counting the revolutions of the wheel. But, after a mile or so she gave up the attempt.

Powers' Paragraphs

The very hot, humid weather of the past several weeks brought willingly to the attention of residents of the Newtons who commute on the Boston & Albany railroad the fact that this transportation company has not kept pace with modern improvements. In sorry contrast to the New Haven Railroad, and most other railroads, the Boston & Albany has not provided modern, air-conditioned coaches for its passengers, and even the short ride from Boston to this city is something to be dreaded during such weather as we have been getting the past month and more.

Information was published the other day that the New Haven railroad is receiving deliveries of 75 new, streamlined, air-conditioned coaches. When these will all have been received, the New Haven road will have 145 such cars.

But, the B. & A. continues to operate its "Turkish-bath" coaches. Years ago the Boston & Albany possessed far superior equipment to the other railroads running out of Boston, but, today, conditions are quite different. It might be a good idea for the Mayor and Board of Aldermen to suggest to officials of the Boston & Albany that this railroad purchase some comfortable coaches for its patrons.

"Trixie," a smart black and white dog owned by Ernest Foley of Jackson ter. Newton, is one of the few canines in this city that gets regular taxi service. "Trixie" follows Letter Carrier Walter King over his route each morning and afternoon, and is rather fatigued at the end of the hike. So, Walter, who likes dogs, gives his canine friend a ride to her home from the postoffice twice each day.

We wonder if Orville Wright ever regrets that he and his brother invented the airplane, when he reads of the terrific slaughter of women and children by military airplanes in Spain and China. The barbarians of past centuries refrained from ruthless killing of innocent, little children in warfare. It is bad enough for the "nagan" Japanese to bomb and massacre unoffending civilians from the air, but the allegedly Christian rulers who are assisting the Spanish insurgent cause, established a precedent for the Jap.

Pages of newspaper space given to the infant who was born after its mother's death. About 10 or 12 lines, on the average, about mothers and fathers of children who are killed wantonly by reckless drivers of automobiles.

Some learned commentators whose views on current events are published by leading newspapers of this country have been quite critical of the "Wages and Hours" bill on which Congress recently took action. For instance—Walter Lippman asserts that the bill is an adoption of the principle that the richer regions of the country may use the Federal Power against the rising industrialism of the poorer regions of the country;—and this thing is fundamentally an internal tariff law—to obstruct competition from the new industrial South.

Lippman argues that "the really impoverished labor of the South is just there on the marginal lands, and in local jobs—entirely beyond the reach of this new Federal Board." He says "it will be the irony of ironies if the Democratic party now adds to the tariff which discriminates so heavily against Southern agriculture, an internal tariff, disguised as a law against sweating."

Lippman also criticised Senator Lodge because of the latter's support of the wages and hours bill. He quotes Lodge as saying—"If enforced it will stop once and for all the flight of industries from Massachusetts to other sections where sweatshop standards prevail." Lippman commented—"What is this but the classic Republican argument for the protective tariff? Have we not been told for generations that the purpose of the tariff was to protect the American workingman against the pauper labor of Europe? And now having excluded the goods of Europe, Mr. Lodge and his fellow protectionists are moving on to conquer new worlds. They are going to protect Massachusetts against the South. And before they have finished, Senator Lodge will be in favor of building a Chinese Wall around the Back Bay to protect it against the competition of South Boston."

Mr. Lippman used to be regarded as a liberal, a progressive. But, for sometime past, many liberals and progressives have become more and more of the opinion that Mr. Lippman is a propagandist for reactionaries. He admits that the working people of the South are really impoverished, but, he objects to a law which will give them decent wages. A law which will prevent either the ultimate dragging down of Northern labor to the impoverished condition of the South, or the placing on permanent welfare of hundreds of thousands of persons in Northern textile communities.

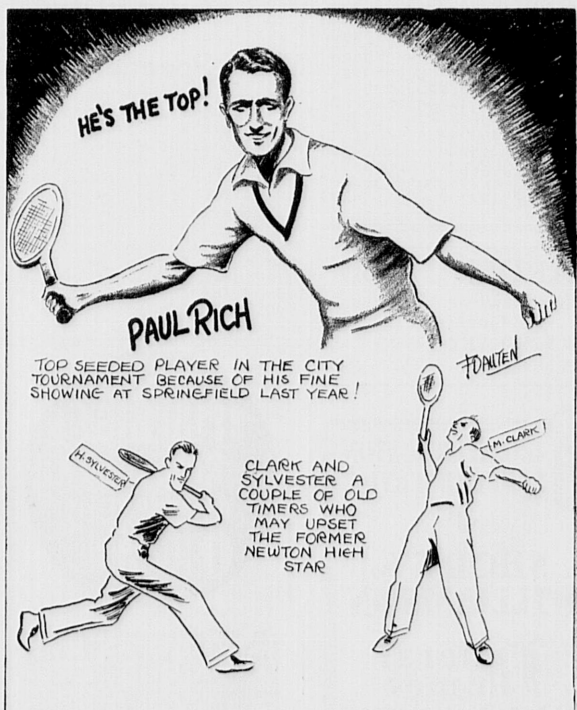

Lippman states that the Republicans have excluded goods made by pauper labor in Europe. The fact is—that during the past few years there has been a tremendous increase in the amount of goods imported into this country, including textiles and shoes, made by pauper labor in Czechoslovakia, Japan and other countries, and this influx of cheap, foreign manufactured merchandise is constantly on the increase. A few more articles of this kind by Mr. Lippman, and even persons of dull perception will realize that this distinguished commentator has views which certainly do not seem favorable to the welfare of the masses. At least the masses of New England who have been accustomed to an increasingly better standard of living for the past generation.

Do you remember the "thank you mams" on the roads in the White Mountains in the "horse and buggy days." These ridges in the roads through the notches were necessary (or thought so) in those days, to prevent the highways being washed away. Residents of Chestnut Hill rd., Chestnut Hill, have had some "thank you mams" constructed on that private

Top-seeded players in the city public courts tennis championship singles are Paul Rich of Newton, Don Martin of West Newton, and Harry Sylvester of Newton. Other seeded players are Al Rogan, Henry Jones, J. Gordon Kitchen 6, and Leo Geary 7.

Paul Rich was the winner of the Burr Playground Associations' singles championship, defeating Harry Sylvester 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1, for his second successive victory in this local affair. Last fall he was Newton's emissary to the New England public parks tourney in Springfield, where he lost in the finals to Samuel Hayes, Jr., of South Hadley, Mass. He was Newton High tennis captain in 1935, and is probably the youngest on the seeded list.

Don Martin, second seeded player, was for many years city champion of Newton. At one time captain of tennis at B. U., he was also one of the finest hockey goalies of his time. This summer he won the state doubles title with Paul Gubord, and last week captured the New Hampshire shore championship singles title at the Abbe Club, Rye, N. H. He was seeded in the state tournament and the North shore championships this year, and was defeated in both tournaments by Sumner Rodman of Boston. He has the finest stroke equipment of any local player, but is a notoriously hard loser.

In semifinal matches of the Burr Association tournament, Paul Rich defeated Gordon Naylor 7-5, 6-3 and Harry Sylvester defeated Leo Geary 7-5, 7-5. Rich won from Sylvester in the final by 5-7, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.

In early matches of the city singles, William "Med" Myette of Newton Center defeated A. Fisk 6-0, 6-2; Henry Simon of Newton d. Jack Morris 4-6, 6-3, 8-6; Donald Holt, N. C. d. R. F. Morse 6-0, 6-0; Kersam Chobanian d. Leo Geary, seeded 7th, 6-2, 6-1; Gordon Kitchen d. R. Sprague 6-4, 6-0; W. Stokes d. Guy Baker 6-1, 6-2; Harry Sylvester d. Franklin Rich, 6-4, 6-2.

Bert P. Bachman, Field Representative, First Aid and Life Saving American Red Cross, will be at Crystal Lake Wednesday and Thursday, August 18th and 19th. Mr. Bachman will review Red Cross examiners and aid with the Swimming Campaign which the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, is conducting daily at Crystal Lake. Further information regarding these classes may be obtained by calling the Red Cross office.

Mr. Bachman is a native of Hazleton, Pennsylvania, and graduated from high school in that city in 1922, being captain of both the football and basketball teams. He attended Springfield College, graduating in 1926 after four outstanding years of collegiate athletic activity.

He was captain of the freshman swimming team; captain of the variety swimming team during his third year; a member of the team which won the mythical New England Intercollegiate Championship, and in addition to his swimming activities he was a member of the track squad for two years and played football, basketball, and tennis for his class.

During his first two years in Springfield he was an assistant student instructor in swimming, and was made head student instructor in swimming during his last two years. During this time he also served as a student instructor in track and soccer and was in charge of the college infirmary where he developed an unusual degree of First Aid skill in handling and treating athletic injuries.

Following his graduation from college he was, during 1926-28, assistant physical director of the downtown branch, Pittsburgh Y. M. C. A. For five years, following his service in Pittsburgh, he was director of Physical Education for the Bangor, Maine
Y.

As founder and operator of the Bangor Athletic Association he has made an outstanding contribution in promoting and maintaining the health and recreation activities of the business and professional group in that community.

Mr. Bachman has had, also, considerable experience before the microphone. For several years he conducted morning sitting-up exercises with considerable success for a local radio station at Bangor.

During the past several summers
Mr. Bachman has made an outstanding contribution in the field of water safety, in northern Maine. By conducting swimming and life saving campaigns in several of the smaller Chapters in Aroostook County he has brought expert instruction to the people of a region which has been sadly lacking in trained aquatic leadership heretofore.

Mr. Bachman has, for many years, been actively interested in the promotion of Red Cross life saving methods, having been an examiner since 1923 and a special examiner since 1931. He completed courses in life saving offered by the New England National Red Cross Aquatic School and has been an instructor in Chapter first aid programs. He brings with him into the service at National Headquarters a rich background of practical experience in first aid and life saving instruction and application, in addition to his excellent training as an athlete and coach.

Arrested For Drunken Driving

Louis Hasenfus of Broad Meadow rd., Needham, was arrested by Motorcycle Officer O'Donnell last Saturday afternoon after the car he was driving had hit another car on the turnpike at Dudley rd., Newton Centre. Henry Hersey of Washington ave., Needham, had stopped at the traffic signal when the light turned red, and the car operated by Hasenfus crashed into the rear of Hersey's automobile. Hasenfus, who received slight injuries, told Patrolman O'Donnell that he applied the brakes, but could not stop his car. In Newton court on Monday O'Donnell testified that Hasenfus was under the influence of liquor. The case was continued until August 30.

3 Months Sentence For Man Who Hit Wife and Officer

John J. Payne, 52, of 963 Centre st.,
Newton Centre, was sentenced by Judge Allen in the Newton court on Monday to serve 2 months in jail for assaulting his wife with a blackjack.
Payne also received another 30 days jail sentence for attacking Inspector Hammell after the latter had placed him under arrest and was taking him to police headquarters in a police car.
Hammell had a finger broken in the assault. Payne was also fined $5 for drunkenness. He appealed.

Mrs. Payne testified that her husband, without provocation, seized a blackjack and hit her a grazing blow.
As she struggled with him for the

These JUMBLED WORDS represent six New England Men of Letters—one for each state. These six names are made by taking one or more syllables or words from the six correct names and mixing them. For example: "What are correct names for these two jumbled New England Cities—MANISTON and LEWCHESTER?" The correct answer is MANCHESTER and LEWISTON. Simply unscramble these six names and fill in the name correctly spelled for each state on the Answer Form.

START NOW—SEND YOUR ANSWERS EACH WEEK

THE RULES PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

- The "KNOW NEW ENGLAND" Contest is open to residents and summer visitors in New England—with the exception of employees of the New England Press Association, their advertising agency or of this Newspaper and members of their families, and with the further exception of any person who has won $500 or more in any previous newspaper contest.
- Beginning the week of June 28, 1937 and continuing each week for ten weeks, these names will be jumbled to include syllables or words from some of the five other names. For example: "What are correct names for these two jumbled New England Cities—MANISTON and LEWCHESTER?" The correct answer is MANCHESTER and LEWISTON. The jumbled names appearing together will represent a similar classification, one week six New England Manufacturing Centers, the next week six New England Colleges, etc. Each New England State will be represented each week in the six names. It is part of this contest to find the correct name that goes with each State.
- The New England Press Association will award a First Prize of $2,000.00 as a part of $3,000.00 in cash prizes to the person or persons submitting the correct or most correct names for each of the sixty jumbled names, and in all other ways conforming to the Official Rules. The person or persons submitting the next nearest correct solutions shall be eligible for the additional prizes to the order of the collection of their solutions. Merchandise prizes will be given to the twenty highest scorers. Each correct solution will receive a Gift Packet containing ten full size packages—one each of the products advertised in this contest.
- Neatness does not count. Do not decorate your replies or make them elaborate.
- In case of ties, as many prizes will be reserved as there are persons tied before any prize is awarded for a less correct solution; that is, if two or more people tie in submitting the correct or nearest correct solutions to the six names, the first two or more people will be reserved for them and will be awarded in the order of the correctness of the solutions of such contestants (without cost) to a second series of six names, words on the subject "Why I Prefer to Read A Weekly Newspaper." In the event of a final tie between two or more contestants for any position in the list of winners, identical prizes will be awarded to the tying contestants.
- Answers to each weekly contest should be submitted during the following week. Reasonable facsimiles (hand drawn, not traced) of the Know New England Contest Answer Forms may be submitted. Entry Forms may be submitted from any of the Newspapers cooperating in this contest. The contestant should bring
- the answers or mail them by First Class Postage to the CONTEST EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. Answer Forms in this Know New England Contest for the tenth and last series will be received up to noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937. No Answer Forms will be accepted for judging which arrive at the contest office later than that date and hour, except those sent by mail and postmarked no later than noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937.
- In order to qualify for a prize, the contestant is required to accompany each of the 19 series of answers with a remittance of ten cents in coin payment in return for which you will receive four beautiful photographic prints of New England scenes. Picture size 8" x 11", suitable for framing. Purchase of these prints is a condition for entering the contest. These picture prizes will be mailed to the contestant at the close of the contest.
- Any person entering the contest and by submission of answers, agrees to accept as final the decision of the New England Press Association and the Contest Editor, on all matters affecting the conduct of the contest, the making of awards, and procedure and policy with regard to the acceptance of submissions during the contest. The spelling of these New England Names conforms with that given in the Encyclopedia Britannica. The New England Press Association reserves the right to disqualify any submission which shows evidence of collusion.
- Answer Forms to which no names are signed will not be considered, nor will any claims to the ownership of such answers be recognized. The New England Press Association will not be responsible for answers or communications unduly delayed or lost in transit either from the contestant to the New England Press Association or from the New England Press Association to the contestant.
- More than one member of a family may enter this contest if 10 cents is sent with each Answer Form.

If there is anything about this contest you do not thoroughly understand, write or telephone the CONTEST EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, or this Newspaper for an explanation.
Enclose a dime with your ANSWER FORM when you mail it. In return you will receive, at the conclusion of the contest, four beautiful photographic prints from pictures by Sam Chamberlain, distinguished photographer of New England Scenes. Picture size 8" x 11", suitable for framing. In sending your coin, wrap it in a small piece of paper before placing it in an envelope.

In addition to cooling and dehumidifying the air, an exclusive feature—the Odac Air Freshener—destroys odors, purifies, and disinfects. Each unit circulates over 300 cubic feet of cooled air per minute and will service areas up to 2000 cubic feet.

You owe it to yourself to learn more about this portable air-conditioner. If it is not convenient to see one in operation, mail the coupon for descriptive literature.

Camp F. A. Day

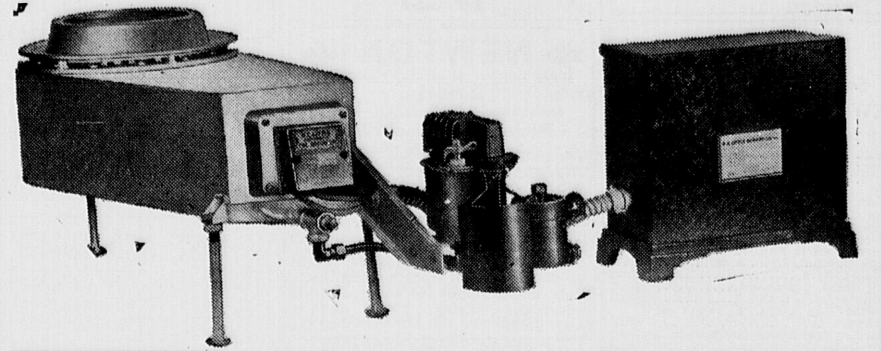

The following boys joyfully wended their way by train and auto on Wednesday to Camp Frank A. Day on the shores of Lake Quannawisset at Brookfield for the final three weeks of the Newton Y. M. C. A. camping season: Robert A. Smirnow, Robert Griffin, Francis Masterson, Bruce Kingsbury, Arthur Kolsti, Robert Mackintosh, Bertram Ellison, Manning Chellis, Russell H. Potter, George Bullington, Malcolm Valentine, Robert Oliver, Robert Cunningham, Rickard Bowker, Louis Martin, John W. MacNeil, Herbert Neilson, Walter Milne, William J. Witton, Keith Kingsbury, Dana Blodgett, Arnold Mackintosh, Fred Mullineaux, Norman Whittaker, Robert J. Oleson.

Preliminary reports for 1937 indicate that more than 160,000 boys and adults will attend "Y" camps this summer. Last year the number was 146,000, while in 1935 the report was 135,536 campers.

"While improved financial conditions account for part of the camping growth, the figures reflect a growing appreciation by parents that camps are one of the best preservers of democracy," says Abel J. Gregg, National Y. M. C. A. Boys Work Secretary in commenting on the nation-wide increase in camping.

The first canoe regatta of the Camp Frank A. Day season topped its two rivals Giants and Cubs twenty points to fourteen, to eleven points respectively. In the Junior Camp the Red Sox were the winners over the Tigers and the Yankees; twenty-two points to eighteen to five points. Competition in the Midget Camp was conducted according to tents with the following tents scoring: Tent 21 (George Pitts, Counselor) was first with 13 points; Tent 20 (Clinton Conder, Counselor) second with 9 points; Tent 22 (Dick Clapp, Counselor) third with 4 points.

NOW! The Rich Man's Heating Plant at the Poor Man's Price The H. C. LITTLE Automatic Oil Burner

All H. C. Little
Oil Burners
Really Burn
GAS

The H. C. Little burner converts the oil into gas, mixes it with air, and burns it just like gas in a gas range.

7 Outstanding Reasons Why H. C. Little Oil Burners are Ideal for all Domestic Service

1. Absolutely Silent: No hum, no vibration, no roar—no noise whatsoever.
2. Low Initial Cost: Can be completely installed at a cost that fits the small home owner hitherto denied the advantages of automatic oil heat.
3. Ease of Installation: Because of its lack of motors, blowers or moving parts.
4. Economy of Operation: Thousands of H. C. Little burners are operating in the larger and more expensive domestic oil burners.
5. Simple: No motors, nozzles, blowers or complicated mechanisms to get clean.
6. Clean: Oil is completely vaporized and carburized before burning, insuring smokeless combustion. No soot, dust or ashes.
7. Safe: Its inherently safe construction and automatic cut-off insure utmost safety. Electric ignition—therefore no gas or oil pilots to clog and get out of order.

General Motors Terms to Suit Your Liking

IT'S no time now to dawdle around—here's August, summer's flying, that car of yours is going down steadily in trade-in value—and the Buicks are moving plenty fast!

Right now this big, silky, fast-stepping, valve-in-head straight-eight is still selling at the lowest prices in Buick history.

It's still your big chance to get a man-size bundle of thrill-packed travel-power at rock-bottom bargain rates. You can still have one for less than some sixes cost—and it's so far out in front of the others that no matter what they do next, they won't be able to match the '37 Buick for value!

So go slip your frame behind a Buick's ready wheel and head its nose out toward the long, wide highway. Try out its great power with your gas-treadle toe, give yourself over to it and let it show how it can send your spirits soaring.

And when you've sampled its mettle and learned the modest price figures, just ask yourself if it's likely that we'll soon see such value again! Yes, sir, it's a buy—the buy—just too good a buy to let slip.

So get busy—right now! Fast action is in order! Give us a ring and we'll talk things over!

"It's Buick again!"

Police Pistol Champs To Enter National Matches

Dalton and McGrath Leave for Camp Perry

Patrolmen David T. Dalton and John J. McGrath, New England champion two-man revolver team, will compete in the national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, next week. The two Newton police officers recently won the trophy known as the Commissioner Kirk cup as the best two-man team in the New England Police Revolver League at matches held in Wakefield. A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was called by Mayor Childs on Wednesday evening to provide funds for the expenses of the two officers at the matches and at the National Police School which conducts a rigid course in police tactics during the week preceding the matches.

Because the pair leave today in order to begin the police school course which opens on Monday and continues for a week the matter of appropriating the estimated expense of $350 could not wait until the regular meeting of the Board next Monday evening. Dalton and McGrath will be accompanied on the trip by Richard I. Dwyer, coach of the Newton police revolver team, who has been attending the national matches almost annually for several years. Mr. Dwyer will pay his own expenses.

Following the week's course in police tactics there will be two weeks of rifle and pistol matches in which about 4500 persons from the United States and Canada will participate. The session is sponsored by the National Committee for the Promotion of Civilian Marksmanship. The use of gas, machine guns, and other weapons will be taught at the school and a miniature city will be set up for the purpose of holding practical demonstrations. Camp Perry is located on Lake Erie, a few miles from Port Clinton, Ohio.

In the pistol matches in which they are to be entered Dalton and McGrath will compete against about 200 police marksmen from various parts of this country and Canada.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts will send four teams to compete in the rifle matches. These teams will consist of two civilians and two National Guard groups. The Navy, Army, Coast Guard and Marines will also be represented in the matches.

First Case Against Street Vendor—Fined $5

The first prosecution under the so-called "street-vendors" ordinance which was passed by the Board of Aldermen about a year ago, occurred in the Newton Court on Wednesday. Fred E. Straut of Roslindale was the defendant on a charge of violating the ordinance which prohibits street vendors from remaining in one place more than five minutes. He was fined $5.

Patrolman D. T. Dalton, complainant in the case, testified that on five occasions he had timed the defendant and found that he remained for periods of at least half an hour selling his wares in front of the Newton Hospital. The officer said he warned the man and on one occasion received the reply that the vendor was "out to make a dollar."

Empty Canoe Provides Police With Mystery

An abandoned canoe, found Monday by Newton police, near the Kenrick bridge at Nahant street, between Newton and Needham, provided the police with a mystery that as yet remains unsolved. Investigation revealed the canoe had been rented Sunday night by a young couple from a Dedham boathouse. The man and woman left three dollars as a deposit on the craft but did not leave their names. George Lent, proprietor of the canoe livery, described them both as about thirty years old.

The unoccupied canoe was found floating in an upright position by Patrolmen Harold C. Hoyt and Timothy Riley while patrolling Nahant street leading to the bridge. The paddles were gone, although several cushions gave evidence that the canoe had not been upset, discounting possible explanation of an accident. Police also considered the possibility of a suicide pact, but the absence of the paddles and the failure to unearth any clues between the boathouse and the bridge after searching the river banks made such a solution improbable. The possibility remained that the couple had gone ashore but in this connection the absence of the paddles proved baffling.

Striking Icemen Out Only 1 Day

Truck drivers and other employees of the Metropolitan Ice Company who went out at the Watertown plant on August 11, returned to work last Thursday under agreement to have their differences with the company settled by arbitration. In addition to the employees at the Watertown plant, those at the Cambridge and Somerville plants also struck. According to the company the strikers demanded that only members of a recently formed union be hired. The strikers claimed that the company had also refused to grant increases in wages and shorter hours. The wages had been increased sometime ago from $24 to $30 weekly. The strikers ask $36 for drivers and $32 for helpers. They are now receiving $30 and $24.

Award Contracts For Playground Grading and Fence

The contract for the grading of the Richardson playground in Waban was awarded to the John McDonald Construction Company this week by Superintendent of Playgrounds Ernest Herrman. The price, 29 1/2 cents a yard, delivered, is said to be about ten cents below the market price. Gravel is to be taken from the "Pigeon Hill" development at Newton Lower Falls. The McDonald bid was the lowest submitted by six firms for the required 11,600 yards of fill. Work will start immediately and will be completed in October.

Superintendent Herrman also awarded the contract for the construction of 450 feet of chain link fence, ten feet high, for the tennis courts at the Lower Falls Playground. J. J. Sullivan of Newton was the lowest of three bidders with a price of $765.

Oak Hill Library To Open Oct. 1st

The trustees of the Newton Free Library have called a meeting for Sept. 17 to consider final plans and arrangements for the opening of the branch library in the new Oak Hill School. It is expected that the new branch will be opened about October first. Furniture costing $900 has been ordered for the library quarters and $1000 has been set aside for office supplies and other expenses.

Legionnaires at New Bedford State Conclave

Led by Commander Leon H. Mayer of Newton Post No. 48, a large delegation of members left Wednesday for New Bedford where the State Department American Legion Convention will open the following day, continuing through the week-end.

The drill team of Newton Post will compete with other teams of the state on Saturday, when legion delegates will parade through the streets of New Bedford.

Newton delegates attended a pre-convention caucus held at Marlboro last Saturday. The convention delegates include Commander Mayer, District Commander Charles E. Walker, Senior Vice-commander J. Sherman Irving, Junior Vice-commander John B. Foley, Arthur Hunt, Carl Peterson and Joseph Beattie. Alternates are Capt. Joseph Ward, Mildred D. Ely, Harry McPhee, Edward V. Nolan, Edward Dalton, Daniel Wilkerson, Norman I. Patterson.

Newton Post is making plans for "Chow Night" which will be observed on Thursday, September 16, at War Memorial hall, Newton Centre.

Mayland P. Lewis, candidate for State Commander of the American Legion at the coming convention, visited the Legionnaires in Waltham and Newton on Monday. He was accompanied by Alderman Dennis M. Cronin, a member of Newton Post.

Lewis, who is former commander of Nahant post, has served as Department Vice-Commander, Commander of Essex County Council, Delegate-at-Large to the National Convention at Chicago in 1933, and has held many other Legion offices.

Two Horned Toads Discovered In Newtonville

Two horned toads were found in Newtonville over the past week-end, and are now in the possession of Frank B. Coleman, 5 Clarendon st., Newtonville. The toads, whose habitat is usually considered in desert areas are rare in this part of the country and Mr. Coleman expects that a student or someone interested in zoology will take them off his hands. He is feeding them with grasshoppers and because he has heard many stories of the records made by toads in going without water he is giving them none.

Mr. Coleman found the first of the two reptiles in his garden on Saturday. It was about five inches long and covered with spikes and horns. On Sunday a neighbor, Mrs. George E. Rushforth of 143 Norwood avenue, across the street from the Coleman house, found the second horned toad. It was about the same size but of slightly different color. Believing them to be of different sexes they were named Spike and Lizzie. They have about a dozen horns on their heads and their bodies are covered with small spikes. White stripes run down their backs with dark spots along each side of the stripe, through to the tip of a two-inch tail. In appearance they resemble a cross between a lizard and a toad.

Suspect Second Infantile Case Of Year Here

Another suspected case of infantile paralysis, the second in Newton this year, was reported on Monday to the Health Department. Bernice Herbert, 25, of 256 Austin street, Newtonville, now a patient at the Boston City Hospital, became ill on August 12th. The attending physician, Dr. J. R. Barker, reported the case stating that it was non-paralytic. Further reports are awaited before it will be definitely diagnosed as anterior poliomyelitis.

The first case of the year was reported in July and although recorded as a suspected case at first it was later diagnosed as positive.

Chimney Blaze at Newton Corner

A chimney fire in the Weld apartment house, 300 Centre street, Newton Corner, called firemen to the scene at 2:02 on Monday afternoon. The fire, which did little damage, is believed to have started from the burning of rubbish in the heater. The building is owned by the Taylor estate.

Owner Agrees To Exile Dog From City

Waban Dog Case Finally Is Settled

Banishment from the city is the fate meted out to "Sir Peter," English bull terrier, who has been the central figure in the dog case which has interested many Newton residents in recent weeks. This settlement of the case was reached Wednesday morning between Lyndall F. Carter, 314 Windsor road, Waban, and his neighbor defendant, Lindley R. Sutton of 196 Windsor road, before Judge W. Lloyd Allen.

Sutton was in court on the charge of keeping a "barking, biting, or howling dog" on complaint of Carter who reported that he was severely bitten about the hands and that his dog was badly injured by the bull terrier. He came to court Wednesday prepared to put many neighbors on the stand to testify in his behalf concerning the alleged viciousness of "Sir Peter."

Following a conference at the bench with the two Waban residents and their attorneys Judge Allen arose and addressed the spectators, asserting that he wished to explain the basis of the apparent settlement of the case for the benefit of those interested. Citing the basis of the complaint Judge Allen said, "If the defendant is found guilty the limit of the penalty would be a $10 fine. There could not be an order to dispose of or restrain the dog except that I might suspend the fine on condition that the dog is disposed of. The defendant could violate that condition, pay the fine and the dog would be free. But there is another method of procedure. To remain, but if they cause any trouble Carter has reserved the right to proceed against them also. The judge also expressed his appreciation of the spirit of co-operation displayed by both parties in effecting a settlement of the case.

Mr. Sutton has agreed that before Monday he will take the dog out of Newton and board it. If that is done the case is ended. If not done Mr. Carter is to appear before the chief of police and ask for a restraining order. Such an order would give the court jurisdiction over the fate of the dog." Judge Allen further stated that several Irish terriers owned by the Suttons are to remain, but if they cause any trouble Carter has reserved the right to proceed against them also. The judge also expressed his appreciation of the spirit of co-operation displayed by both parties in effecting a settlement of the case.

Another Crash On Turnpike at Chestnut Street

The Chestnut street overpass at Newton Upper Falls was the scene of another accident on the Worcester turnpike last Sunday afternoon in which four persons had a narrow escape from serious or fatal injury. The automobile crashed through a fence, tore down a concrete post, and narrowly escaped plunging down the steep embankment to the by-pass leading to Chestnut street.

Benjamin Joseph, 40, of Leston street, Dorchester, driver of the car, told the police that he was traveling west on the turnpike about four o'clock when a bus cut in front of him from the right to the left lane, forcing him to drive off the road. The car swerved to the right and the concrete post lodged between the front wheels of the car in such a way as to prevent its catapulting down the embankment. An evergreen tree and twenty feet of wooden fence were torn down by the car.

With the driver was his wife, Eva Joseph, 40, Frank Solomon and his wife, Lena, all of Dorchester. They were badly shaken, but otherwise uninjured.

Stuart Taking Traffic Course

Albert J. Stuart, master mechanic of the street department, has been taking a course in traffic control being conducted at Harvard University under the personal direction of Maxwell P. Halsey, chief engineer of the Bureau of Traffic Research of the State of New York. The course opened on Monday. Mr. Stuart was detailed to take the course by Street Commissioner Charles A. Mahoney, with the approval of Mayor Childs. The course of training is open to officials of the cities and towns in the Commonwealth and many are taking advantage of the opportunity to send representatives. Mr. Stuart, who has been connected with the street department in Newton for twenty years, has supervised the installation of the traffic signal system with the co-operation of the Chief of Police and Street Commissioner. He is considered an authority on parking and traffic problems. The first traffic survey ever held in Newton was conducted by him in 1928 and from these figures the present system of through ways, one-way streets and traffic signs has been developed.

Landlords Warned Of Clever Thief

Newton landlords were warned by the police this week to be watchful of a "rubber check" artist who has been successfully working a plan to obtain money under false pretenses. According to a letter from Clarence W. Deatry, Watertown and Boston lawyer, who appealed to police to be on the lookout for the thief, the man's method of operation chose landlords as his particular victims. He said the thief engages an apartment and tenders a check as a deposit for the rent. The check is usually made out for twice the amount usually sought as a deposit and change in cash is requested. In each case the check proves to be worthless. The "bad check" artist who has been operating in the vicinity is described as about 65 years old.

Waltham Boy Arrested For House Burglary

Returning to her home last Friday afternoon after a short absence and finding the house burglarized, Mrs. Joseph B. Hughes of 278 Cabot street, Newtonville, sought the assistance of police. Learning from the woman that a 15-year-old Waltham boy, who was a friend of the family, had called a short time before she went out, it took the Newton and Waltham police but a few hours to find the culprit and learn that he had figured in several other thefts in Waltham and Concord.

It is Hughes home entry was gained by the use of a key and it is believed that the youth had learned where it was hidden. A strong box had been ripped open and looted of $32 in cash. The box was found in the cellar. A bank book and 30 shares of stock which were also in the box were found in an old refrigerator in the cellar. Patrolman William L. Whelan and Henry Bell, who were assigned to the case, notified the Waltham police and the youth was apprehended in the evening by Patrolmen Frank Dacey and Edward McNeill of the Waltham force. The Newton officers went to Waltham police headquarters and questioned the boy. He told them he had traveled from his parents' summer home near Bath, Me., by bicycle and not only admitted the theft at the Hughes home, but said that he had been involved in other burglaries in Waltham and Concord with two other youths.

He was taken to Newton police headquarters and booked on a charge of breaking and entering and larceny. Police recovered most of the loot from the Hughes home where he had hidden $23.35. He was arraigned in Newton court on Saturday and his case continued until the juvenile session of the court this morning.

Driver Leaves Accident Site Is Arrested On Two Charges—Aged Man Injured

Emil F. Schult, 76 years old, of 123 Otis street, Newtonville, was struck and injured Sunday evening about nine o'clock while crossing Newtonville square near the traffic beacon. Vincent Walsh, of 354 Prospect street, Cambridge, driver of the truck, which figured in the accident, was later arrested on charges of driving without a license and of going away from the scene of an accident after causing injury to a person.

Schult was walking with his granddaughter, Marjorie Janice of 98 Hawthorne avenue, Auburndale, and had stopped at the traffic beacon in the square. According to Walsh the man walked into the path of the truck which was proceeding west on Washington street, although his companion attempted to hold him back. He was struck by the front fender and knocked down. According to the police reports of the accident Walsh stopped his truck and remained on the scene about a minute. He then drove off without identifying himself. Informed of his disappearance Motorcycle Officer Cornelius J. Dwyer went in pursuit and finally overtook the truck and driver at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue. He brought Walsh to headquarters where he was questioned and booked on the two charges. Schult was removed to the hospital in the police ambulance. Walsh was unable to produce his license at the time but showed the police a renewal of the license which becomes effective August 21 and stated that he had lost the old license. He also failed to produce the registration certificate of the truck when halted but it was later found in the truck. He was arraigned in court on Monday.

Two Former Newton Residents Killed in China

Missionary and Princeton Instructor, Known Here

Two former Newton men are reported as having been killed in China during the recent bombings in the Shanghai war area. Rev. Frank J. Rawlinson, missionary of the First Congregational Church of Newton Centre, and representative of the American Board of Foreign Missions in China, was killed on Saturday in Shanghai when a bomb dropped from a Chinese fighting plane demolished the automobile in which he was riding on the line between the French Concession and the International Settlement. The information was given by Rev. Wynn C. Fairfield of Newtonville, secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions of 4 Beacon street, Boston.

Dr. Robert K. Reischauer died in the Shanghai County Hospital from wounds received during Saturday's bombardment in front of the Palace Hotel at Shanghai. He was injured while leading a tourist party in the vicinity of the Nanking road.

Rev. Rawlinson spent three months of his furlough last fall at the Walter Missionary Home in Auburndale. He was a graduate of Bucknell University in Pennsylvania in 1899, received a degree in 1902 from Rochester Theological, an M. A. degree from Columbia University in 1917 and later an honorary D.D. from the same college. He went to China as a representative of the Baptist Board in 1902 and twenty years later became affiliated with the American Board of Foreign Missions.

Rev. Rawlinson leaves his widow of Angola, Indiana, and two children, John and Jean in Shanghai and six other children in the United States: Gilbert and Frank of Webster Grove, Missouri; Alfred of Atlanta, Ga.; George of North Carolina; Mrs. Marjorie McKnight of South Carolina, and Ruth, a student at Oberlin College in Ohio.

Dr. Reischauer received his degree at Harvard University in 1935 and as a student there resided in Newton. He was married to Jean Anderson of Cleveland in Cambridge in 1931. He has been an instructor in Japanese at Princeton University since 1935, leaving there several months ago for a study tour of the Orient.

One-Hour Parking Limit Enforced At West Newton

Conforming with a regulation adopted by the Board of Aldermen last May parking signs in several locations near West Newton square have been erected, establishing a one-hour parking limit. Through an oversight on the part of traffic officials the new signs were not installed previously and following their usual custom police do not enforce such regulations until the public is warned of the regulation by the signs.

The regulation established a one-hour parking limit between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. with the exception of Sundays and holidays at locations specified as on Watertown street from No. 983 to Washington street, north side and on Washington street from Davis Court to Cherry street, north side and from Chestnut street to Highland street, south side.

One of the locations where the hour limit is now being enforced is in front of the police station and court house. It may well happen that a defendant in a court case, parking his car in front of the building and being detained more than an hour, may come out to find he has again become entangled in the nets of law.

A FUTURE ISSUE

The Roosevelt administration found it impossible to pack the Supreme Court by the method of changing the number of members sitting on that high bench. By reason of Senatorial courtesy, however, there are many indications that the appointment of Senator Hugo L. Black to the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench was not as commendable as many New Dealers proclaim. The American people will not soon forget the furore created during the early months of this year against the proposal to increase the membership of that body. And the appointment of the Southern Senator may well become one of the issues of the 1938 Congressional and 1940 Presidential campaigns. It is not the fact that Senator Black represents a southern state nor the fact that he may or may not be a member of that notorious clan that is of particular importance. Of greater significance is the possibility that his appointment to the position may well have been without the constitution because of his membership in the Senate when the emoluments of the members of the Court were increased. To say nothing of the criticism which has been raised against his appointment on the basis of partisanship and attitude in the past.

FIRST MISTAKE IN TWENTY-NINE YEARS

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin this week admitted that he had made his first mistake in twenty-nine years. The admission of a mistake to many people is an almost impossible acknowledgment and is similar to the case when an umpire in a baseball game "calls them wrong." Many fans know that the umpire is at error but they just have to sit and take it. Many motorists cannot agree with Registrar Goodwin that in the York Beach case he made his first mistake.

ARCHERY ON THE PLAYGROUND

The increasing popularity in archery being exhibited upon the Newton playgrounds is most gratifying. Do not think for one moment that shooting an arrow from a bow at a target in the distance is a sissy sport. It takes muscular strength, fine eyesight, and co-ordination of nerves to a greater degree than many other so-called he-man sports.

AUGUST DOG DAYS

August dog days are with us once again. Yet there is plenty of consolation in the realization that there are but four more weeks of summer. It will not be long before we are shivering and slithering with the frosty breezes and slippery streets of winter.

Former Newton Girl In South Shore Cast

Alice Mansfield, of 3 Valley rd., Arlington, is playing the delightful part of Gwen in the South Shore Players' next offering, "The Royal Family," the famous George Kaufman and Edna Ferber comedy at the Cohasset Town Hall this week. Donald Cook, well-known star of the stage and screen heads the all-star cast which also includes Beatrice Terry, Robert Shayne, Carroll Ashburn, Jack Hartley, Lois Hall, Walter Rock and William Cragin. The play is being directed by Fredrick Burleigh.

Although a newcomer to the South Shore Players' cast, Miss Mansfield is by no means new to the stage. Her most recent appearance was in the lead role with a well-known stock company in Highland, New York, this season. She played with the latter company following an extensive study of dramatics at the Theodore Irvine School in New York City after her graduation from Stonleigh College in Rye, N. H.

At Newton High School where she won first prize in a public speaking contest and was active in dramatics, she was given the lead role in the school's outstanding dramatic success, "The Royal Family." Following her graduation, she played leading parts in Newton Dramatic Club performances.

Miss Mansfield is the daughter of ex-Alderman and Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield, formerly of Newton and now of Arlington.

Two Fined For Drunken Driving

Fines of $100 and $50 were imposed on two autoists convicted of drunken driving in the Newton District Court on Monday. Stillman F. Weeks of 1210 Boylston street, Brookline, pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor but was found guilty after a hearing and fined the larger amount. He was also fined $5 for drunkenness. He entered an appeal.

Stephen C. Farrey of Foster street, Brighton, was fined $50 on a charge of operating while under the influence. A charge of drunkenness was filed. Farrey was arrested Saturday night by Patrolmen Litchfield and McArdle.

Weeks was arrested nearly three weeks ago after his automobile crashed into a pole at Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut Street by Patrolmen J. L. Davis, James Cunningham and James McHugh. The pole was moved by the crash and the electric light globe shattered.

Colliding Car Injures Parker

Gerald Barry of Cedar street, Wellesley, received injuries while seated in a parked car opposite 2295 Washington street, Lower Falls last Saturday afternoon, when the car in which he was sitting was struck in the rear by a machine operated by Elinor P. Swanson of Wellesley. The accident was reported by Harry Guttenberg, of Everett, operator of the car in which Barry was seated.

Edwards Again Writes Mayor On Ambulance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On Aug. 4th through an open letter in these columns, I called your attention to a recently bought one ton and one half truck converted into an ambulance for use in Newton. I stated that this vehicle was useless for the purpose for which it was intended.

This statement was proved in no uncertain manner the day following my letter.

A bad accident occurred on Beacon street, involving four persons, a man being fatally injured, a child seriously hurt and two women requiring attention. When our "Black Maria" type truck-ambulance arrived on the scene the police had a difficult puzzle to solve, that being to get four persons quickly to the hospital in an ambulance equipped to carry one. The solution was to place the two women on the front seat, thereby breaking the law, placing the man on the crude canvas stretcher, and the child was taken care of by being held in the arms of a policeman, who rode on the "wee" seat in the rear. The man died less than an hour after reaching the hospital, making a total of ten fatalities in Newton thus far this year. The writer witnessed another accident on Sunday night. Two people this time and the law was again broken as the injured one was put on the stretcher and his escort, a lady, was given the "luxurious" small seat on which to ride. The officer who should have been in the ambulance, ready to assist the patient was directed by a superior to the driver's seat.

So, Mr. Mayor, the wealthy Garden City has a truck ambulance which is not properly equipped, has accommodations for one patient only, and if there are two or more a state law has to be broken in order that all may take a bumpy ride at one time to a hospital.

Another purpose for which this truck ambulance has to be used is to convey sick unfortunates who are on welfare to hospitals, some of which are fifty miles distant.

Mr. Mayor, in view of these facts and the obvious unsuitability of Newton's only ambulance, you have chosen to ignore my first letter calling it to your attention. As a large tax payer owning a sizable business in Newton and a loyal supporter of most of your policies, I have a perfect right to receive an explanation regarding costly mistakes on the part of some person or persons directly under your authority and answerable to you. The rights of citizens are surely not to be supplanted by what appears on the surface a Kaiser-like attitude of an "auxiliary chief" of police, whose advice is accepted, perhaps blindly, and who has your backing.

Mr. Mayor, if this be true, and it is interfering with the intelligent running of a department and incidentally with the rights of citizens, something drastic should be done at once, in order to clear up a situation which may steadily grow worse.

When I wrote last, my advice was for you to ride in our newly acquired truck ambulance at ambulance speed over average Newton streets. My advice now is for you to visit Wellesley, Watertown, Belmont and other nearby towns in order that you may see up-to-date, well-equipped, comfortable-riding ambulances with accommodations for at least four patients and an attendant. I have inspected several and have found them to be most satisfactory. These towns do not have the miles of streets nor the number of fatalities as has Newton.

Mr. Mayor, my interest in this situation is most intense and I am willing to debate the uselessness of Newton's new truck ambulance at a public meeting, which I and many others feel should be called in its connection.

Sincerely yours,
ROY S. EDWARDS,
29 Crafts St., Newtonville.

EMILE ZOLA PREMIERE AT WELLESLEY THEATRE

"The Life of Emile Zola," distinguished Paul Muni vehicle which promises to be among the very finest of next season's pictures, has been secured for a special pre-release engagement by the Wellesley Hills Community Playhouse. There will be no other showing of this picture in or about Boston at this time.

Early reviews from New York where the film opened several days ago, credit Muni with surpassing his brilliant work in "The Story of Louis Pasteur," characterization which won for him the most recent Academy Award. Following this prize-winning role it will be recalled, Mr. Muni distinguished himself in the leading role of "The Good Earth." His is a remarkable record of successes.

Few liberties have been taken in the translation to the screen of the life story of France's famous man of letters and defender of human rights. Chief reason for this is undoubtedly the fact that Zola's actual biography, filled with action and color, leaves bare opportunity for imaginative embellishment. His inspired defense of the politically persecuted Dreyfus won for Emile Zola a place among the world's immortals.

The extent of the Community Playhouse engagement of "The Life of Emile Zola" has been definitely limited to six days and is to begin on Monday, August 30. The tremendous interest already displayed would indicate a necessity for advanced reservations.

WELFARE CLUB TO MEET

Hewett, speaker, will explain the merits of the General Welfare Act of 1937. Visitors are expected from Natick, Roslindale and other nearby sections. The public is cordially invited.

WPA Orchestra Plans Ninth Auburndale Concert

The Newton WPA orchestra, Albert H. Webber, supervisor, and Herman C. Sulzen, conductor, presented the 8th in a series of outdoor concerts at the "Shell", Commonwealth ave. and Arlington rd., Auburndale, Tuesday evening to an audience of about 4000 music lovers.

The program was varied, including symphonic and musical comedy selections and the popular melodies were used as encores, the choruses of which were sung by Arthur Rogers, the trumpeter of the orchestra.

Miss Ruth N. Bearse was the guest soloist and sang the "Sweetheart number from the show "Maytime", "Ciribiribin," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert, accompanied by the orchestra.

The orchestra played at the Newton Hospital on Wednesday afternoon, and traveled to the Wollaston shell on Thursday evening, joining the Quincy unit in rendering an outdoor concert. The next concert at the Shell in Auburndale on Tuesday evening will be rendered by the famous Brass Ensemble Band under the conductorship of Stanley Massell, well known orchestra and band leader of Boston. This will be their second appearance at the Shell, and they are presenting an enjoyable program of marches and selections.

These concerts are sponsored by the Federal Music Project, Works Progress Administration, William C. Madden, state director, and M. B. Seaver, District No. 2 Supervisor.

Letters To The Editor

TAXES AND ASSESSING

August 12, 1937.

Dear Sir:

The gentleman who in a recent issue protested against the Newton tax rate, Newton assessors and their valuations has everybody's sympathy. Those of us who have not been able to secure enough income from property to pay the bills—not one cent for taxes—especially sympathize with him.

Newton tax rate is, however, nearly the lowest of any city in Massachusetts. Some nearby cities are 50 percent higher!

Experience with nearby assessors and their methods has increased my respect for the fairness and good judgment of our Newton assessors. Of course they are just as liable to error as most of us are in our own jobs. I have seen several hundred of the valuations and several hundred assessments and valuations of other assessors. Nearby cities frequently assess properties at many times a fair value even in normal times. A recent sale of a property assessed at $73,000 brought $12,000. Another home valued by a nearby assessing board for $90,000 sold for $11,000 after 2 years of intensive selling effort.

In fairness to all assessors, everywhere, it should be borne in mind that real estate recently reached the economic low of this particular depression and that some types of real estate will, in the next few years, return to former prices. Our comparative study and our experience clearly indicate that Newton assessments are the fairest in this part of the State. Two equal homes might well have a $300 tax bill in a nearby city and only $200 in Newton.

Failure to secure fair assessments from nearby cities has forced us to file scores of applications for abatement with the State Board of Tax Appeals. Not one involves a Newton property.

We in Newton are fortunate in having an honest city government. We have a splendid group of city officials: sincere, polite, efficient. Deal with certain nearby cities for a little while and appreciate that Newton has more than scenery and good schools and good police to recommend it.

Sincerely,
PETER TURCHON.

REMINISCENCES OF MR. DAVIS

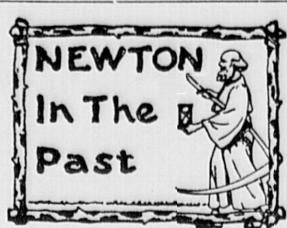

"I have seen in the papers the death notice of Mr. S. Warren Davis, a former teacher of Greek and Latin at Newton High School. Many of us had the privilege of being taught by him. He was a perfect gentleman and possibly we took advantage of him because he was always so courteous.

One incident which occurred in my Latin class, I would like to mention. Not having prepared the lesson and not worrying very much because it was Mr. Davis's class, I was called on to translate a passage. He let me go on and on without an interruption. I felt cheered and reckless. Still he didn't stop me—a full page, I floundered through and sat down. He looked at me, smiled and said, "Thank you," with a nod of his head. Then he turned to the class and said, "What Miss Carter means to say is this," and he translated the entire page correctly. I never imposed on him again and although I may have forgotten most of the Latin, I never can forget his kindly manner and courteous rebuke.

DOROTHY CARTER.

Speeds in Newton, Mopes in Needham

A young West Newton man was fined $5 in Newton court last week on a charge of speeding, but according to Needham police he is just a "road mope." Motorcycle officer John J. McGrath testified that the youth had driven on Washington street at the rate of 45 miles an hour. The officer as astounded to discover later that the youth's license had been suspended by the Registrar of Motor Vehicles on complaint of Needham police that he drove very slowly, in the center of the road, obstructing traffic and preventing other cars from passing.

62 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, August 21, 1875
Is there any liquor sold in Newton? No licenses are granted, you know.

It is estimated that Wednesday's rain will cost the city of Newton $500 for repairs to streets.

Several boys were before Judge Slocum on Tuesday morning for stealing fruit. They were convicted and fined. Let this be a warning to those boys who think they have free access to their neighbors' orchards.

The benefits of the Newton Library have now been extended to every village with one exception, so that the patrons can obtain books without the trouble of going to the main library.

Hall's automatic electric signal is now in operation on the Boston & Albany railroad from Boston to Brighton.

Wednesday night a man attempted to cross the B. & A. railroad at the Newton depot just forward of an approaching train. He barely escaped, the engine grazing him. Many people try to see how near they can come to danger. The best way is to always keep at a safe distance.

Mr. Dupee's horse got frightened Friday morning, threw out the boy who was driving the market wagon, cleared himself from the wagon, and ran down Centre st. with the broken shafts. He ran into a team standing by the sidewalk and drove a shaft into his breast. The wound is not serious.

The Newtonville Hook & Ladder Company are to have new uniforms. The first turnout with them on will be at the October parade of the Fire Department.

As two cavalry men, members of the militia, were riding through Newtonville on Monday afternoon, on their way from Framingham, a stone was thrown, hitting one of them in the head and inflicting a severe wound. Two men from Ward 6, close behind, and under the influence of liquor, were the probable assailants. They were arrested and taken to West Newton where Judge Slocum administered the law to them.

The Mason School at Newton Centre is valued at $50,000; the highest of any school in the city.

Three men, the worse for liquor, went into the barber shop of W. P. Hill at Nonantum on Thursday with the intention of cleaning him out. One got shaved and refused to pay. Another wanted his hair cut, and when Mr. Hill declined until they would pay him, they seized his razors and shears and commenced to assault him. Mr. Hill was called and arrested one, the others having fled. James Pitcher was fined $3 in court for drunkenness and sent to the House of Correction for 3 months.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, August 20, 1887

People who took their vacations in July were fortunate, as August promises to be a delightful month to stay at home in comfort.

The incandescent electric lights in the various depots in this city will be started up the first week in September. The company has a row of these lights on streets in Watertown, nearly 40 lights, ready to be started.

The iron pole for the electric arc light at Farlow Park was put up on Tuesday morning, and connected with the circuit that evening. The light is 40 feet from the ground, and was given by the company; citizens furnishing the pole.

If the amount of money taken by the Indian doctors who visited Lower Falls on Wednesday evening was in proportion to the size of the crowd they attracted, they must have reaped a rich harvest.

The railroad men have been much troubled lately by thieves breaking into freight cars on the siding between Newton and Newtonville. Last Sunday, Mr. Mead, the section foreman, caught a party of young fellows in the act, and captured one of them. They had broken open casks of sugar and barrels of kerosene, and had mingled the two just for a little amusement. The police are after the others who were concerned.

Newton Graphic, August 16, 1912

Mayor Hatfield and the Selectmen of Watertown have come to an agreement relative to the rebuilding of a bridge over Laundry Brook at Morse st. While the bridge is in Watertown, Newton wishes to dam the brook occasionally for skating purposes at Boyd Pond park. Newton will replace the undermining, while Watertown will furnish the upper part of the structure. The Watertown officials will build the bridge of cement at a cost of $4500.

The assessors gave the taxpayers of this city a welcome surprise last Friday afternoon when they announced the tax rate for the year at $17.40; a decrease of 20c from that of last year. Notwithstanding large increases in city appropriations and a decrease in available cash, the rate was lowered because of an unusual and abnormal increase in the valuations of personal property.

Powers' Paragraphs

In the past four months two Newton residents have been killed by automobiles near the "Y" at the junction of Charles River Parkway and Charlesbank rd., Newton. An old resident of Newton who lives on Charlesbank rd. states that he frequently walks by this junction, and has to wait for minutes at a time to cross the parkway because of the terrific speed at which automobiles are operated along it. He suggests that the Metropolitan police, who have control of this parkway, campaign against the speeding of this highway which is used by many pedestrians.

Section 151, Chapter 140 of the General Laws of Massachusetts says: "The mayor of each city and the chairman of the selectmen of each town shall annually, within 10 days after July 1, issue a warrant to one or more police officers or constables, who will hold office for one year, or until their successors are qualified, directing them forthwith to kill, or cause to be killed all dogs within such city or town which are not licensed and collared as required by this chapter, and to enter complaint against the owners or keepers thereof; and any person may, and every police officer and constable shall, kill or cause to be killed all such dogs whenever or wherever found."

For years this law has been consistently disregarded in Newton, with the result that this city has a very unenviable record for biting, barking and trespassing dogs. In 1936 the number of persons reported to have been bitten by dogs in Newton totaled 188, according to the annual report of the Health Department. For the first seven months of this year 128 persons had been reported bitten. With in the past few weeks the Superintendent of the Newton Playgrounds was forced to call attention to dogs menacing children using the playgrounds. Thousands of persons in Newton have been bothered by dogs trespassing on their lawns and gardens. And no determined action has been taken against the dog nuisance by officials of the city.

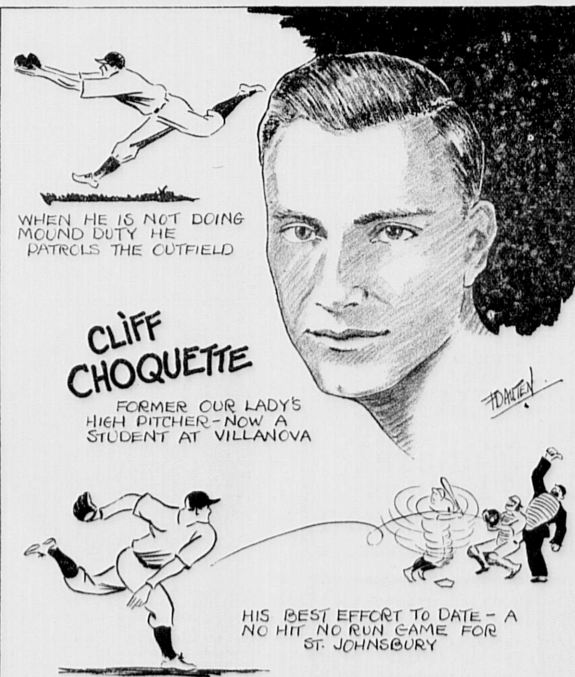

For years all policemen in Newton were designated as dog officers, and with very few exceptions they did nothing to enforce the dog laws, except when some citizen made a complaint. Unlicensed dogs, and dogs without collars roamed the streets of Newton unmolested, and are still doing so. There are hundreds of such dogs unrestrained in the city today. A couple of years ago a newly appointed employee of the city, whose principal work is custodian of a building, was designated as dog officer. Apart from his regular duties, he works in conjunction with the city clerk in following up cases of unlicensed dogs listed by the police when they take the census.

What Newton has needed for years, and needs increasingly as the city becomes more thickly populated by people—and dogs, is a dog officer who will give all his time to this work, and who will round up all unlicensed and uncollared dogs in Newton. The other day two persons were bitten by dogs in this city. Neither dog wore a collar, the identity of these dogs, nor their owners is not known. There is no way of ascertaining whether, or not, these dogs had rabies. This is a nice condition to be permitted to continue. Isn't it?

The controversy over the investigation of the White Fund by the Boston Finance Commission has been receiving much publicity in the Boston newspapers. Mayor Mansfield says that

Cliff Choquette of Faxon st., Newton, a sophomore at Villanova College, is considered the city's best pitcher. Veteran of six seasons of school baseball at Newton High school, Our Lady's High school and Mt. St. Charles, Providence, Cliff had a great season with Villanova freshmen, winning four games, and travelled with the college varsity during the season. He is 21 years old, and a great friend of Francis "Chicken" Morris of Gordon Terrace, Newton, having played on the same Our Lady's High teams in 1935-36. The two will be together again in the fall, when the popular "Chicken" enters Villanova as a freshman.

Cliff Choquette's baseball experiences have carried him a long ways. He played last summer for New Watertown, Nova Scotia. At one time he pitched a perfect no-hit, no-run game for the St. Johnsbury, Vt. club. He started the current summer season with Mass. Knitting, went to the Cape League for a week or two, and was snatched up by the Wamunabo Mills club of Lisbon Falls, Maine, a team with half a dozen pitchers. They are right now in Wichita, Kansas, in the throes of the national semi-professional baseball championship tourney, an event with a first prize of $5000. Winning that prize for his team would not make Choquette a professional, but he certainly seems destined for pro baseball sooner or later. Fred Dauten is the cartoonist.

SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE SHOWS LARGE GAINS

During the first six months of 1937, the Massachusetts Savings Bank Life Insurance as compared to $7,598,695 for the same period in 1936. The figures for the month of June are particularly impressive showing as they do a gain of 47% over June of 1936.

While the Savings Bank Life Insurance law has been in effect for over 30 years, the fact that this system of insurance functions without solicitors, has resulted in the knowledge of its existence spreading rather slowly.

Recent years, however, have seen more and more Massachusetts people avail themselves of the opportunity of buying "over the counter" life insurance.

Since the first of March, which was the date on which the Newton Savings Bank started to issue Savings Bank Life Insurance policies, an intensive educational program has been conducted to bring to the attention of the people of Newton the advantages of this form of life insurance. This program has been sponsored by a number of public spirited Newton citizens.

Talks on Savings Bank Life Insurance have been given to several organizations in the city, including the Service Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, City Employees Union and the Newton Teachers.

Several of the Newton industries have arranged for talks to their employees, so that they may be familiar with the savings that may be effected through this type of life insurance.

CAPITOL THEATRE, ALLSTON

One of the great sea stories of modern literature, Rudyard Kipling's thrilling saga of the Gloucester fishermen, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre in Allston for the entire week starting Friday, August 20th, with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's production of "Captains Courageous," with Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas in the leading roles. For the first time in his screen career Freddie Bartholomew plays a wholly American boy, a wide departure from any previous role. As Harvey Cheyne he is the pampered son of a millionaire who has never known the meaning of work and worthwhile effort. Bound for Europe on a super-liner he falls overboard off the Newfoundland banks and is picked up by a fishing dory manned by Spencer Tracy, the latter playing the part of Manuel, a Portuguese fisherman. This role, the most colorful that Tracy has yet had, rivals even that of the priest in "San Francisco."

The boy is taken to the fishing schooner "We're Here," captained by Lionel Barrymore as Captain Disko. His tale of being a millionaire's son is attributed to the shock of having fallen overboard. He is put to work and gradually his regeneration is begun. The hardy, honest Gloucester fishermen make a man of him. Mickey Rooney, teamed with Freddie Bartholomew in "The Devil is a Sissy," again appears with him in "Captains Courageous" as Dan the captain's son. The large supporting cast playing the schooner's crew includes Charlie Grapewin, Jack Larue, John Carradine and numerous others.

As a co-feature attraction the management will present "Midnight Madonna," the dynamic story of mother-love which features Warren William, Mady Correll and Little Four year old Kitty.

"Midnight Madonna" is an excellent dramatization of similar cases which crashed the newspaper headlines recently. It introduces two new film personalities in Miss Correll, recently from the New York stage, and the little Kitty who is one of the sweetest child personalities ever to appear before the movie cameras. Besides the excellent and gripping story it has some splendid music and good comedy, supplied in the main by little Kitty.

MR. VENGROW COMMENTS ON THE FUR MARKET

Mr. Paul Vengrow of Furs By Vengrow at Coolidge Corner in Brookline says, "The fur market is in the greatest state of excitement we've seen in years! It's to be a boom season for furs. They are more desirable to own than ever before. They are more luxurious than ever before."

"We are opening our August Fur Sale with the biggest and finest collections we have had in years, prepared to meet this big fur demand. We have spent the last six months collecting the finest pelts from all over the world and have had them made into the exciting new styles."

"Fashion in Furs" is the 1938 byword for smart women," says Mr. Vengrow, of the leading Brookline Fur Salon.

Annual Parade And Pet Show At Burr Playground

The annual costume parade conducted at Burr park, Newton yesterday, proved to be a gala occasion. Showing off their unique and varied costumes, the children ranging between the ages of 5 and 14 years marched with pets and vehicles.

The pets opened the procession, followed by the vehicle and costume parade. Pets were a big feature by themselves, including dogs, cats, a turtle, and even guinea pigs and a white rat.

Three winners were selected in each class. The judges were appointed by Guy Baker who selected them from the audience to insure fair decisions. The judges were Helen Anderson, Mrs. McLaughlin and Mr. Joslin. Prizes awarded to winners included baseballs, puzzle games, dolls and mechanical toys.

Winners in the pet section were Rita Murphy, displaying a hunter dog with a red ribbon; Mabel Brownrigg, a cat dressed as "Princess Pat"; and Bessie Smith, a terrier with red ribbon. Shoots Self—Will Recover Firing two shots from a rifle Robert M. Fewster, 78, of 23 Pearl street, Newton, seriously wounded himself in the mouth in an apparent effort to take his life at his home last Saturday night. The aged man told police that he was despondent over his wife's illness. In a fall down a flight of stairs several weeks ago she became incapacitated and although hearing the rifle shots, her condition was such that she could not go to her husband. He is also 78 years old.

The long-barreled gun making it awkward to take accurate aim is believed to have saved the man's life, the first shot missed him, but the second inflicted a jagged wound in Fewster's mouth. Both bullets penetrated the ceiling of the room and were found in the second floor room above.

A neighbor, James Walsh of 23 Pearl street, also heard the shots and was attracted to the Fewster home where he found the injured man in the dining room still holding the rifle. After summoning a physician he notified police. Captain Nicholas Veduccio, and Patrolman Barr and Greeley went to the house to investigate. Sergeant Michael J. Sullivan and Patrolmen J. F. O'Donnell and Charles Goodale removed the victim to the hospital in the police ambulance while other officers took possession of the gun and cartridges. Physicians at the hospital expressed the belief that Fewster would recover.

Charge Newton Man With Bad Driving

Edward Spurr of 904 Watertown st., West Newton, was arraigned in the Waltham court last Thursday on charges of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, and driving so as to endanger the safety of the public. The case was continued until August 19. Sergeant Igoe of the Watertown police charged that on Feb. 21 a car driven by Spurr hit the rear of a car driven by William Burke of Brighton. The gasoline tank on Burke's car caught afire. Burke and a young woman riding with him were rescued by bystanders, while Spurr, who had received a fractured left leg and brain concussion, was also pulled out of his automobile. Spurr was in a hospital for many weeks.

Firemen Let Owner Into Home

Two members of Engine 3 were sent out last Friday night to help S. Simone of 3 Fountain street, West Newton, into his home. The home owner, arriving home about 11:15 discovered that he had lost his key and was unable to enter the house. The firemen raised a ladder to a second story window, entered, and were then able to open the front door.

Annual Boat Races Held At Crystal Lake

The annual boat races for the young people of the Newton Playground Department were held at Crystal Lake last week Thursday morning.

Boats were entered in two classes, 18-inch and unclassified. There were 90 boats in the 18-inch class and this race was sailed under ideal conditions. The winners in the first heat were Upper Falls 5 first, owner Eddie Kelliher; Newton Centre 4 second, owner Daniel Kellion; Cold Spring 9 third, owner George Watters; Newton Centre 4 fourth, owner Norman Sullivan; Newton Centre 5 fifth, owner Roderick Clifford; Cold Spring sixth, owner Richard Rhodes. Second Heat: Waban 1 first, owner Robert Wood; Victory 1 second, owner Andy Eno; Hawthorne 1 third, owner Paul Fagan; Burr 8 fourth, owner David Billings; Williams 1 fifth, owner Herbert Colcord; Stearns 6 sixth, owner Robert Boudreau; Burr 2 sixth, Joe Daley. In the final heat: Robert Woods Waban 1 came in first just ahead of Eddie Kelliher's Upper Falls 5. Richard Rhodes Cold Spring 1 took third place.

There was but one heat in the free for all and the larger boats proved to be somewhat slower. John Walsh, Horace Mann 7, came in first. J. Timmons, Victory 13, was second and Richard Ulin Newton Centre X was third. The audience became quite excited during this race when one of the larger Newton Centre boats began to take in water and gradually sank beneath the surface. This boat was later recovered by John Herrick, one of the life guards on duty.

Silver cups were awarded by the playground department to the first place winners. Baseball gloves were given as second prizes and fountain pens were awarded for third place. Mrs. Louis H. Marshall of the Playground Commission made the presentations and the meet was in direct charge of Mr. Nicholas Tedesco, Supervisor of boys' handwork, and his assistant, Mr. Leighton Reimer.

Appeal Board To Determine Setback Ruling

The Newton Board of Appeal has been asked to settle a problem affecting the setback requirements of a lot of land in Auburndale, following a decision by the Public Buildings Department. The lot is bounded by a right of way extending from Bertram road to Washington street and part of the right of way is on the property of the petitioner, Margaret Maguire. The building code requires a setback of twenty-five feet from the line for the construction of a dwelling and Public Buildings Commissioner Arthur Campbell made the ruling that the setback must start from the right of way. The owner of the land contended that if the full setback from the right of way is required there will be insufficient land remaining on the lot for the construction of a dwelling. The Board of Appeal has been asked to reverse the Commissioner's ruling.

Stephen G. Simpson, owner and occupant of a house on the opposite side of the right of way, sent a telegram from his summer home in Maine and asked the department to furnish him information regarding the petition.

Camp Mary Day On Last 2 Weeks

The fourth and final two-week period at Camp Mary Day, the Newton Girl Scout camp at Nonesuch pond, Cohasset, opened Monday with 17 new campers entering. These included Ruth Conant, Kathleen Hickey, Julia Battista, Bernice Chamberlain, Louise Doten, Marion Fulton, Eleanor Murray, Doris Adams, Anne Macomber, Barbara Chisholm, Gloria Martin, Marion O'Mera, Caroline Saphar, Genevieve Cupoli, Susie Patriacca, Florence Forest and Shirley Lynde.

Visiting day for the parents and friends will be Sunday, August 22, from 3 to 5 o'clock. The afternoon will include an exhibition of the girl's swimming progress, handcraft, nature craft and other camping activities.

Rotary Club

At the Monday noon meeting of the Newton Rotary Club the speaker was Past President Walter Gregg who reported upon the Rotary International Convention at Nice, France, where he was an official delegate. His description of the 14-day boat trip on the S.S. Roma and of stops at Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Naples and Ville Franche made an envious impression upon his audience. He stressed the wonderful reception which the delegates were accorded by the citizens of France and the local authorities of Nice. He pointed out the fact that Rotary International emphasized the bonds of friendship which exist between all nations. One of the outstanding examples of goodwill at the convention was a meeting held by the French and German delegates.

Members of the Watertown Rotary Club were guests of the Newton members in a joint meeting. The Newton club members will visit Watertown on the Tuesday following Labor Day.

These JUMBLED WORDS represent six New England Islands—one for each state. These six names are made by taking one or more syllables of words from the six correct names and mixing them. For example: "What are correct names for these two jumbled New England Cities—MANISTON and LEWCHESTER?" The correct answer is MANCHESTER and LEWISTON. Simply unscramble these six names and fill in the name correctly spelled for each state on the Answer Form.

START NOW—SEND YOUR ANSWERS EACH WEEK

THE RULES PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

- 1 The "KNOW NEW ENGLAND" Contest is open to residents and summer visitors in New England—with the exception of employees of the New England Press Association, their Advertising Agency or of this Newspaper and members of their families, and with the further exception of any person who has won $25.00 or more in any previous newspaper contest.
- 2 Beginning the week of June 28, 1937 and continuing each week for the remainder of the season, the NEW ENGLAND PRESS ASSOCIATION will publish SIX JUMBLED NAMES. Each of these names will be jumbled to include syllables or words from some of the five other names. For example: "What are correct names for these two jumbled New England Cities—MANISTON and LEWCHESTER?" The correct answer is MANCHESTER and LEWISTON. The jumbled names appearing together will represent a similar classification, one week six New England Manufacturing Centers, the next week six New England Colleges, etc. Each New England State will be represented each week in the six names. It is part of this contest to find the correct name that goes with each State.
- 3 The New England Press Association will award a First Prize of $2,000.00 as a part of $1,000.00 in cash prizes to the person submitting the correct or most correct names for each of the six jumbled names, and in all other cases conforming to the Official Rules. The person or persons submitting the next nearest correct solutions shall be eligible for the additional prizes in the order of the correctness of their solutions. Merchandise prizes will be given to the twenty highest contestants in each state, who will receive a Gift Packet containing ten full size packages—one each of the products advertised in this contest.
- 4 Neatness does not count. Do not decorate your replies or make them elaborate.
- 5 In case of ties, as many prizes will be reserved as there are persons who have any prizes as are awarded for a less correct solution; that is, if two or more people tie in submitting the correct or nearest correct solutions to the 40 names, the first two or more prizes will be reserved for them and will be awarded in the order of the correctness of the solutions of such contestants (without cost) to a second series of 40 names together with the best letter of not over 200 words on the subject "Why I Prefer to Read the Weekly Newspaper." In the event of a final tie between two or more contestants, the position in the list of winners, identical prizes will be awarded to the tying contestants.
- 6 Answers to each weekly contest should be submitted during the following week. Reasonable facilities (hand drawn, not traced) of the Know New England Contest Answer Forms may be submitted. Entry Forms may be submitted from any of the Newspapers cooperating in this contest. The contestant should bring the answers or mail them by First Class Postage to the CONTENTS EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. Answer Forms in this Know New England Contest for the tenth and last series will be received up to noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937. No Answer Forms will be accepted for judging which arrive at the contest office later than that date and hour, except those sent by mail and postmarked not later than noon, Saturday, September 11, 1937.
- 7 In order to qualify for a prize, the contestant is required to accompany each of the 10 series of answers with a remittance of ten cents in coin payment in return for which you will receive four beautiful photographic prints of New England scenes. Picture size 8" x 11", suitable for framing. Purchase of these prints is a condition for entering the contest. The picture prizes will be mailed to the contestant at the close of the contest.
- 8 Any person entering the contest and by submission of answers, agrees to accept as final the decision of the New England Press Association and the Contest Editor, on all matters affecting the conduct of the contest; the making of awards, and procedure and policy with regard to the acceptance of submissions during the contest. The spelling of these New England names conforms with that given in the Encyclopedia Britannica. The New England Press Association reserves the right to disqualify any submission which shows evidence of collusion.
- 9 Answer Forms to which no names are signed will not be considered, nor will any claims for prizes be considered. The ownership of such answers be recognized. The contest is held in the New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, or their representative for answers or communications unduly delayed or lost in transit either from the contestant to the New England Press Association or from the New England Press Association to the contestant.
- 10 More than one member of a family may enter this contest if 10 cents is sent with each Answer Form.

If there is anything about this contest you do not thoroughly understand, write or telephone the CONTENTS EDITOR, New England Press Association, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, or this Newspaper for an explanation. ANSWER FORM Enclose a dime with your answer to qualify for a prize, and in return you will receive, at the close of the contest, four beautiful photographic prints from pictures by Sam Chamberlain, distinguished photographer of New England scenes. Newton Centre Business Men Hold Outing

The butcher, the baker and everyone else closed up shop at noon Wednesday in Newton Centre, and hustled down to Fieldston on the Atlantic. The occasion was the annual outing of the Newton Centre Business Men's Association.

A well planned program of sports held the attention of all during the afternoon, the feature event being the baseball game between the Upper square and Lower square. The game was a classic, in which nearly every one present took part. There were plenty of hits and errors, but the runs were held down to 6 to 4, the Upper square coming out on top.

Scotty Salmon captured the winners, and Al Bonazoli was head man for the Lower squares.

Much interest was shown in the bowling matches. The pins sure did lay down (some of them) when Bud Schuman bowled a ball at them. Some fine totals were run up, indicating the presence of experts.

At 6:30 a chicken dinner was served in the Howard Johnson pavilion, at which Dr. Thomas W. Dowd, the president of the association presided. Orchids were voted to Gordon Conrad, chairman of the Outing committee and to his partner and assistant, Ryan.

For the fine work they had done in making the outing a success, Mr. Conrad made acknowledgment with becoming modesty, which only goes to show that the firm of Conrad & Ryan are just as careful when it comes to organizing as they are at fixing watches and selling gems. After the dinner prizes were awarded to the winners in the various contests as follows:

Long-distance Baseball Hitting — Ray Brooks.
 100-Yard Dash—1st prize, Ray Brooks; 2nd, Del Monte.
 Blind Race—Mr. Paulini.
 Three-legged Race—Al Bonazoli and Del Monte.
 Swimming Race—1st prize, Cleaves; 2nd prize, Joe Pass.
 Diving—Scotty Salmon.

Final Swimming Meet At Camp Dayton Aug. 28th

The second swimming meet of the season at Camp Frank A. Day, Newton Y. M. C. A. boys camp at Brookfield, was held last Saturday. The final swimming meet will be held on Saturday, August 28th. It will be a gala affair and will be called Camp Day Annual Friends' Day. In the afternoon exhibition boat races and the swimming meet will be conducted. Following the evening meal the Annual Minstrel Show will feature the counselors as end men and a chorus of fifty voices.

Individual Swimming Accomplishments

Beginners Classes are conducted daily except Sunday at Camp Day and have been successful in teaching more than thirty boys to learn the fundamentals of the common strokes. However there are two other types of classes which are extremely popular this season, and unlike the Beginner Class are entirely voluntary on the part of the camper. In each three week period an advanced swimming class is held daily in the afternoon for those boys who wish to make themselves more adept in the water. The pupils are taught the requirements listed by the American Red Cross—tread water; float motionless; two dives; 100 yard swim, using side and one other standard stroke; swim 50 feet on back, using legs only; surface dive in 6 to 8 feet of water and recovery of object; witness demonstration of artificial respiration. This class is a step leading to the next class, the Junior Red Cross Life-Saving Class, in which class boys twelve years of age and up to sixteen are instructed and then tested on the various requirements listed by the Red Cross.

In the second three week period the following boys were successful in achieving the Swimmers award and were granted the Red Cross Swimmers' button by Director Clyde G. Hess at dinner, Tuesday, August 10th. Robert Everett, Belmont; Howard Hatch, Waltham; Harvey Hogue, Malden; Carl Needy, Newton; George Roope, Newtonville; Tommy Shepherd, Newtonville; Winthrop Snow, Jr., Wintrop; Donald Simonds, Winchester; Gilbert Tibolt, Newtonville; Robert Tibolt, Newtonville; Arthur Tilley, Port Chester, N. Y.; Charles Spettel, Newton.

The boys who have passed the Red Cross Life-Saving tests during the six weeks, and are eligible to wear the Red Cross insignia are: Lister Benjamin, Watertown; Ralph Howland, Walpole; John Howard, Walpole; Eileen Francis, Watertown; Robert Frost, Concord; Charles Johnson, Walpole; Arthur Feinburg, Brookline; Franklin Konenberg, Belmont; John Nason, Brookline; George Pettengill, Waban; Robert Furman, Newton; Lyon Clark, Waban; Philip Maginot, Newton Highlands; James Shute, Belmont; Richard Smith, Belmont; Walter Stone, Wellesley; Douglas Teschner, Newtonville; Fred Topping, Brookline; Jack Wallenstein, Brookline.

Y. M. C. A. Lifesavers—Arthur Feinberg, Brookline; Eben Francis, Wabertown; Franklin Konenberg, Belmont; Charles Mallett, Newton; Carter Munroe, Boston.

Breaks Arm In Fall From Tree

Timothy McCarthy of Trowbridge street, Newton Centre, fractured his right arm in a fall from a tree at the Newton Centre playground on Tuesday. The thirteen year old boy was picked up by an unidentified woman and taken to the office of Dr. Joseph D. Ferrone at 860 Beacon st. Following treatment of the injury, Ralph Hearn, playground director took the lad to the Newton Hospital for x-rays. The boy had been warned only the day previous to refrain from climbing trees.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

THIRTEEN TEAMS IN LOCAL TOURNAMENT

As play lagged in the early rounds of the city playgrounds tennis singles championship this week, a tentative draw was announced for the doubles tournament, which will be played concurrently with the singles. Winners of both singles and doubles city championships will be awarded prizes, and will be named by the playground department to represent Newton in the New England championships at New Bedford. Last year Newton's entry was Paul Rich, who reached the New England finals at Springfield.

Thirteen teams are entered in the doubles tournament. Although disappointed by the defection of Don Martin and Mal Clarke, two of the best local doubles players, assistant playground director Jack Lombardi secured entries of seven pairs from the Burr playground district and four from other parts of Newton. The four seeded teams are No. 1, Henry Jones and Paul Rich; No. 2, Gordon Kitchen and Roland Coombs; No. 3, Tom Slattery and William Myette; No. 4, Harry Sylvester and T. O. Sylvester. Seeding was difficult, in that few of the teams entered have played long together. An unseeded combination which may upset the seeded list is that of Al Rogan and Kersam Chobanian.

Tim Dacey and partner, unplaced in the first round, will probably play a preliminary match. The tentative draw for the first round, allowing all four seeded teams byes to the next round, is as follows: Franklin Rich-Leo Geary vs. J. Byrne-W. Byrne, winner to play No. 1 seeded team; Chobanian-Rogan vs. J. White-F. Cummings, winner to play No. 4 seeded team; Powell-Pike vs. Roland Cullen-Jack Carder, winner to play No. 3 seeded team; Jack Morris-Victor Haven vs. Henry Simon-Frank Wetherbee, winner to play No. 2 seeded team.

TWO-SEASON ENDS—FINAL PLAYOFF SERIES STARTS

The twilight season ended Tuesday night with the Royals defeating Y. M. C. A. in the final game to make the third play-off position in the American division.

Frye, pitching for the "Y" deserved a better fate and with better support would have won his game. Royals proved to be the better fielding team, particularly in the outfield. The umpires selected for the National league semi-finals are Jack Leary, Tony Lombardi and Leo Sullivan with Leary on balls and strikes for the first game and Lombardi on bases. Lombardi will be in charge of the second game with Sullivan on bases.

Umpires selected for the American division are Buck Donahue in charge of the first game with Lawless on bases, Lawless in charge of the second game with Briedy on bases, and Briedy in charge of the third game with Donahue on bases.

Fined $50 For Liqueured Driving

Antonio Umina of 120 Pine st., Auburndale, was fined $50 by Judge Allen in the Newton Court on last Thursday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He appealed. Umina was arrested on July 28 at Watertown st., Newtonville, by Patrolman Whalan who observed a car being driven in an erratic manner. Whalan testified that a young woman who was riding in the car with Umina said that three times during the ride, she had to seize the steering wheel to keep the car on the roadway. Patrolman Kelly testified that when he put Umina in a cell, the latter fell on a bench and then gave two incorrect telephone numbers when he asked that his brother be notified.

ARCHERY TOURNEYS GROW IN POPULARITY

The increasing popularity of archery, the newest venture of the playground department, was evidenced in the second weekly tournament held at the Newton Centre playground last Saturday morning. A feature of the morning was a small team shoot composed of boys, all but three of whom were beginners the week previous. FERGUSON SETS TWO MORE WORLD RECORDS

Clinton Ferguson of Waban, national amateur outboard motorboat champion, set two new world records for class B power boats this week in the national sweepstakes, feature of the North Shrewsbury water carnival at Red Bank, N. J. On Sunday Clint lost his five-mile record to Doug Fonda of New York, whose average for the first heat was 47.74 mph, but he came back to win the second with a new world record time, 48.886 mph. In the world record time, 48.886 mph. In the mile trials Monday Clinton increased his own world record from 50.992 to 51.988 miles an hour. Tomorrow and Sunday he will drive in the Hearst gold cup regatta on the Burnham Lagoon course, Chicago, where a year ago he dominated the amateur division and won his current rating of national champion.

Starting Monday at Longwood Cricket Club, Chestnut Hill, the National Doubles tennis championship is this year the finest event in many years for New England tennis enthusiasts. The entire German Davis Cup team is entered, as well as the top players of France, England, Japan and Canada. Top-seeded mens' doubles entry will be the defending national, Wimbledon and Davis Cup champions, Don Budge and Gene Mako. It will be an opportunity that no Newtonian can well afford to miss, to see these great teams in action, especially at the prevailing low price scale.

Miss Olive Webster of West Newton recently won the Great Chebeague Women's Golf Championship by defeating Mrs. Isabel Morrow Cook on the 20th hole. Miss Webster first won the Spalding Cup, emblematic of the tournament championship in 1927, and has repeated several times in the intervening ten years.

Mrs. Warren Beard, the former Dorothy Hunter of Newton, now the foremost woman golfer of the state, is paired with Mrs. Henri Prunaret of Charles River C. C. in the Kittansett four-ball tournament. On Wednesday, after the second day's play, this team had a score of 74-146, three strokes ahead of the second-best entry.

A lightning bolt which struck a Boston Elevated trolley car at Newton Corner frightened a dozen passengers and the motorman and conductor during the thunderstorm last Saturday afternoon. When the bolt struck they fled panic stricken but fortunately escaped the effects of the bolt which disabled the car. It was pushed to the Watertown car barn by another trolley car which arrived a short time later.

The bolt first struck a chimney on the Taylor block and then hit the trolley wires, passed down the trolley pole into the fuse box and tore a hole through the side of the car.

Alderman McKay stated that this was the remaining project of a three-year program of construction of the loop to provide for an increased volume and flow of the water, thereby improving fire protection facilities.

Water Commissioner Joseph J. Murray requested Mayor Childs to recommend the appropriation which the latter did prior to the meeting of the Board. Construction of the section of the "belt loop" will start at Lexington and River sts., West Newton and extend to Melrose and Auburn sts., Auburndale. It is planned to commence construction soon so that it will be completed as early in the winter as possible.

Police Smash Alleged Wool Theft Ring

Long Investigation Results In Five Arrests

Newton police smashed a wide-spread wool theft ring last week by the arrest Friday of five men on charges of larceny and conspiracy. The arrests climaxed a lengthy and painstaking investigation of thefts of wool valued at over $6000 from the Rohmer Wool Scouring Co., of California st., Nonantum. Police allege that the thefts occurred on four separate occasions between September 1935 and May 1936. In all thirty bags of wool of 100 pounds each were taken from the company's storehouse, carried to a nearby field where they were picked up by a truck. The loot was stolen in Boston.

The investigation, going on for many months, also linked the gang with the theft of seven tons of steel from a construction job in Westwood according to the police. The arrest of other alleged members of the ring is expected. Two of those suspected of having a part as "fences" in the disposal of the loot are serving jail sentences in connection with wool thefts in other cities, police stated.

Four of the men who were arrested as the result of the investigation carried on by Patrolmen William L. Whelan, Henry G. Bell and John F. Lovely under the direction of Captain Nicholas Veducio were arraigned in court on Friday and the fifth, who was not apprehended until late that day was in court on Saturday. The defendants, each of whom were held in $5000 bail for the grand jury were Raymond Trainor, 28, a salesman of Cohasset; William Shriberg, 35, junk dealer of 228 Linwood ave., Newtonville; Henri Boudreau, 34, junk dealer of 81 Gardner st., Newton; William Bianchi, 28, of 114 Gardner st., Newton; and Ralph T. Harnden, 33, dealer in second hand machinery of Framingham. The defendants were represented by Attorneys James P. Atkins and Edward A. Fahey and Judge Allen continued the case until Saturday after denying a request that bail be decreased to $1500 each.

The climax in the investigation came when Patrolman Whelan was given permission by Captain Veducio to transfer his activities to Cohasset. Whelan, accompanied by Patrolmen Bell and Lovely, went to that town and questioned Trainor, bringing him to Newton police headquarters late Thursday evening where police officers made a confession by calling the activities of the ring. Warrants were immediately issued and three of the other men taken into custody at their homes. Late Friday in Framingham the fifth defendant, Harnden, was arrested. Arraigned in court on Saturday his bail was set at $5000 by Judge Thomas Weston and like the others he was held for the grand jury on charges of larceny and conspiracy.

A. L. Rohmer, president of the concern from which the wool was stolen, described how the material vanished. He said that someone in his employ put the wool out of the storehouse at night into the field and it was then taken away. On May 18, 1936 ten or twelve bags were found abandoned in the field after a barking dog had apparently frightened the thieves away. The discovery of these bags of wool led to the discovery of the previous thefts. Mr. Rohmer also told the police that Boudreau was employed by his firm at the time the thefts were committed. He placed a value of between $100 and $115 on each bag of wool.

Patrolman Whelan told the court of a confession made by Trainor. Patrolman Lovely testified that he and Bell visited a man named Thomas Robertson of Malden, who is serving a term in Billerica, and that the latter had confessed that he was implicated in the wool thefts. The court was also told of a delay in the investigation which resulted when the police inspector who undertook the investigation at the time of the discovery of the thefts had subsequently died.

The woman told police that she was "tired of living." In her hand were found two farewell messages addressed to relatives. The delegation of police that visited the Bell home included Sergeant Thomas F. Lehan and Patrolmen Joseph Lyons, George Kilmain, James E. Halloran, John Monahan, Lawrence Dungan and William H. Dowling.

Throngs Attend Services For Slain Officer

The funeral services of Patrolman Henry G. Bell, victim of a gunman's bullet, were held Wednesday morning. The flower-laden casket was borne from his home at 33 Charlesbank rd., Newton, to the Church of Our Lady. Outside the home was a double line of brother officers who stood at attention with their service caps against their chests as six other officers served as pallbearers.

Throngs filled the church and thousands more stood outside in reverent tribute during a solemn high mass of requiem. Rev. Fr. John A. Sheridan, pastor of the church officiated, assisted by Rev. Fr. Russell T. Haley and Rev. Fr. James A. Fahey. Mrs. Bell was attended by her brother, Raymond Prendergast of Watertown. With her also were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, parents of the officer, and other relatives of the family.

Four motorcycle officers headed the cortege which included seventy five members of the force and those aiding in the search for the wanted man from nearby communities. Mayor Childs and a large delegation of city officials were present including Judges Thomas Weston and W. Lloyd Allen of the Newton court, Aldermen Frank T. McCabe, John E. Barwise and Edward H. Fahey, Clerk of Court James P. Gallagher and State Senator Arthur W. Hollis.

Patrolmen John Geegan, Thomas Conannon, Charles Lynch, Edward Hickey, Frank Lovely and James Conannon, all of whom have been on the force about the same time as Bell bore the casket from the church. The cortege then proceeded to Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, where committal services were held. On the way it passed police headquarters where the flag was at half-staff and the building draped in mourning.

Officer Bell, who had been a member of the regular police force for about a year, having served for several years as a reserve officer, came to Newton from Brighton. He attended Boston College High School. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Bell, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, three sisters and four brothers.

The Metropolitans have just completed one of its best seasons, finishing second in the Mass. State League tournament. They were noted out in the final playoffs by the Bermudian Cricket Club. Thirteen teams comprise the state league.

Young Mother Drinks Poison, Will Recover

Found lying in a field off Charlesbank rd. on Monday afternoon after drinking poison in a suicide attempt Mrs. Sarah Pellegrini, 23, of 10 Green court, Newton, was taken to the Newton Hospital where her chances of recovery were said to be good. Attracted by her moans a passing motorist found the young woman, mother of one child. A short distance away a delegation of the Newton Police Benefit Association were calling on the widow of the late Patrolman Henry G. Bell. The autoist encountered them as they were leaving the house and told them of his discovery.

The woman told police that she was "tired of living." In her hand were found two farewell messages addressed to relatives. The delegation of police that visited the Bell home included Sergeant Thomas F. Lehan and Patrolmen Joseph Lyons, George Kilmain, James E. Halloran, John Monahan, Lawrence Dungan and William H. Authorities Plan to Proceed For Indictments in Newton Police Killing-- Hunt Notorious Jail-Breaking Gangster

Motorcycle Officer Larry Murphy Fighting Peritonitis Following Shooting and Slaying of Officer Henry Bell—Two Held as Accessories

While Motorcycle Officer Lawrence E. Murphy is fighting desperately for life against peritonitis, local and state officials continue their search for the gangster-murderer of Patrolman Henry G. Bell, who shot the two Newton policemen Saturday night. Edward E. Simpson, alias James Swartz, alias Flynn, alias Ross, notorious criminal and jail-breaker, was conclusively linked by police as the wanted man through many clues which police uncovered following the tragic affair on Watertown st., a short distance over the Newton line in Watertown.

After several hours of questioning on Wednesday District Attorney Warren L. Bishop moved to arraign Edward J. Black, a pal of the gunman who surrendered himself to police earlier in the day, on charges of being an accessory after the murder. He hinted that police believe Black was in touch with Simpson after the murder of Patrolman Bell. During the entire week police have been bending every effort to apprehend the slayer and events have transpired swiftly since the shooting without the desired result but with satisfactory progress.

The attention of Patrolmen William Whelan and Henry Bell was attracted to a gray sedan automobile as it passed through Newton Corner about 11:30 Saturday night. It answered the description of the "getaway" car used by the bandits who robbed Louis Zazzera, co-proprietor of Negrotti's lunch room, Nonantum, in a hold-up in Watertown last week Thursday afternoon. The car, driven by a girl with a man companion, turned down Adams st. At the traffic light at Watertown st. the car turned right against the red light. The police pursuing car overtook the automobile on Watertown st. near the junction of Capital st. and the girl was ordered to stop.

She complied and stated that she was driving on the man's license when asked to produce her own. Her companion said that he had recently arrived from New York and that he had left his license at his brother's home in Brighton. He told police that the car was his brother's and that his own name was John Ross of 534 Beacon st. The address proved to be that of an office building. The officers grew more suspicious when the man offered them a $10 bribe to let them go.

Patrolman Bell remained on guard while his companion officer took the pursuing car to the nearest patrol box to check with headquarters on the registration. While Lieut. Murphy was checking the registration there Officer Murphy called in and was instructed to join Bell. Before returning to the suspect car Officer Whelan met William Marchant of 243 California st., who was riding with Zazzera when the holdup occurred on Thursday. He asked Marchant to go with him to aid in identifying the suspect if possible.

Meanwhile, Frances Frada, the girl driver of the car by which Bell stood, ascended from the car. In her story to the police later she claimed she attempted to warn Bell that her companion was armed. Whether or not she was ordered to get out of the car by the gangster is not certain but it is believed that in getting out she attracted Bell's attention momentarily. During this moment the man pressed a revolver against Bell's back and after he was disarmed ordered him into the driver's seat. According to a statement made by Bell before his death the girl removed the pistol and holster and placed it on the rear seat of the car. The gunman got into the back of the car and ordered Bell to drive.

As Bell drove away Officer Murphy came along and overtook the car near the intersection of California street with Watertown street a hundred yards from Galen street, Watertown. Bell stopped the car and Officer Murphy dismounted from his motorcycle and walked towards Bell and the gangster. As he did so the latter opened fire on Murphy, the bullet passing through his abdomen and out the back and he fell to the ground. The man then turned on Bell and fired two shots through his right shoulder and down through his right side. He then leaped from the machine and ran toward the thick underbrush near the Parker school playground. Although seriously wounded, Murphy rose to his knees and fired after the fleeing man and apparently at least one of the shots took effect.

A taxi-driver, Henry Purdy, accompanied by Joseph DeRosa of Dalby st., Newton, came along and Murphy was taken to the Newton Hospital in the cab by Purdy. Murphy told the pair that Bell was in the gun man's car and DeRosa drove him to the hospital in it. Surgeons removed a kidney and part of the liver in an unsuccessful effort to save Bell's life. Several blood transfusions were given by Patrolman Whelan, John S. Lovely and Manley Kiley. He died Sunday afternoon. Fireman Frederick G. Murphy, who is not related to the motorcycle officer, and Patrolmen Frank Barry and John J. Murphy gave blood to aid the other victim of the shooting.

Meanwhile the killer appeared at the corner of Galen and Watertown sts. and stole a car owned by Cosmo Piccolo, proprietor of a spa. He forced the latter's wife from the driver's seat at gunpoint. Her husband who witnessed the incident ran to her aid but he also was held off by the weapon. The gunman drove rapidly away towards Faneuil. August E. Farrenkopf of Watertown, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Piccolo's, was sitting in a car behind the Piccolo car and he started in pursuit. He lost sight of the gunman's car which was later found abandoned on Wadsworth st., Brighton.

The Frada girl lost not time in making her getaway from the spot where she was left standing when Bell was abducted. She ran to a parked car on Watertown st. and asked Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Camaratta to get her away quick. She said she didn't want to get into any trouble and would explain later. As they drove to West-ern ave. near Memorial Bridge the girl told her story which she later told to police. When the Camarattas returned to Watertown and saw the crowd they told police and the girl was picked up shortly afterwards a short distance from the spot where they left her.

The girl told police that Ross picked her up outside a cafe and that she went with him to her home where she gave her mother $5 she had received from Ross. He also gave her $2 for herself. The pair then went to a Boston cafe and after eating drove around. After a while the girl took the wheel and they drove to Newton.

Many clues in the car and from identifying witnesses were run down early this week and the gunman was found to be Simpson. The man's record is long, covering a period beginning back in 1923 when he was in court on a charge of larceny and attempt to kill. On March 30, 1937 he was arrested in Boston on a charge of larceny and while awaiting trial escaped from the Charles Street jail on April 25th. He was accused as John Kilgallon's companion in a Hudson wool robbery.

The Frada girl was held in $50,000 bail on a charge of being an accessory and material witness and picked Simpson's photo from the rogues gallery pictures shown her Monday as her companion. Others who had seen the couple during the earlier hours of Saturday evening also made identification.

A surprise raid by state police on an isolated farmhouse in Milford resulted in the seizure of some blood-stained clothing. The escaped convict is known to have visited the house in the past. A detail of Brighton and Watertown police searched a large area in the Hanover section of Allston Tuesday afternoon in an effort to uncover the concealed killer. The section is one where Simpson was a frequent visitor and the location of the home of Black, Black, who surrendered to the police on Wednesday.

nesday, is said by police to have become frightened of the results of his connections with Simpson and had been of considerable aid to them in their latest efforts.

The gunman's automobile was identified as the property of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rachs of Englewood ave., Brighton. It was stolen from a parking lot near their home on June 21. A set of number plates made by welding individual figures together was found on the car and a black mask, similar to one worn by one of the bandits in the Zazzera hold-up was found beneath the seat. Many fingerprints aided the police in their checking of clues in ascertaining the identity of the killer.

Urges Adoption Of Two-Way Radio Communication

Alderman Claims Shooting of Officer Shows Need

Declaring that there was a serious defect in the protection of Newton policemen by the lack of two-way radio installation in police cars Alderman Edward A. Fahey asked that steps be taken by the city to overcome this deficiency at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night. The Ward 1 Aldermen offered a resolution that the Mayor be asked to investigate the adoption of a two-way installation and report to the Board his recommendations. He said "it should not be necessary for an officer to leave the scene to talk to headquarters. Other communities have recognized the value of two-way communication. It has been adopted in Brookline and is satisfactory."

Because there were no facilities for communicating with headquarters from the cruising car Patrolman Bell was left alone beside the gunman's machine while his companion, Patrolman Whelan, found it necessary to go to a police box to call headquarters.

President Floyd, without putting the matter to a vote, assured Alderman Fahey that his suggestion would be followed.

Offer $1000 Reward For Police Killer

A reward of $1000 for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the slayer of Patrolman Henry G. Bell was authorized Monday night by Newton aldermen at a regular meeting of the Board. Mayor Childs had recommended the posting of the award under an appropriation from the Law department.

Making the report on the reward Donald D. McKay, acting chairman of the finance committee in the absence of Alderman Bowen, said "It is regrettable that the reward should be necessary but I am certain that unanimous approval of it will be given."

TRAGEDY STRIKES DEEPLY

The deep sympathy of Newton citizens goes out to the families of the two police officers who were shot down in cold blood by a ruthless and notorious gangster the other night. With one officer fatally shot and the other fighting desperately for his life against infection there is nothing their fellow citizens would not do to appease the suffering of their loved ones. When tragedy such as this comes into a community it strikes deeply.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM

The tragic events of the past week-end make us think deeply and with much concern about the criminal problem of today. During the past decade or more we have witnessed a tremendous moral decadence. There are social evils present which a generation ago would not have been tolerated. One of the most unfortunate results of the prosperity and depression eras of recent years has been the desire of almost every sort of person to make easy money. And from this desire has come the opportunity for the underworld to prey upon community after community through the operation of various rackets. With the underworld rackets have come disrespect for law enforcement, police authority, and even human life. There can be but one answer if civilization is to be maintained on the high plane that the founders of this nation conceived and to which they dedicated their lives. That answer is to train, control and conduct our law enforcement officers and agencies so that they command the respect of all and the fear of those who would stoop to desperate actions.

WILL BEAR FURTHER SCRUTINY

This week information came to us of a certain method of soliciting funds which will bear further scrutiny. It is alleged that a certain committee, designated for political purposes, is soliciting funds for the avowed purpose of sending underprivileged children to a fresh air camp. Supposedly the committee is operating within the law, but we should advise Newton citizens to attempt to find out how many children are sent to such camps by the committee, and the cost per child of each one sent as well as the size of the allotment made for solicitation. We are further informed that recently solicitation has been made in nearby communities and that it may even now be being made in Newton.

ONE GLARING EXAMPLE

The controversy over the State Guide Book which the Federal Government is attempting to have the state accept is an interesting example of the misappropriation of states' rights. Throughout our educational training we were impressed with the importance of states' rights and with the insistence of the framers of the constitution that there should be no interference by the Federal government. Yet the instance of the preparation of a State Guide Book which offends the majority of people is but one lone example in many which could be cited to show the encroachment of the Federal government upon the rights of the individual states.

WALTHAM IS FORTUNATE

We are pleased to learn of the candidacy of former Representative Arthur A. Hansen of Waltham for the office of Mayor of that city. It is not our province or desire to tell our neighboring city who it should elect as its chief executive but during four years of association with the popular Waltham representative we learned to know his many qualifications. Any city is fortunate in possessing candidates of as high a calibre as Colonel Hansen.

THE COURT BATTLE NOT OVER?

Indications came from Washington this week that the administration's intentions to alter the Supreme Court have not been abandoned despite the decisiveness of the defeat during the recent session of Congress. The original attempt to enlarge the court came rather suddenly and it took many weeks and months to organize and to acquaint the public fully with its undesirability. The opposition will lie smoldering for the present, however, and it will need little warning before it is again fanned into flame.

Playground Field Day at Lower Falls

Even a temperature close to 100 degrees could not wilt the enthusiasm of children and parents who attended the annual district field day held Friday afternoon at the Newton Upper Falls playground. Children from the Newton Highlands, John W. Weeks, Thompsonville, Cold Springs and Upper Falls playgrounds presented a well-balanced program of their summer's achievements in sports, hand work and dancing, under the direction of the district supervisor, John E. Leary.

Mayor Edwin O. Childs, playground superintendent Ernest Hermann, assistant superintendent John J. Lane, Rev. Fr. Williams of the Sacred Heart parish in Newton Centre, playground instructors and supervisors from the other sections of Newton, and members of the Playground Commission were among over a thousand who witnessed the activities.

Following a group of racing events for boys and girls, a program of entertainment was presented. A military drill by the Newton Highlands girls, little girls' dances by Upper Falls and Thompsonville, song by Donald McKenna of Upper Falls, pop drinking contest, tarantella by girls from Upper Falls, Thompsonville, and Newton Highlands, boxing exhibition, topsy dance, safety play by Thompsonville, rhythmic circus by the Upper Falls girls and the prize wait.

An amusing part of the program was the circus, although the pop drinking contest was a close second. After the parade, led by little Genevieve Tocci resplendent in red, white and blue drum major's outfit, had circled the field, members of the circus troop did their stunts, prompted by animal trainer Helen Browne, who also announced. Dolly Schivone, as Bert Flossie, sang "The Merry Go Round Broke Down"; Mary Tocci as the Skinny Man found difficulty in mastering her rearing scooter; Frances Doark, Vingi Vano and Genevieve Tocci as Flopsy, Mopsy and Topsy, performed a daring and graceful tight-rope act (although the rope was flat on the ground) Gene Di Donato, the bearded lady, performed "The Organ Grinder Swing" on a steel guitar, and Vingi Vano did a tap dance. The elephants, bears, horses and dogs went through their paces in excellent fashion. There was a grand finale of tumbling acts and other gymnastic stunts.

At the close of the program Superintendent Hermann spoke briefly. Prizes for the afternoon's contests were given by Mayor Childs, as follows: Boys' 25 yd. dash, first, Paul Schivone, Upper Falls; second, Billy Gould, Cold Springs; third, Russell Hockridge, Cold Springs.

Boys' 25 yd. 3-legged race: first, Fred Schivone and Louis Tarbelli, Upper Falls; second, Francis Coffa and Robert Adamson, Highlands; third, Paul Kincard and Justin McCarthy, Weeks.

Boys' 35 yd. dash, first Basil Hines, Upper Falls; second, John Beecher, Upper Falls; third, Russell Hockridge, Cold Springs.

Boys' 35 yd. 3-legged race: first, John Bruder and Basil Hines, Upper Falls; second, Charles Angeloni and Danny Pasanter, Thompsonville; third, Robert Burke and Julian Tyler, Highlands.

Boys' 75 yd. dash, first, William Hurley, Upper Falls; second, John De Angelis, Thompsonville; third, Fred Saviano, Upper Falls.

Boys' 60 yd. 3-legged race, Fred Saviano and E. Murphy, Upper Falls; second, Robert Burke and Julian Tyler, Highlands; third, Arthur Fazen and Billy Hobbitt, Weeks.

Boys' 60 yd. dash, first, Harry Simpkin, Thompsonville; second, Dan McKinnon, Upper Falls; third, John Pozzi, Thompsonville.

In the pop drinking contest, John Ross of Weeks finished first, and William Coakley of Highlands second.

First place in the girls' prize dancing went to Wilma Gregorio and Ellen Percole of Thompsonville; second, to Nancy Philato and Evelyn Philato of Highlands; and third, to Veronica Standish and Mary Connell of Upper Falls.

An outstanding part of the afternoon's demonstration was an exhibition of 600 pieces of handwork, completed by the children of the five playgrounds in the district, under the direction of Nick Tedesco and Miss Gladys L. Forbush. District, as well as individual, playground awards were made to both the boys and girls for general excellence in craftsmanship.

Sarah Garrabedian and Joseph Dacey, both of Upper Falls, first place district handwork awards in the girls' and boys' contest, respectively. Shirley Gehling of Weeks won second district place and Anna DeClementi of Thompsonville third. For the boys, second place was awarded to Charles Doherty of Cold Springs and third to Leo Thomas of Highlands.

Other individual playground handwork awards were:

Cold Springs: (girls)—first, Eleanor Murray; second, Patricia Ford; third, Joan Chapple. (Boys)—first, George Walters; second, Richard Rhoades; third, Richard Phelan.

Aldermen Meet

At the first regular meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen since July 19th a considerable amount of routine business was on the docket. Seven petitions for pole locations of the Boston Edison and New England Tel. & Tel. Companies failed to produce one person with any objections to the changes involved.

On the petition of H. E. Edgar for a permit to relocate part of a garage at 1200 Walnut at Newton Highlands in order to erect two 2-car garages instead of the originally granted 4-car permit a Mr. Sawyer of Milton expressed his opposition.

Abutting property in his wife's name would be depreciated in value and in rental availability because of the presence of a trucking business close at hand. After questioning by Alderman Colby the objector stated that he had received a notice of the hearing on the original petition but that it did not state the number of cars that space would be provided. Further questioning by Alderman Rawson brought forth information from an owner of the property that the location was in a business zone.

Officials of the John Dolan Coal Company were present to support their petition for permit to install two underground tanks and to keep, store and sell fuel and range oil at 153 Concord st., Lower Falls. They contended that competition had forced them to go into the oil business as it had their coal companies. They indicated that they employed several hundred citizens. Nearby property owners were present and expressed their approval of the petition.

These petitions and those of William Chessman for a 4-car garage at 566 Auburn st., Anburdale and of M. R. Lucas for a 2-car garage at 37 Holly rd., Ward 5 in addition to a 1-car garage already located on the premises were subsequently granted after a lengthy recess.

Several residents of Moffat rd., Waban, were present to urge the taking of land for a drain and sewer to alleviate undesirable conditions in that vicinity. It was brought out that after heavy rains cess-pools overflowed even after frequent pumping out in the homes of several located in a hollow through which the road passes. Mr. Danne representing the Brae Burn Country Club expressed his sympathy for the residents of the section affected but stated that an alternative method of overcoming the difficulties should be followed. If the land is taken he stated and the sewer built paralleling a brook which flows through the Brae Burn golf course, it might easily drain the brook.

This would also prevent winter sports on the pond at Brae Burn which is fed by the brook. He also explained that members of the club are required to take deventures and that if any land belonging to the club is taken for an easement a jury should decide the damages. If the club prospers in the future there would probably be no need for any action but if it eventually became necessary for the club to dispose of its land then the land taken by the city would be of value to those holding the deventures.

In reply to questions to City Engineer Ernest Harvey the latter stated that he could not guarantee that the building of the trunk line sewer would not result in draining off the brook. An alternative would be to install a pump in the Moffat rd. area and pump the sewage to a higher level sewer. This could be done at a cost of $5500. The cost of the trunk line sewer, exclusive of damages, Engineer Harvey placed at about $50,000. He added, however, that the installation of a pump would only postpone the need for a trunk line sewer as nearby unused land became developed.

Residents of St. Mary's st. numbering twenty-five or more were present to favor the laying out, grading and accepting that street under the betterment law. Arthur H. Cox of 55 St. Mary's st. was their spokesman and that of other property owners who could not be present. Property owners of the corner lots on Concord st. opposed the building of the street because of the cost of the improvement which would be levied upon them for the frontage of their land on the new street.

A number of residents of Walnut Hill rd., including Attorney Wm. Donnelly, Messrs. Prater, Carter and Mrs. Thompson favored the acceptance and betterment of that street. Vincent Squires, who has built several houses on Charlesbank Park, Newtonville, favored the improvement under the betterment act of that street.

Following a two hour and a half recess the Board reconvened at 11:30 and in another forty minutes concluded its business. In addition to granting many permits, setting hearings for various petitions and other routine business appropriations were made as follows:

Accounting Dept., pensions: Donato DiBubis, Street Dept. employee, $499.37; Judson J. Sartwell, Police Officer, $2,190.00.

Law Dept., settlement of claim, Mrs. Fannie Snider, $525.00.

Playground Dept., materials, tools, trucks, etc., WPA project, Allison Playground, $4,000.00.

Public Buildings Dept., additional appra., completion of Fire Alarm System in schools, $1,200.00.

Street Dept., Drain improvement, Hammond Brook, Ward 6, $8,000.00; Pierpont rd. sewer, Ward 4, $460.00; Reservoir Drive sewer, Ward 6, $1,210.00; Broadway Ter. sewer, Ward 2, $540.00. Resurfacing Commonwealth ave., south roadway, from Manomet rd. to Chestnut st., under Chapter 90, $20,000.00.

Street Dept., construction of streets under Betterment Law, Billedale rd., Ward 2, $4,723.00; Chesterfield rd., Ward 3, $1,830.00; Waban ave., Ward 5, $3,100.00; Varick rd., Ward 5, $10,850.00, with drain outlet for Varick rd., $650.00.

Water Dept.: Water main extension, Quinhequin rd., Wards 4 and 5, $1,880.00. Water main extension, Columbia ave., Ward 5, $890.00. Completion of 12 in. loop water main, $43,500.00. Eliminating dead ends, Arnold rd. and other streets, $4,560.00.

Newton Republican, August 28, 1875

The committee on new ward lines held their first meeting Tuesday evening. An informal discussion only was had, no definite action being taken, as all the committee were not present.

All the schools in Newton, except the high school, commence the fall session next Monday, Aug. 30th, the nine weeks vacation then expiring. Many of the children have an idea that the schools were not to commence until the first Monday in September. The High School will not probably commence until October 1st. Due notice will be given.

A list of over 1000 individuals who paid taxes of more than $100 shows that in the six wards of the city the highest tax payers were: Ward 1, Newton & Watertown Gas Co., $2603; Ward 2, Wm. Claffin, $4963; Ward 3, Geo. B. Wilbur, $1632; Ward 4, R. M. Pulsifer, $1646; Ward 5, Newton Mills Co., $1638; Ward 6, J. Wiley Edmonds, $4596. The rate was $13.50 per $1000 of valuation.

The Assessors list the following items: The whole amount of land taxed in Newton for 1875, is 9,912 acres, 12,735 feet divided as follows: village and city lots 143,864,657 feet, valued at .0611 per foot, $8,800,795; tillage land, excluding orchards tilled, 832 acres 13,398 feet, valued at $804.90 per acre, $669,675; orcharding, all kinds fruits, 263 acres, valued at $1-35.33 per acre, $355,400; upland and fresh meadow mowing, 1,718 acres 13,176 feet, valued at $612.82 per acre, $1,052,825; pasture land, 1,696 acres 26,315 feet, valued at $327.45 per acre, $552,325; wood and sprout land 2,099 acres, 23,940 feet, valued at $329.51 per acre, $691,650. Total value $12,127,675. The following property is exempt from taxation by law: church property $582,050; literary institutions $385,300; charitable institutions $19,000; agricultural $1,000. The number of polls is 4,089; tax on polls $8,178; number dwelling houses 2,876; horses 1,321, cows 698.

The faces of those who have been summering by the sea or on the mountains, are again seen on our streets.

The express trains go out with two engines apiece.

If some of our City Fathers wish to have a nice sail in safe waters, they might enjoy something extra fine after a heavy shower like the one of last week, at the corner of Beacon and Centre streets, where the water was then some two feet deep. In the winter this is charming, and indescribably convenient.

Dr. Bodge is erecting a tasteful residence on Centre street.

Death of Charles Sumner Dennison, president of Dennison Tag Company, and former Newton native and resident. He was a former member of the Board of Aldermen for four years beginning in 1903 and a leading citizen.

Republican nomination papers filed at the State House for the State Primaries included those of John W. Weeks of Newton for Congress; and Henry E. Rothfield, George H. Ellis, and Thomas W. White for State Representatives. Democratic candidates from Newton were James S. Cannon and Timothy S. Sullivan for State Senator and William J. Mullen, John C. Madden and William J. Geegan for State Representatives.

Non-Stop Drivers Cases Are Filed

Three automobile operators were in court on Friday last on charges of failing to stop before entering a through way. Judge W. Lloyd Allen placed their cases on file. The defendants were Alfred N. Porter, Jr., of Fuller road, Watertown; Theodore R. Lockwood, of Elmhurst road, Newton; and William Dalton of Gridley Street, Quincy.

Powers' Paragraphs

Man is a peculiar being. He is either the noblest of God's creatures, or the meanest animal that walks or crawls on the earth. Some vermin of the latter type held up and robbed Louis Zazzera of Chapel street, Nonantum last Thursday. Zazzera and his partner, John Negrotti conduct a variety store and lunch room at the corner of Watertown and Chapel streets, Nonantum. Among their patrons are hundreds of girls who work at the Raytheon radio tube factory. These girls are paid by check instead of cash and many of them have been cashing the checks at Negrotti and Zazzera's store. Zazzera has been in the habit of going to the bank at Watertown after money with which to cash the pay checks of the Raytheon girls.

Last Thursday morning he was returning from the Watertown bank. With him in his automobile were his two children, one 2 years old, the other 4 years of age, and a third child, 11 years old. Also in the car was a man who is a Nonantum resident. Despite the presence of the little children in the car, two gunmen, one flourishing an automatic, the other a revolver, and riding in an automobile driven by a third hero, forced Zazzera's car to the side of the road, menaced him with their weapons, and forced him to hand over $100. They did not obtain a much larger sum which was concealed in the automobile. So-called lower animals work to procure their sustenance. They do not prey on others of their kind accompanied by young, unless they are of cannibalistic species.

At Tewksbury the other day the blade of a circular saw broke while a man was sawing wood in the yard of his home and he was instantly killed by a flying fragment of the broken saw. For years the thought has occurred repeatedly to us as we observed such saws being operated in this city, of the probability of such an accident occurring. These portable saws are carried from place to place, and for a small sum their owners cut railroad ties or other wood for customers. No such saw should be operated in Newton, or elsewhere, unless the person owning it carries a reasonably large public liability insurance. Fragments of broken circular saws travel considerable distances.

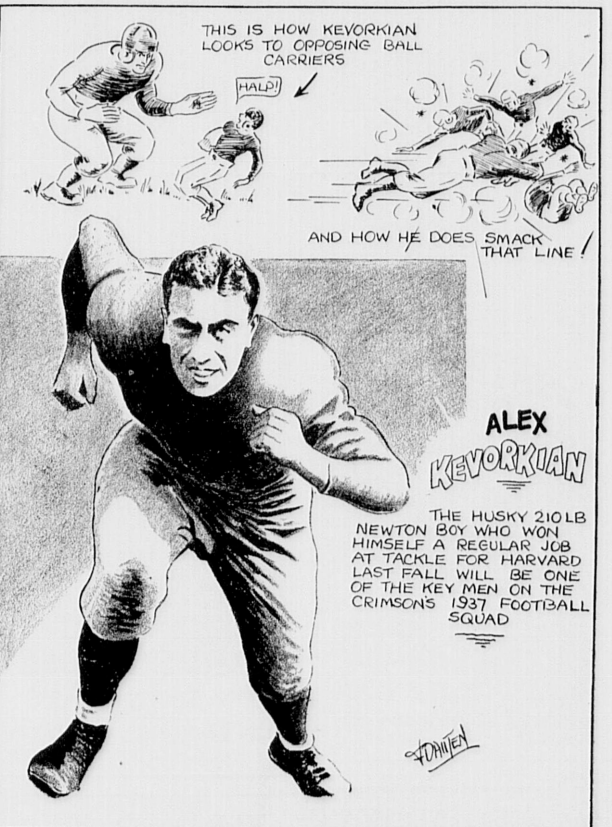

Two members of the Newton police department were victims of a cold-blooded criminal last Saturday night. Patrolman Henry Bell of Charlesbank road, Newton, a member of the department only this year was fatally wounded by a bullet from the killer's revolver, and motorcycle patrolman Lawrence Murphy who was critically injured, is still fighting for his life at the Newton Hospital. It was the first time in the long history of the Newton police that one of its members was fatally shot in the performance of his duty. Nearly 60 years ago Patrolman Baker was shot one night by a milk-wagon driver who thought Baker was a highwayman. Baker lost an eye. The milkman was exonerated. Nineteen years ago Patrolman Henry Loughlin was shot while attempting to arrest a burglar.

Newton and Boston police are sure they have positive evidence which will prove that the slayer of Patrolman Bell is a social misfit who escaped a few months ago from Charles Street jail in Boston, and who has a lengthy court record. The alleged murderer was arrested 14 years ago for attempting to shoot a policeman who was questioning him at Mattapan. He is resourceful and a desperate character, but if alive will shortly be captured.

NEWTON SPORTS REVUE

NO. 11

Harvard University's surest prospect for All-American football honors since the days of Barry Wood is a driving, line smashing tackle from Newton Center, Alexander Kevorkian, Jr. The third and youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kevorkian, 128 Eastbourne rd., he is known as Al by his teammates, although the family still call him "Junie." He is 21 years old, weighs 210 pounds, and stands 6 ft. 2 in. tall.

His first year of college football was perhaps the most brilliant long-term performance of any Harvard player of this decade. Alce was due to be chosen by every rival eleven as one of the hardest-hitting tackles they met all season. He made almost every All-Opponent eleven picked by the teams Harvard played, Princeton, Brown and Yale. Coaches praised his heady, smashing line play. Bill Cunningham named him to the Boston Post All-New England team. He was picked for All-Eastern honors and was given honorable mention in the selection of the All-American eleven. The old time Harvard star, Hamilton Fish, stated in a national weekly magazine that of all the football he had seen in the 1936 season, including games played by the Army, Notre Dame and Minnesota, he was most impressed by the inspired play of Alce Kevorkian in the Harvard-Yale game.

Football is again in the air, so to speak, and another two weeks will see the beginning of regular training by many teams. And Alce Kevorkian will leave his tennis, swimming and relaxation at Scituate to report to Harlow of Harvard. It would hardly do to beat the season to a finish by nominating him as All-American tackle, but such an honor is well in the power of this stampeding Harvardian. He will live at the Varsity Club this year.

The younger Kevorkian played football, hockey and baseball at Newton High. He was graduated in 1932, and spent the following year at Exeter Academy. Matriculating at Harvard in 1933, Alce put in a great season with the Crimson freshman eleven, and was hailed as a sure prospect for the varsity line on Coach Alvin "Dick" Harlow's first Harvard eleven. But Al was placed on probation at the end of his first year, and the ban was effective through the football season. He gave up hockey and baseball, and reported last tally, Whelan, a veteran policeman, and tutor of his patrol car partner, Bell, wanted to remain and guard the suspect, and told Bell to drive to the police box at Nonantum for the purpose of communicating with headquarters, but the younger policeman asked to be permitted to stand guard.

Ranking officers of the Newton police department, including Chief Hughes, Captain Goode and Captain Vedeccio, as well as members of the inspectors division, worked almost without cessation, and with practically no sleep from Saturday night until Tuesday night in efforts to apprehend the killer of Patrolman Bell. We believe that they, or the humblest patrolman in the department should receive compensatory time off when they work overtime in the line of duty. We don't believe in giving time off to policemen for work performed in their regular line of duty. It has become an increasing practice in Boston and elsewhere (and a start was made in this city) to give policemen extra days off if they captured a burglar, or if they were even present when some other policeman captured a burglar. If a policeman performs a heroic or especially meritorious piece of service, he should receive recognition for such an act. But, arresting burglars, is what policemen are paid to do. It would be equally reasonable to give firemen extra days off (with pay) for plowing snow during blizzards, or working down in the stench of sewers. We were impelled to write this after reading of several Boston policemen getting extra days off because they captured Kilgallon and Emsom.

Citizens of Newton approve the appropriation of $1000 by the Board of Aldermen as a reward for the capture and conviction of Patrolman Bell's slayer. We believe they will also approve proper compensation for the young widow of the murdered policeman.

It is interesting to note that the lawyer who first appeared to defend Frances Frada, the girl who was the companion of the desperado who shot Patrolman Bell and Murphy, is William R. Scharon. Mr. Scharon was counsel for Walsh who shot and fatally wounded Patrolman Maclean of the Malden police a few years ago. Scharon obtained the acquittal of his client in that case when he raised the unique point of law that the policeman had failed to state to the man he was attempting to arrest, why he was taking him into custody. Judge Nelson Brown was the judge at that trial. Mr. Scharon was also counsel for the defense in the Miller murder trial. He was also attorney for the defense in the trials of the DiStasios, convicted of killing Crowley at Hudson in May, 1935. The elder DiStasio was supposed to have been electrocuted a few weeks ago, but Governor Hurley and the Executive Council, for some reason best known to themselves, granted a reprieve.

In case you might forget it, thousands of men (also women and children) are still being slaughtered in Spain in the wholesale murder known as war. The larger scale killings in China have crowded the gory mess in Spain off the front pages. The descriptions of the carnage at Shanghai when that shell or bomb, landed in the midst of a shopping district, showed how civilization has progressed. Projectiles of a century ago could not kill over a score of persons at the most. Modern science, begotten of advanced education, is improving things.

Last Saturday night we spent an hour sitting atop the high bluff near Nauset Light in Eastham. The night was calm and clear, and a full moon brilliantly illuminated a broad segment of the Atlantic. A gentle surf breaking on the beach produced fascinating, silvery swirls. Sixty feet below us, on the sand, a large group was gathered around a fire, eating "hot dogs" and slices of watermelon. Apparently they were getting a big thrill watching the little fire on the sand—and apparently oblivious to the sublime, natural spectacle afforded them. Life has its sorrows and we don't begrudge anyone getting enjoyment out of that state of mind which some folks derive from indulging in a "weenie roast." Personally, we believe the vogue of "weenie roasts" on beaches is a nuisance. They result in a litter of burned or partly burned wood, decaying fragments of food, wrapping paper and torn cardboard boxes; empty beer cans, and broken glass from tonic, pickle and other bottles.

"Zola" at Wellesley Playhouse In First Showing Outside N. Y.

A New England premiere of a film which holds every promise of being among the two or three "best of the year" is the unusual offering of the Community Playhouse, Wellesley Hills, for the week beginning August 30. "The Life of Emile Zola" is the picture with the distinguished actor, Paul Muni starring.

Despite the fact that to date it has been seen only in New York City, national attention has already been focused upon it. Paul Muni is credited with doing the finest work of his career not excepting his last previous performance in "The Story of Louis Pasteur" which won for him the Academy Award for the best actor in 1936.

The life of Zola, French writer, publisher, renowned defender of the falsely accused Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, offers a wealth of fascinating material on which to develop a screen story, a story which, to the producer's credit, has faithfully followed the career of the man whose life it portrays.

Special engagements of the finer films are winning an unusual reputation for the Community Playhouse. "Romeo and Juliet" was tremendously well received there and "The Lost Horizon" presented directly after its Boston showing, was so popular that its week's engagement was necessarily extended. In the presentation of "The Life of Emile Zola" there is a special distinction for this engagement will open on the same date as that of the special Boston engagement at the Colonial Theatre.

NEWTON CENTRE GEORGIAN COLONIAL

Alvord Bros. report the sale of an unusual estate at 118 Glen ave., Newton Centre, at the corner of Glen rd. This comprises a splendid example of Georgian Colonial architecture in clapboard with brick ends. There are nine rooms and two porches, three baths and a lavatory, and a garage. The lot contains 10,795 square feet divided into a garden and play yard. Russell M. Sanders of Newton Centre gave title to Dr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Scribner of Newton. After some negotiation, Dr. and Mrs. Scribner plan to occupy their new residence. The entire parcel is valued at $17,500.

As part of the consideration in the above transfer, Dr. and Mrs. Scribner conveyed title to Mr. Sanders in the lot at the junction of Ledgeways, in Wellesley Hills.

Rotary Club

An optimistic business outlook was the keynote of a talk on economic conditions by Herbert N. McGill of Auburn-dale at the meeting of the Rotary club on Monday at the Brass Burn Country Club. Mr. McGill, who is secretary of the local Rotary Club, said that he was inclined to be "bullish" about present conditions and expressed the belief that there would be a definite upward swing in production and sales within the next few months.

His reasons for this belief are based on several facts. The labor situation at present is becoming increasingly quiet and while there probably would be another period of agitation there was nothing of great concern in this direction in the immediate future. The largest and most prosperous farm crops for many years is a sound indication of a rapid increase in purchasing power which is also spreading to industrial fields. Industrial and commodity earnings are much better than in 1936.

He declared that he had reached the conclusion that "anything could happen" but he looks forward to a very good economic progress the next few months and new peaks of business and industrial prosperity will quite possibly be reached shortly.

Although there is a good outlook for the next few months there are several major problems which will seriously affect conditions in this country over the next ten year period. The problems include the situation in regard to gold accumulation and distribution, an uncertainty as to the extent there will be inflation of credit, the problem of war between nations and the possible entry of England and the United States into any such conflict, the tax burden and the huge increase in the national debt, international tariffs, and nationalization throughout the world.

Members of the club were given a bulletin of graphs and figures concerning business trends and commodity prices which is issued monthly by the McGill Commodity Service and which proved of much interest.

President Dr. Frank R. Clark presided and gave a brief report of the District Convention of Rotary at Leominster which he attended last week.

Newton Girls Saved, Jumped Into Harbor

A young woman identified as Miss Mary Coble of Valentine st., West Newton, was rescued from drowning in Boston Harbor last Friday evening by a lifeboat crew of the Nantasket Steamer Town of Hull. The young woman had leaped from the boat in view of hundreds of passengers. She was removed to the Hull Hospital where physicians stated she would recover. She said she was employed by a family residing at Nantasket.

Witnesses said the girl wept continually as she sat in a chair beside the rail on the trip down the har-

A Memorable Cast Brings To The Screen Rudyard Kipling's Soul-Stirring Tale of Men Who Go Down to The Sea in Ships

Of the masterpieces written by the great English writer, Rudyard Kipling, "Captains Courageous," the stirring tale of the Gloucester fishermen who pick up a boy who has fallen from an ocean liner and change the course of his whole life, is conceded to be the most widely known and the greatest. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has given its entire resources to the ambitious filmization of the Kipling epic and bring it to the screen with an all-star cast headed by Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore, Melvyn Douglas, Charley Grapewin and Mickey Rooney. "Captains Courageous" will be the feature attraction at the Newton Paramount for four days, starting Sunday, August 29.

Bride Injured In Auto Collision

A young Auburndale couple, married in an elopement to Milford, N. H., last Wednesday, were injured in an automobile accident on Saturday at Haverhill, Mass. The young bride, whose maiden name was Beatrice Lamb, was critically injured and removed to the hospital. Her husband, Richard King, was slightly injured as were several other persons involved in the accident.

The automobile collision revealed to many Newton friends the marriage of a few days previous. Mrs. King was graduated from Newton High School last June. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Lamb of 247 Grove st., Auburndale. Richard King, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King of Central st., Auburndale, was graduated from Newton High School two years ago and is employed in Watertown.

American Legion

A large delegation from the Newton Post No. 48, American Legion headed by the Post band marched in the parade on Saturday at the State Department Convention held in New Bedford. In recognition of its civic achievement during the past year, the Newton Post received second honors and was awarded a trophy as well as being placed in second position in the parade. Their flood relief service and the work of the transfusion squad which is headed by Joseph Beattie won this high rating for the Newton Post.

Commander Leon H. Mayer was elected at the convention to serve as delegate of Middlesex County at the National Convention, and District-Commander Charles Walker was nominated to the office of Junior Vice-Commander of Middlesex County.

The Newton Drill team under the direction of Capt. Joseph Ward won second place in the competition.

After a hearing Saturday morning in the Newton court the case of Arthur Martorana, 19, of 400 Cherry Street, West Newton, who was charged with receiving stolen property from a juvenile thief, was continued for a year without a finding. A small boy testified that he had given the older youth cigarettes which he had stolen in a store burglary. He asserted that he had given Martorana the cigarettes in return for canoe rides. Martorana, who is the son of a boathouse proprietor, denied receiving the cigarettes and produced a group of boys as witnesses who testified that he had given them canoe rides free of charge.

A curious phase of the case was the fact that the charge of receiving stolen property was the result of the defendant's alleged dealings with a youthful member of a gang which had committed several burglaries in the senior Martorana's boathouse. The complaint against Martorana was requested by Sergeant Sullivan and Patrolman George Tobin who had rounded up a gang of juvenile thieves two weeks ago.

The police asked for immediate trial of Martorana when he was arraigned on Friday because Patrolman Tobin was required to interrupt his vacation in order to appear in court. Attorney Dennis M. Cronin, representing the defendant, asked for a week's postponement. The court set the case for Saturday and after the hearing continued it for a year.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, August 29.

The Golden Text is: "The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father" (John 5: 22, 23).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? . . . And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight. Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard" (Luke 7:19, 21, 22 to 24).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship. In reply to John's inquiry, 'Art thou he that should come,' Jesus returned an affirmative reply, recounting his works instead of referring to his doctrine, confident that this exhibition of the divine power to heal would fully answer the question" (p. 131).

Capitol Theatre Features

Gable-Harlow in "Saratoga"

Laughs and tears, thrills and romance, mingle in "SARATOGA," co-starring Clark Gable and Jean Harlow which opens at the Capitol theatre in Allston for the entire week starting Friday August 27th. A vivid story of the racetrack, with paddock intrigue, a great race, unusual characters, in which a delicate romance is woven, the play is an ideal one for these particular stars. They hate, fight, and love through an action packed drama in which much whimsical comedy leaves the heavy moments.

Never was Miss Harlow lovelier than as the spoiled daughter of the millionaire horseman, Clark Gable provides a virile partner for the actress and is compelling in his role. The picture Saratoga introduces a new comedy team in Frank Morgan and Una Merkel and they are responsible for many a hilarious interlude. Cliff Edwards adds comedy and song. Others in the cast are Walter Pidgeon, George Zucco, Jonathan Hale, Hattie McDaniels and Henry Stone.

As a co-feature the management will present "EVER SINCE EVE" with Marion Davies and Robert Montgomery as co-stars and a supporting cast that includes such popular comedians as Frank McHugh, Patsy Kelly, Louise Fazenda and Allen Jenkins.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

TENNIS TOURNEY FINALS TO BE PLAYED SUNDAY

Finals in both singles and doubles city parks tournaments have been set for Sunday afternoon at Burr Playground, Newton, which means that many third and fourth round matches will have to be finished to-day and tomorrow. Paul Rich, top seeded singles choice, has a tough third-round opponent in Donald Holt of Newton Centre, a great defensive player, and another in Gordon Kitchin of Newtonville, a tournament veteran. Another lively match, probably to be played at Burr to-morrow, is that between Mal Clarke and Don Martin, rivals of long standing, and possibly the singles champion will be the winner of this match. In the doubles, Paul Rich and Henry Jones have rather an easy way to the finals, while their opponents at the other end of the draw, Gordon Kitchin and Roland Combs, will not be tested until tomorrow, when the strugglers in the bottom half of the draw clean up their second and third rounds.

CLASSES IN ARCHERY TO END TOMORROW

The archery classes of the Newton Playground Department will close next Saturday. This new venture has been a huge success according to Miss Cynthia Kenway, instructor, and has developed real junior championship material. Many of the class have joined the Newton Archers Club, and these juniors will continue to shoot throughout the season.

Miss Kenway feels that several pupils will place close to the top in the coming Massachusetts State Championship Shoot and in the Newton Archers Club Championship Shoot. Saturday's shoot was a complete upset all around. Buddy Maloney swept the field to win the weekly Indian arrow prize, while Gloria Maloney just missed by one point. Catherine Davenport, unheard from before, came in third. Winifred Smith was fourth, Leonard White, fifth, and into sixth place stepped Lois Jenks, who, we think, will do credit to any archery club.

The scores were as follows:—

Team 1
Buddy Maloney	245
Catherine Davenport	223
Leonard White	195
Lois Jenks	167
Wm. DeStefano	143

Field Day of Burr District

The District Field Day of Cabot, Waban, Newton Centre and Burr Playgrounds was held on Tuesday afternoon, August 24, at the Burr Playground in Newton. About seven or eight hundred children and their parents attended. There was an exhibition of the woodwork and sewing done by the children during the past season.

Mr. Ernst Hermann addressed the gathering. Mr. Ralph C. Henry, chairman of the playground commission, introduced Mayor Edwin O. Childs who awarded the prizes. The field day was under the general direction of Mr. S. W. Brainard, supervisor of the district. Also attending were Mrs. Louis Marshall, playground commissioner, Mr. John Lane, Mr. John Donahue, Mr. John B. Dacey, and Mr. John Leary, of the playground department.

Mayor Childs explained how the Burr Playground was planned and paid for by the Burr family whose home formerly stood on the site of the present playground. He urged the gathering, young and old always to retain the same interest in young people that this famous Newton family displayed in its generous gift to the city.

Relax
The average person storms, frets and worries too much. Most all of us live under too great a tension. We would do well to copy nature, whose operations are silent, serene and imperceptible. It has been said that man's misfortunes come from his not knowing how to live quietly. One who can keep tranquil and calm in the midst of turbulent circumstances is the possessor of peace whose value is priceless.

WPA Concert To Feature Singers

The Brass Ensemble of Boston, Stanley Hassell, conductor, presented a concert at the Auburndale "Shell" Tuesday evening to an audience of about three thousand people. This was the tenth in a series of concerts at this "Shell." The Ensemble is composed entirely of brass and percussion instruments and rendered a program of semi classical and popular selections which was greatly appreciated by the large audience. Mr. Hassell, the conductor, played for the opening number a march "The Monarch," written by the late famous band master and world's outstanding trumpet soloist, Walter S. Smith. Supervisor Albert Webber of the Newton WPA Orchestra announced the program through the amplifying system.

On next Tuesday evening the Newton WPA Orchestra, under Mr. Webber's supervision, and conducted by Herman C. Sulzen, will present a concert at which the guest artists will be the American Folk Singers, directed by Thomas Johnson, and composed of 20 professional negro singers. Mr. Johnson was born in Birmingham, Alabama, where he had a general education in the public schools. He entered Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, where he won a place in the college glee group and travelled with that organization as soloist for two years. The distinction of his voice gained great recognition and he was encouraged to enter the N. E. Conservatory of Music in Boston, where he made an excellent record in both scholarship and performance and graduated in 1926. He is now one of the outstanding vocal conductors in the Federal Music Project.

The concerts are presented by the WPA Federal Music Project, Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, National Director, William E. Haddon, State Director and M. B. Beaver, Supervisor District No. 2.

Appeals Finding On Charge of Wire-Tapping

Arrested on a charge of unlawful use of electricity Dominic Vergato, 29, of 28 Lincoln road, Newton, was sentenced to one month in the House of Correction when the case was called in court last Friday. He appealed the jail sentence and was held in $100 bail for the Superior Court by Judge W. Lloyd Allen.

Vergato was arrested Friday morning by Patrolmen John Lovely and Timothy Concanon on a charge of "unlawfully and intentionally using electricity without the consent of the Boston Edison Company." Frank J. Sears, electric company inspector, displayed to the court a U-shaped wire which he said was found in place of a meter in the cellar of Vergato's home. The meter, he said, was removed by the company in December 1934. The wire connected the terminals in place of the meter so that current was available.

Vergato told the court that when he left on a trip to Maine a few days ago the current was off but that when he returned he found that it had been turned on. He disclaimed any knowledge of the wire connection and asserted that he thought the company had turned on the current. In response to a question he admitted that there is a radio and a washing machine in the house.

Five Fined $5 For Fast Driving

Sixteen cases of speeding were heard in the Newton Court on Wednesday morning before Judge Lloyd W. Allen, but on account of the complainant, Officer Lawrence E. Murphy not being able to be present, all but five of the cases were continued. The five who pleaded guilty and were each fined $5 were Warren F. Mott of East Dedham, Mark R. McDonough of Jamaica Plain, Hugena M. Dunbar of Natick, David J. Wentzell of West Natick and John H. McCann of Worcester.

Find Dynamite At Newton Centre

Inspector Alfred Hammel of the police department went to Alderwood, Newton Centre on Wednesday and removed a case of dynamite and two boxes of fuses on complaint of residents of that section that the lives of children playing near the tool box where the explosive was stored were in danger. The explosives which were for use in construction of a street in that vicinity were removed to the City Stable. A complaint will be issued charging the owner with storing dynamite without a permit.

Memory Stimulated by Music
Many forms of memory are stimulated by music, according to a writer in Pearson's London Weekly. A certain air may call up a scene we thought we had forgotten. Or it may bring some person vividly to our mind. Certain strains of music have been known to awaken memory in people who were suffering from mental trouble. In the East there are healers who work with sound while using massage to stimulate the nerves. They know that everything has its rate of vibration, and if they can find the patient's vibratory response they can cure his nerves.

Plenty of Peat
Peat—really undeveloped coal—is formed by decaying vegetable matter and is found in almost all swamps. In Ireland, it's composed of moss; in India, rice; in the United States, almost any plant. Although, when dried, peat gives almost as much heat as soft coal and is practically smokeless, it is not used widely in this country as fuel. It takes too long to dry. But if America's coal is ever exhausted, there will be plenty of peat to take its place. Under the Atlantic coast lie about 10,000,000,000 tons.

Two More Cases Of Infantile Here
Two new cases of infantile paralysis reported to the Health department have brought this year's total to four. The latest patients are John Baldwin, 10, of 14 Holland street, and Edna Waldo, 12, of 404 1/2 Centre street, Newton. Both are at the Newton Hospital.

The Baldwin boy was stricken ill on August 14th and developed the paralytic type of the disease. The report was made to the Health department by Dr. William T. O'Halloran.

The Waldo girl's case is the non-paralytic type. She became ill on August 18th and when removed to the hospital the report was made to the Health department by hospital officials. The first case this year occurred in July and a second case last week.

British Isles' Largest Lake
Lough Neagh, of Northern Ireland, is the largest body of fresh water in the British Isles.

"Miraculous Shower" Is Odd Fall From the Sky

People regard as mysterious, or semi-miraculous, various showers of objects which appear to fall from the sky, says a writer in the Indianapolis News. A so-called sulphur shower, occurring in the West, was a shower of pollen blown from pine trees. Showers of fishes usually are caused by waterspouts whose force causes quantities of fish and other aquatic animals to be drawn aloft. Showers of rats and mice have been reported. A shower of birds is said to have occurred in Baton Rouge, La., in 1896. The birds probably were driven inland by a coast storm and killed by a sudden fall in temperature. On the morning of July 29, 1875, a quantity of hay fell from the sky near Monkstown, near Dublin, Ireland, over an area of more than a mile in diameter, lasting five minutes. So-called rains of blood in southern Europe probably were rain reddened by dust blown across the Mediterranean from the Sahara desert.

In showers of so-called ink, the deposit consists of rain blackened with smoke or soot, while a mixture of rain and chalky white earth results in a shower of "milk." The showers of "honey" recorded in old chronicles probably were honey-dew ejected by swarms of aphids, scale insects or leaf-hoppers. The manna of the Bible thus was produced by scale insects which exude from their bodies a clear juice that falls to the ground in drops which harden into sugary grains, and which Arabs gather for use as food and medicine. In the case of some alleged showers of paper, the material has been found to be the crusts of dried algae. The "flesh" reputed to fall from aloft probably is the jelly-like material sometimes formed by colonies of bacteria on the surface of water.

Swing Days Big Events to Children of Koreans

Korean children have many games that are different from ours but little girls in Korea enjoy Swing day best of all special things to do. Swing day comes every year and is a holiday for children, notes a writer in the Washington Star.

Swing day originated from a Korean legend that has been handed down from long ago generations.

In the olden times there was a charming young princess who loved a prince of her own country. But her father, the emperor, married her off to a wealthier suitor from a far land who took her away to live there with him. Her husband knew she was homesick for her native land, and on a high hill outside the palace he put up a swing for her.

Once a year the princess was allowed to swing there all day. She would swing as high as possible and just catch a glimpse of her native land from the air. All year she would wait for this one day to think of her own country.

Korean girls honor the memory of the Swing Princess one day a year. Swings are erected on very long ropes that will fly quite high, on the hillsides. The girls line up and take turns at swinging. Swing day is celebrated this way all over Korea and the homesick little princess is the adopted patron of all Korean girls on that day.

"Switzerland of America"

The sobriquet, "Switzerland of America," is applied to several of the states, Colorado, for one, because of its magnificent natural beauty. Maine is another state called the Switzerland of America. Its mountainous scenery and abundant snowfalls doubtless give rise to this nickname. It is also applied to New Hampshire, New Jersey and West Virginia. It is applied to New Hampshire in recognition of that state's beautiful mountain scenery; to New Jersey because of its mountain scenery in the northwestern part of the state, occasioned by the Kittatinny range of mountains and by the ranges of the Watchung, Sourland and the Pickle mountains of the southeast; and to West Virginia from the picturesque quality of the mountain scenery.

Woodpeckers Attack Dead Trees
The woodpecker has short, sturdy legs and his four sharp-clawed toes, two pointing forward, two backward. With them he clings tightly to a tree, balancing his body with his stiff tail. That allows him "free wheeling" for his chisel-shaped beak. No insect can escape him. After digging to a bug, his long, round tongue cleans out niches like an anteater's. Contrary to popular belief, woodpeckers do little harm to trees. They seldom attack a healthy tree, but they do clean diseased ones of harmful insects.

Use of Words In, Into, In To
Broadly speaking, in denotes rest; into, motion. William knelt in the long grass; Herbert went into the house. But the two words should be written separately where their meaning is separate. The Smiths have moved into their new house; we all walked to the village hall, where we went in to hear the concert. Similarly with on and onto. Ethel danced on the table; Henry jumped on to the seat.—Tit-Bits Magazine.

Fifteen to a Bed
Fifteen guests could climb up to sleep in a community guest bed in one of the old Norwegian houses preserved in the famous open-air museum at Lillehammer, says Sydney A. Clark. If there were one or two more than fifteen, he writes, the host and hostess would take the extras into their own bed.

Humming Birds Adorned With Moustache, Crest
If you were told that humming birds had moustaches, would you believe it? Yet that is true of some species. If told that they were pugnacious, would you still be skeptical? This also is true. These little birds, smallest of the feathered tribe, have many interesting peculiarities, observes a writer in Tit-Bits Magazine.

Hawks and crows often fly ignominiously before the onslaughts of these little creatures, and either sex will attack any bird that offends them or comes near their nest. Humming birds in many species have moustaches, chin pendants, fanciful crests upon the head, puffs on the legs and other adornments, which they display with delight and vanity when courting the plainer female.

There are approximately 500 species of humming birds and they are confined almost entirely to North and South America. Humming birds have tiny, light bodies, remarkably powerful wing muscles, long, narrow wings, and very short wing bones. This gives them speed at the expense of power and enables them to poise in mid-air before flowers while they catch insects that feed on the nectar, and to dart through the air so rapidly that they often elude the eye.

Their bill is frequently twice as long as their head. This enables them to delve deep into the recesses of the flowers they frequent.

The Helena humming bird of Cuba is believed to be the smallest bird in the world. It was discovered by Dr. Juan Gundlach in 1850.

Fingers, Hands, Arms and Feet as Measure Guides
Originally, measurements were based on portions of the fingers, hands, arms, and feet; horses are measured in "hands." The "hand" is the distance across the palm, including the thumb when it is kept close to the palm.

In England, says London Tit-Bits Magazine, the old inch was the distance across the base of the thumb, but in Scotland an ancient statute ordained that the inch was the average of three thumbs, that of a big man, a small man, and a middle-sized man.

The yard was the distance from the tip of the nose to the tip of the middle finger of an arm outstretched horizontally, and a fathom the length of a man's reach when both arms were stretched. The Roman pace or yard was the distance from the back of one heel to the back of another, and 1,000 paces comprised their mile, which is 4,864 feet.

In old Bavaria, a foot was literally the length of a human foot clad in a shoe, and ten-foot poles were made by getting ten men of varying heights to stand in a row and cut the pole accordingly.
